THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

1. The first part of the document is a list of names and addresses, which appears to be a directory or a list of contacts. The names are written in a stylized, cursive script, and the addresses are listed below them. The list includes names such as "J. H. Smith", "W. J. Jones", and "A. B. Brown", among others.

2. The second part of the document is a series of short, handwritten notes or messages. These notes are written in a similar cursive script and are separated by small gaps. Some of the notes appear to be greetings or acknowledgments, while others are more formal or business-like in tone.

3. The third part of the document is a list of names and addresses, similar to the first part. This list also includes names like "J. H. Smith" and "W. J. Jones", but it also includes names that are not in the first list, such as "C. D. Green" and "E. F. White".

4. The fourth part of the document is another series of short, handwritten notes or messages, similar to the second part. These notes are also written in a cursive script and are separated by small gaps. Some of the notes appear to be greetings or acknowledgments, while others are more formal or business-like in tone.

5. The fifth part of the document is a list of names and addresses, similar to the first and third parts. This list also includes names like "J. H. Smith" and "W. J. Jones", but it also includes names that are not in the first list, such as "C. D. Green" and "E. F. White".

6. The sixth part of the document is another series of short, handwritten notes or messages, similar to the second and fourth parts. These notes are also written in a cursive script and are separated by small gaps. Some of the notes appear to be greetings or acknowledgments, while others are more formal or business-like in tone.

7. The seventh part of the document is a list of names and addresses, similar to the first, third, and fifth parts. This list also includes names like "J. H. Smith" and "W. J. Jones", but it also includes names that are not in the first list, such as "C. D. Green" and "E. F. White".

8. The eighth part of the document is another series of short, handwritten notes or messages, similar to the second, fourth, and sixth parts. These notes are also written in a cursive script and are separated by small gaps. Some of the notes appear to be greetings or acknowledgments, while others are more formal or business-like in tone.

9. The ninth part of the document is a list of names and addresses, similar to the first, third, fifth, and seventh parts. This list also includes names like "J. H. Smith" and "W. J. Jones", but it also includes names that are not in the first list, such as "C. D. Green" and "E. F. White".

10. The tenth part of the document is another series of short, handwritten notes or messages, similar to the second, fourth, sixth, and eighth parts. These notes are also written in a cursive script and are separated by small gaps. Some of the notes appear to be greetings or acknowledgments, while others are more formal or business-like in tone.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
COMMISSION TO THE INDIAN TRIBES

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Chelsea, I. T., November 17, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Richard Taylor Parkes for the enrollment of himself, wife and children as Cherokee citizens; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge he testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A Richard Taylor Parkes.
Q How old are you? A 77.

Q You live in Cooweescoowee District do you? A Yes sir.
Q Do you apply for enrollment for yourself or for a family?
A I have two children that's under age.
Q You have no wife? A Yes sir, I have a wife.
Q My wife and two children.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q What is your wife? A A white woman.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Come here sir in 1881. Latter part of 1881.
Q Among the North Carolina Cherokees? A Yes sir.
Q Have you lived here ever since? A Yes sir.
Q Give me the name of your wife? A Elizabeth.
Q How old is she? A 59 or 60.
Q When did you marry her? A Along about '62 or '63; during the first of the War.
Q Were you ever married before then? A Yes sir.
Q How many times were you married before you married this wife?
A Once.
Q Was that wife dead when you married this one? A Oh yes.
Q Was this wife ever married except to you? A No sir.
Q Did she come with you from North Carolina? A Yes sir.
Q And has lived here with you ever since? A Yes sir.
Q Now give me the names of these two minor children? A Wayne Parkes.
Q How old is that child? A He is 19 I believe, sir.
Q Now give me the name of the next child. A Bette.
Q How old is that child? A She was born in 1884.
Q About 16 years old then? A Yes sir.
Q Are they both living now? A Yes sir.
Q My son is not here, he is over at Cabin.
Q Is your wife called Sarah E. Parkes? A Yes sir.
Q Then you want her put down as Sarah E.? A Yes sir.
Q Com'r: The list of North Carolina Cherokees who removed to the Cherokee Nation Decem or 7 1881 in the possession of the Cherokee Representatives present shows the name of Richard Parkes and of Sarah E. Parkes; they are identified as having come to the Cherokee Nation as stated; the former was aged at that time 54 years, and his wife 40 years.
Q These two children were born since you came here? A No sir, the boy was born before I started here in the early part of this year, and the other one was born in this country.
Q They are both living with you now? A Yes sir, one of them is not here now; he is over on Cabin.
Q He is in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Haven't you got another boy that's under 21? A No sir.

1896 roll page 319 4792 Sarah E. Park Cooweescoowee
Q Is Wayne named Oscar W.? A Yes sir.
1896 roll page 230 43703 Oscar W. Parks Cooweescoowee
Q What is that child Bette named? A Named after her mother, Sarah E.
1896 roll page 230 43704 Sarah E. Parks Cooweescoowee
Q Is Sarah E. the youngest child? A Yes sir.
Q Oscar Wayne, is he next to Bette? A Yes sir.

Richard Taylor Parks et al 2

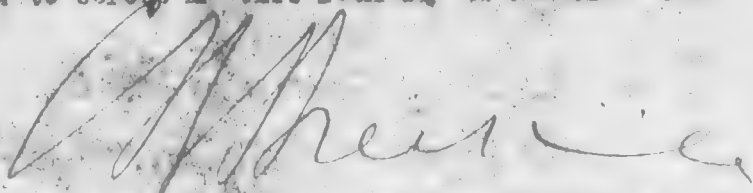

Com'r: Now the child Oscar, was identified on the Cherokee roll previously cited as having come to the Cherokee Nation in December 1881.

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and two children; he and his wife are shown to have been admitted as North Carolina Cherokees in 1881; he is a Cherokee by blood; she is a white woman; they have lived together ever since their marriage in 1862 or 3; she was never previously married, and his former wife was dead when he married his present wife. They are both identified on the roll of 1896; they have lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since they came from North Carolina, and they will be listed for enrollment, he as a Cherokee by blood and his wife as a Cherokee by adoption.

The two children named in the testimony are identified on the roll of 1896; they are both minors, are living now, and will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

N.D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 19th day of November 1900.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q What is your name? A Samuel F. Parks/
Q Your age? A 35.
Q What is your postoffice? A Vinita, Indian Territory.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir/
Q You appear in the interest of our mother, Sarah E. Parkes, who has been notified to appear before the Commissioner on January 2, 1907, and give testimony in connection with her case, do you? A Yes sir/
Q Is your mother able to appear before the Commissioner on that date? A No she is not/
Q Is she too aged and infirm to travel? A Yes sir/
Q What is the name of the Cherokee by reason of your mother's marriage to whom she claims the right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage? A Richard T. Parkes.
Q Is he your father? A He is.
Q Does he spell his name P-a-r-k-e-s? A That is the way he spells his name; he says that is the way the old family spells their name.
Q He is dead? A No sir, he is living/
Q The testimony heretofore taken in this case shows that your father and mother were married at the beginning of the war, about 1862 or 1863, is that your information? A That is my information, yes sir/
Q The testimony also shows that your father was married once previously and that his former wife was dead, and that your mother had never been previously married, is that your information? A Yes sir/
Q You have heretofore testified in connection with her case, have you? A Yes sir, I think I have, sometime ago.
Q Have your father and mother lived together continuously since their marriage? A That is my information up to the time I was large enough to know anything; I have known them living together personally for over 30 years.
Q Your father was a North Carolina Cherokee, as the record shows, and came to the nation December 7, 1881? A Yes sir, we came here under the last invitation extended to North Carolina Cherokees while we lived in the State of Tennessee.

- Q Your mother's name is also identified in the list of persons who were recognized then, she is a white woman, is she? A Yes sir.
- Q Were they married after their removal to the present Cherokee Nation? A No sir.
- Q You state you have no documentary evidence with you as to their marriage? A No sir; I can procure it I think.
- Q Your father, prior to his removal to the present Cherokee Nation was never recognized as a citizen of this present Nation, was he? A Not until after his readmission to citizenship by the National Council.
- Q That was in 1881? A That was in December, 1881.
- Q You are an Attorney at Law? A Yes sir.
- Q Your desire to file a brief in your mother's case? A Yes sir.

Mr. Parks request that he be given ten days within which to file a brief in his mother's case. His request will be granted.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of SARAH E. PARKS as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Chelsea, Indian Territory, November 17, 1900 application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Sarah E. Parks as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 4, 1902, April 22, 1905 and December 29, 1906.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Sarah E. Parks, is a white woman and neither claims nor possesses any right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation other than such right as she may have acquired by virtue of her marriage in the State of North Carolina, May 21, 1863, to one Richard T. Parks; that said Richard T. Parks was not at the time of said marriage a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation and did not become a citizen of said Nation until his removal thereto and his admission to citizenship therein in the year 1881. Said applicant did not, therefore, marry in accordance with Cherokee law a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. Neither the applicant, Sarah E. Parks, nor her husband, the said Richard T. Parks can be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States dated November 5, 1906 in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, Sarah E. Parks, is not entitled, under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and her application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 21, 1906.

Sarah E. Parkes,
Chelsea, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

November 6, 1906, the United States Supreme Court held that white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens according to Cherokee law prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment and allotments of land as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

You are advised that to properly determine your right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, it will be necessary for you to appear before the Commissioner for the purpose of giving testimony as to the date of your marriage and whether or not your husband, by reason of your marriage to whom you claim the right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was a recognized Cherokee citizen at the time of your marriage to him.

You are, therefore, directed to appear before the Commissioner at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at 9 o'clock A. M., on Wednesday, January 2, 1907, and give testimony as above indicated.

Respectfully,

LMC

I know of no testimony we can offer as the records where the license were recorded, were destroyed and all of the witnesses are dead. It seems that the fact that they have lived together as husband and wife since 1863 and are still living together, is sufficient proof of marriage.

Q Who do you apply for? A My half brothers, Joseph Campbell.
Q Has he any middle name? A No, sir. He is on the 1880
Roll. I expect he is about twenty-one.
Q What is the name of the next one? A John Campbell.
He is on the 1880 roll. He is about twenty.
Q Any others? A Glenn Campbell.
Q How old is Glenn? A He is seventeen.
Q The next one? A Matthew Campbell.
Q How old is he? A He is about sixteen or seventeen.
Q Any others? A That is all.
Q What is the name of the mother of these children? A Sarah Campbell.
Q Is she living? A No, sir.
Q Is she a citizen by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q What is their father's name? A Al Campbell.
Q Is he dead? A Yes, sir.
Q Is he a citizen by blood? A No, sir.
Q Now, Joseph Campbell is twenty-one. Why is he not here to enroll himself? A Their post office is Chouteau, and I don't know whether he has enrolled or not, and we thought we had better see about it.
Q What relation are you to them? A A half sister.
Q What is the post office of these children, Chouteau, you say?
A Yes, sir. Two of them are going to school at the Orphan Asylum.
Q Joseph and John are at Chouteau, are they? A They live about five miles from there.
Q That is their post office. A Yes, sir; Chouteau or Pryor Creek, I don't know which.
Q Did Joseph's mother raise these children? A Yes, sir; until she died. She has been dead about eight years.
Q Sarah Campbell is the mother of Joe? A Yes, sir.
Q And Joe and John are full brothers? A No, sir; they are not. They are half brothers, but I think he was always enrolled as Joe Campbell.
Q Did they have the same mother? A Yes, sir.
Q They got their blood through their mother? A Yes, sir.
Q Joseph Campbell is over twenty-one and he will have to appear for himself.

Saline District.
1896 Roll, page 140, No. 1242, Matt Campbell, Cooweescoowee District.
Q These children are alive and were born and raised in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Have they any legal guardian? A Well, I was the guardian under the Cherokee law, and when that run out why Joe Campbell got to be guardian about one year ago.

Q It would be his place to enroll these children. A Well whether he would do it or not.

Q Well, never mind it doesn't make any difference.

THE COMMISSIONER: The name of John, Glenn and Matthew Campbell appears upon the census roll of 1896, John's name appearing upon the authenticated roll of 1880. Glenn and Matthew, as well as John, are identified as the children of Sarah and Alfred Campbell, whose names appear upon the authenticated roll of 1880, according to the page and number of the rolls as indicated in the testimony. Their names are also found upon the census roll of 1896. They all being duly identified and having made satisfactory proof as to residence, the said John Campbell, Glenn Campbell and Matthew Campbell, will be duly listed for enrollment as Cherokee citizens by blood.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in this application for enrollment and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION for the enrollment of Charles Barney as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

CHARLES BARNEY, being first duly sworn by B. P. Rasmus, Notary
Public, testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q What is your name? A Charles Barney.
Q What is your age? A My age is 67 years old.
Q Your postoffice address? A Feil.
Q Are you an applicant for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation? A I guess I am.
Q You have no Cherokee blood? A Not a bit.
Q Your only claim to the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation is by virtue of your marriage to a citizen by blood, is it? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of the citizen through whom you claim your right to enrollment? A She was a Ward. Old man' Ward's last child he had, - she was a girl.
Q Is she living or dead? A Dead.
Q When did she die? A She died in April 1883, the 9th day.
Q When did you marry her? A Married her, - I don't know exactly whether it was 71 or 72, - it was a little before Christmas.
Q A little while before Christmas in 1871 or 1872?
A Yes, it was in my bible, but my bible aint at home.
Q Was she a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation at the time you married her? A Born and raised here in the Cherokee Nation.
Q Was she living in the Cherokee country when you married her?
A Born and raised in the Cherokee Nation.
Q I asked you if she was living in the Cherokee Nation at the time you married her? A Yes, living here.
Q Did you marry her in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Did you secure a license? A Yes sir.
Q In what district was that license issued? A Delaware District.
Q In 1871 or 1872? A Yes, I was married to her before that by a preacher.
Q Where were you married the first time? A In Delaware District.
Q By a preacher? A Yes sir.

- Q But not in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation?
 A No sir.
 Q You married her this second time to comply with the laws of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
 Q Was she your first wife? A Yes sir.
 Q Were you her first husband? A No sir; she was married to a man by the name of Marqum when she married me.
 Q Was he dead or living? A He was dead.
 Q From the date of your marriage, did you and she live together continuously until the time of her death? A Yes sir.
 Q Since her death have you remarried? A Married another woman but she was a Cherokee.
 Q When did you marry the second time? A 18th day of December, 1886.
 Q What is her name? A Lucy.
 Q Is she living or dead? A Dead.
 Q When did she die? A She died in 1887, last day of July.
 Q Was she a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes. Father and mother both Cherokees.
 Q What is her father's name? A Williams.
 Q William what? A Harrison Williams, - he is living yet.
 Q What is her mother's name? A Katie, - she is dead.
 Q What is the full name of your second wife before you married her? A Her name?
 Q Your second wife? A Lucy Williams is all I know about it.
 Q From the time of your marriage to your second wife, did you and she live together as husband and wife until her death?
 A Yes sir.
 Q Since her death have you married again? A No sir.
 Q Has your residence been continuously in the Cherokee Nation from the time of your marriage to your first wife in 71 or 72 up to the present time? A Yes sir. Haven't been no where else.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

The applicant Charles Barney is identified on the Cherokee tribal authenticated roll of 1880, Coowees Coowee District, opposite No. 375. The original marriage records for Delaware District Book "B", in the possession of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, shows that license was granted Charles Barney to marry Francis C. Marqum December 19, 1870, and that said license was returned for record December 19, 1870.

- Q Who married you? A Man by the name of E. Lowry, full-blood.
 Q Was he a minister of the gospel? A Yes, I have heard him preach many a time.
 Q Did he give you a certificate at the time he married you?
 A Jeff McGee did.
 Q Who was Jeff McGee? A He was clerk of the District court at that time.
 Q Jeff McGee is the fellow who married you when you were married to your wife in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation? A I guess he was; the Indian couldn't write at all.

- Q Have you a certificate from him? A I had a certificate but Bob McDaniel came and called for it, and I gave it to him to take to Tahlequah. He was a councilor at that time.
- Q That certificate is not in your possession? A No sir; because they called for it and I handed it over to them.
- Q Is this man McGee who married you in accordance with the Cherokee law now living? A I think he is, - I wont be certain. I know E. Lowry is dead.
- Q If it was necessary then you could get another certificate from him? A Yes, any time I would send for it.

(Witness dismissed).

I, S. T. Wright, stenographer to the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, on oath, state that I recorded the testimony and proceedings had in the above entitled cause on January 5, 1907, and that the above and foregoing is a true and correct transcript of my stenographic notes thereof taken on said date.

CHARLES BARNEY as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Chelsea, Indian Territory, November 17th, 1900 application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Charles Barney as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 11th, 1902 and January 5th, 1907.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Charles Barney, a white man, was married in accordance with Cherokee law December 19th, 1870 to his wife, Catherine Barney, nee Vard, since deceased, who was at the time of said marriage a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Cooweescoowee District No. 370, as a native Cherokee; that from the time of said marriage until the death of said Catherine Barney, which occurred April 9th, 1883, the said Charles Barney and Catherine Barney resided together as husband and wife and continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation; that subsequent to the death of said Catherine Barney the said Charles Barney on December 18th, 1885, was married to one Lucy Barney, nee William, who was at the time of said marriage a recognized Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Cooweescoowee District, Page 205, No. 3361 as a native Cherokee; that said Charles Barney and Lucy Barney resided together as husband and wife and continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation until the death of said Lucy Barney, which occurred in July, 1887; that since the death of said Lucy Barney the said Charles Barney has not married, and that his residence has been continuously in the Cherokee Nation since December 19th, 1870. Said applicant is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 and the Cherokee census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5th, 1906 in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, Charles Barney is entitled, under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 26th, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly granted.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 27, 1906.

Charles Barney,

Chelsea, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

November 6, 1906, the United States Supreme Court held that white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens according to Cherokee law prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment and allotments of land as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

You are advised that to properly determine your right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, it will be necessary for you to appear before the Commissioner for the purpose of giving testimony as to the date of your marriage and whether or not your wife, by reason of your marriage to whom you claim the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, was a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation at the time of your marriage to her, and whether or not you were married to her in accordance with Cherokee laws.

You are therefore directed to appear before the Commissioner at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at 9 o'clock A. M., on Saturday, January 5, 1907, and give testimony as above indicated.

Respectfully,

S. V.

Acting Commissioner.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 9, 1907.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the undersigned, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, has been designated by the Secretary of the Interior, as the official to make and approve appraisals of the value of improvements upon land in the Cherokee Nation which were made prior to November 5, 1906, by white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens prior to December 16, 1895, and who have the right under the Act of Congress approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), to sell improvements.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage who have made permanent and valuable improvements on lands of the Cherokee Nation and who claim the right to sell the same under and by virtue of said Act of Congress of March 2, 1907 (Public 180), must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, and designate the land upon which are located the improvements which they claim the right to sell by virtue of said Act; and if any such intermarried citizen shall fail to appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, it will be considered that he makes no claim to the benefits conferred by said Act. Such appearance and designation of improvements must be made before the Commissioner at his office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, at any time between Monday, March 11th, 1907, and Saturday, March 30th, 1907, inclusive, or at any of the following named places between the dates named at which places the Commissioner will have a representative to receive said designations and hear testimony relative thereto:

Bartlesville, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Tulsa, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Claremore, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Nowata, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Vinita, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Pryor Creek, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Tahlequah, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Sallisaw, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Designations must be made in person by the intermarried white claimant, or in case proper proof is made that he is physically unable to appear, by some adult member of his immediate family, or in case proper proof is made of the fact that the intermarried white claimant is physically unable to appear and has no adult member of his immediate family, by a person holding a properly executed power of attorney; provided, that in every case the designation must be made by a party familiar with the character, ownership, location and value of the improvements to be designated. At the time of said designation the testimony of any competent person will be taken by the Commissioner as to the location, character and value of said improvements.

No former intermarried white claimant will be permitted to designate improvements upon more land than he would have been entitled to take in allotment for himself had he been admitted to citizenship. If any intermarried white claimant has made a tentative selection of a full allotment he will not be allowed to designate improvements upon other land.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that if any citizen of the Cherokee Nation entitled to select an allotment shall claim that the improvements on land tentatively selected by a former intermarried white claimant are held by him, it must be shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the same are held by him.

any intermarried white claimant shall fail to appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, it will be considered that he makes no claim to the benefits conferred by said Act. Such appearance and designation of improvements must be made before the Commissioner at his office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, at any time between Monday, March 11th, 1907, and Saturday, March 30th, 1907, inclusive, or at any of the following named places between the dates named at which places the Commissioner will have a representative to receive said designations and hear testimony relative thereto:

Tulsa, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Claremore, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Nowata, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Vinita, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Pryor Creek, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Tahlequah, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Sallisaw, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Designations must be made in person by the intermarried white claimant, or in case proper proof is made that he is physically unable to appear, by some adult member of his immediate family, or in case proper proof is made of the fact that the intermarried white claimant is physically unable to appear and has no adult member of his immediate family, by a person holding a properly executed power of attorney; provided, that in every case the designation must be made by a party familiar with the character, ownership, location and value of the improvements to be designated. At the time of said designation the testimony of any competent person will be taken by the Commissioner as to the location, character and value of said improvements.

No former intermarried white claimant will be permitted to designate improvements upon more land than he would have been entitled to take in allotment for himself had he been admitted to citizenship. If any intermarried white claimant has made a tentative selection of a full allotment he will not be allowed to designate improvements upon other land.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that if any citizen of the Cherokee Nation entitled to select an allotment shall claim that the improvements on land tentatively selected by a former intermarried white claimant, or held by him, do not belong to said intermarried white claimant, or makes any adverse claim to said improvements, or to the right of the intermarried white claimant to sell said improvements under the Act approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), said citizen must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes either at Muskogee, Indian Territory, prior to April 1, 1907, or at one of the places above designated and within the dates above designated and make formal complaint before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes of his contention. At Muskogee, Indian Territory, between March 11th and March 30th, 1907, inclusive, and at the other places herein named during the hearings at said places as herein fixed, plats will be open for inspection showing the location of tentative allotments made by former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage and all other land on which such claimants claim improvements, so far as indicated by the records of this office.

All persons interested should take careful note of the limitation of time herein provided for, within which designations and complaints may be made, and that they must be made by appearance before the Commissioner.

Q Have you always lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q You are married? A Yes, sir.

Q You don't apply for your wife, do you? A Why, I understand it that---

THE COMMISSIONER: If you married after 1895, and you apply for the enrollment of your wife, we will reject her.

A Well, I just married about two months ago.

Q Well, I think you married too late. Who is Mary Nelems?

A She is a daughter of mine.

Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.

THE COMMISSIONER: The name of Felix Nelems appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as well as the census roll of 1896. He being duly identified and having made satisfactory proof as to his residence, he will be duly listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

The undersigned, being sworn states that as stenographer to the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in this application for enrollment and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 19th day of November

 Q What was her name before you married her? A Laura Roberts.
 Q Her first husband was dead when their marriage took place?
 A Yes sir.
 They left here to go to Florida, and he died there and she come back here and married him.

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant applies for the enrollment of his wife and two children; his wife is shown to have been admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee Commission in 1887; she has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since; she is identified on the roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee; her change of name arises from her marriage in October of the present year; which is established by the testimony of the applicant, and substantiated by that of his wife's sister she will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

The two children applied for are step-children of the applicant; children of his wife, by a former husband; the older, Alex Roberts is identified with his mother on the roll of 1896, he is living now and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood; when a certificate of birth of the younger child, Paul Roberts, is filed with the Commission, this child will also be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

M.D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as a stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 19th day of November 1900.

In the matter of the application of LAURA HUNT, for the enrollment of herself and her children, ALEXANDER and PAUL ROBERTS, and LUCILE HUNT, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation:

GEORGE M. HUNT, being first duly sworn, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by the Commission:

Q What is your name ? A George M. Hunt.
Q How old are you ? A I am forty years old.
Q What is your post office address ? A Coffeyville, Kansas.
Q Was it formerly Chelsea ? A Yes sir.
Q Are you a married man ? A Yes sir.
Q Are you claiming citizenship in the Cherokee Nation ?
A No sir.
Q Are you the husband of Laura Hunt ? A Yes sir.
Q When did you marry her ? A The 11th of October, 1900.
Q Is your wife Laura a Cherokee by blood ? A Yes sir.
Q How long has she been living in the Cherokee Nation ?
A Why I can't say for certain, I think they come here in 1887 or '88, I aint sure which.
Q You say "they", who do you mean by "they" ?
A Her sister and her grand-parents.
Q Where did they come from ? A They come from Georgia.
Q That was their first visit to the Cherokee Nation was it ?
A I think so, as near as I can say.
Q Were they admitted to citizenship at that time ? A Yes sir.
Q Has she lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since ?
A No sir, she was out of the Nation something over a year, I don't know how much; her first husband---
Q What was his name ? A Alexander Roberts. He was taken sick; he had consumption, and the doctors advised her to go to a milder climate with him, and they went to Florida and he died there.
Q What year was that ? A I can't say hardly, I didn't know them at that time, but it must have been, about '97 I guess it was.
Q 1897 they went out ? A 1896 or '97, I aint sure, but as near as I know, I think it was '97.
Q You say they were gone how long ? A Something over a year.
Q When did she come back, what year ? A She come back, I believe, in '98, the latter part of '98. I don't know just when she come back.
Q How long before you married her, can't you tell it that way ?
A She had been back, I guess, not quite a year, or maybe a little over a year, I aint sure.
Q She must have come back about 1899, then ? A It might have been Q She had been gone a little over a year ?
A Yes sir, between a year and two years. She said she wasn't gone two years, something over a year, but not quite two years.
Q Was her first husband a Cherokee ? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know him ? A No sir, I didn't know him, I think I have seen him, but then I didn't know him. He used to live in Chelsea.
Q You don't know except what your wife told you ?
A That's all I know about it.
Q They went down there for his health ? A Yes sir.
Q And he died there ? A Yes sir. His father lives in Florida, and that's why he went there.

Q How long has he lived there ? A I don't know, I don't think his father is a citizen of this country, he is a Cherokee, of course, but I don't think he was ever admitted here at all.

Q What is his first name ? A Isaac Roberts.

Q Has he ever lived in the Cherokee Nation ?

A Not that I know of.

Q Where was your wife Laura and her first husband married ?

A At Chelsea.

Q Was he living here then ? A Oh yes sir.

Q Was he a citizen ? A He had been admitted to citizenship.

Q When ? A I don't know.

Q How long had he been living here, do you know ?

A No sir, I don't know for sure.

Q When were they married ? A I don't know, I think, I can't tell you when they was married, because I don't think I ever heard her say, and I didn't know anything about them at that time.

Q The oldest child is a boy six or seven years old ?

A Yes sir.

Q It was seven or eight years ago anyhow ? A Yes sir, he will be seven years old next October.

Q Then you don't know how long he had been living in the Cherokee Nation prior to that time ? A No sir.

Q Did they own any property in the Cherokee Nation ?

A They owned some lots in Chelsea.

Q Did they own any farms ? A No sir, I think not.

Q Did they dispose of that property before they went to Florida ?

A No sir, my wife disposed of that after she come back. Her first husband was a tinner; he worked at the trade there in Chelsea.

Q How many children did she have by her first husband ?

A Two.

Q Alexander and Paul ? A Yes sir.

Q Are they both living ? A Yes sir.

Q Have you got a child by your wife Laura ? A Yes sir.

Q Lucile ? A Yes sir.

Q Is that child living ? A Yes sir.

Q Has your wife an initial in her name ? A Yes sir.

Q Laura M., is her proper name ? A Yes sir, or Laura May. I believe though I gave her name as Laura M.

Q Was that the only time your wife has been out of the Cherokee Nation, when she went to Florida, since she came in 1887 ?

A Yes sir. I think it was '87 or '88. They had their admission papers there when they enrolled and I saw what year it was then, but I don't remember.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
AUXILIARY CHEROKEE LAND OFFICE/.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, April 5, 1905.

In the matter of the application of George M. Hunt, a non-citizen, to select an allotment in the Cherokee Nation for his wife, Laura M. Hunt, his step-children Alexander and Paul Roberts, and his minor child Lucile Hunt, whose names appear on the Cherokee citizen roll at Nos. 26694, -5-6 and 7 respectively, Field Card No. 5555.

George M. Hunt, non-citizen husband, step-father and father, being sworn, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission:

- Q What is your name? A George M. Hunt.
Q What is your post office? A Coffeyville, Kansas.
Q What is your age? A 43.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No sir, I am non.
Q What is your object in appearing at the Auxiliary Cherokee Land Office today? A To file for my wife and children.
Q What is the name of your wife? A Laura Hunt.
Q What are the names of your children? A Alexander and Paul Roberts, and Lucile Hunt.
Q Are Alexander and Paul Roberts your step-children? A Yes sir.
Q They are all living are they? A Yes sir.
Q Under what authority do you represent your wife in this matter?
Q With her consent she signed that power of attorney and wanted me to come and file.
Q This request that I have here is signed by your wife is it?
A Yes sir. She is unable to come. Unable to stand the trip.
Q Is her health in such condition at this time that she is unable to appear here? A Well she has not been well. I can hardly get around.
Q Is the land that you desire to have allotted to your wife and minor children under improvement and cultivation? A Yes sir. All fenced and the land is cultivated in patches.
Q Is the land located on the west side of the Grand and Arkansas rivers? A Yes sir.
Q Is there sufficient land there to make complete allotments to all four? A Yes sir.
Q Has anyone ever attempted at either the Vinita or Tahlequah Offices to select an allotment for your wife or children?
A No sir.
Q Has anyone ever been appointed guardian for your children?
A No sir.
Q This is the first attempt anyone has made to file for them?
A Yes sir. I was at the Land Office and got that paper a year ago and that is the first time anyone has been to an office.

Witness offers letter signed by his wife Laura M. Hunt addressed to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in which she requests that the commission make discretionary allotments to herself and her three minor children and to be governed in the same by the testimony of her husband George M. Hunt, an intermarried applicant, dated April 3, '05.

Blanch Ashton upon oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes she accurately recorded the testimony in the above entitled cause and that the foregoing is a correct transcript of her stenographic notes thereof.

Q What objection was made to your enrollment? A. They said hat it was all right.

BY W. W. HASTINGS, CHEROKEE REPRESENTATIVE-

Q Who did you apply to? A. To Mr. Bullett at Tahlequah.

Judgment:- The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself, husband and four children. She is identified on the 1880 and 1896 roll as a Native Cherokee. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. Her oldest child, Lora Pace is identified with her on the roll of 1896. This child is living now and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. When she supplies the Commission with proper certificates of the birth of her three youngest children, Leonard, Rosa Lee, and Oia D. Pace, these children also will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood. Her husband states that he was married to his wife Minnie on the 30th of April, 1893, and it is alleged that neither of them were ever previously married. He is not able at present to present a certificate of his marriage at this time, but states that he has sent for an official copy of the records. He is not on the 1896 roll, which from his testimony would be due to a clerical error. Granting him the benefit of the assumption that there will be presented evidence of his marriage in accordance with Cherokee law, he will be placed on a doubtful card, being classed as a Cherokee by adoption, to await the production of evidence as to his marriage.

Chas. von Weise, being sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all the proceedings in the above cause and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes therein.

Q. Do you fix the month as October by what you were doing at that particular time? A. Yes sir.

WITNESS EXCUSED .

MARCUS JORDON, being sworn, testified as follows:

- Q. What is your name? A. Jordan.
Q. Your full name? A. Marcus Jordan.
Q. How old are you? A. Going on 54.
Q. What is your postoffice? A. Chelsea.
Q. Are you a citizen of the Cherokee nation? A. No sir.
Q. Are you a white man? A. Yes sir.
Q. Do you know James Pace? A. Yes sir.
Q. He is a white man? A. Yes sir.
Q. Do you know his wife? A. Yes sir.
Q. What is her name? A.))--Minnie, I believe, there are two of the girls-- I believe it is Minnie.
Q. Did they have a child named Ola D. Pace? A. Yes sir.
Q. Is that child dead? A. Yes sir.
Q. Do you know when she died? A. Not right at the date, I know pretty well.
Q. Do you know the year? A. Yes sir.
Q. What year was it? A. 1902, I believe.
Q. Are you sure? A. Yes sir. Pretty sure.
Q. Are you positive? A. Well, I taken a trip to Oklahoma in September, I was gone a month, and to the best of my recollection I returned home the first day of October and this happened after I got back home.
Q. Was that trip you speak of taken in 1902? A. Yes sir.
Q. Can you fix the month in which she died? A. This child?
A. Yes sir? A. In October, some time along in October.

- Q. How many trips have you made to Oklahoma? A. That is the only one.
- Q. Are you a married man? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Is your wife a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A. No sir.
- Q. When were you married? A. I don't remember exactly when it was.
- Q. Have you some children? A. Yes sir.
- Q. What is the date of the birth of your first child? A. I don't remember that exactly, unless I was to look at the record of it.
- Q. Are there any other persons that lived up in your neighborhood that have died within the last three or four years?
- A. Yes sir, there have several died.
- Q. Tell me some other person who lived up there who died during the year 1902.
- A. I think John Pace ~~that~~ had a child died that same year, about a month or two before Jim's did.
- Q. Is John Pace a brother of James Pace? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Is the wife of John Pace a Cherokee? A. I don't think she is; I think she is a white woman.
- Q. Do you know the month in which John Pace's child died?
- A. No sir, I don't know whether August or September. It was a month or so before Jim's died, I don't recollect exactly how long, but not a great while.
- Q. Do you know the name of John Pace's child? A. No sir, I don't know what they called it.
- Q. Can you name some one else who died during the year 1902?
- A. I don't recollect for certain of any body right now.
- Q. Can you state positively under oath that this child died in October, 1902? A. Yes sir, I am pretty certain of that.
- Q. Are you positive? A. Yes sir.

BY MR. VANCE:

- Q. How far were you living from Mr. Pace at that time? A. About a mile.
- Q. Have you talked with anyone recently about the date of the death of this child? A. No sir, I haven't thought about it even since its death, I expect.
- Q. Do you know the doctor who waited on this child?
- A. No sir, I don't know what doctor they had.
- Q. You didn't think any thing about it recently? A. No sir.
- Q. How did you happen to come down here? A. Why, Jim was wanting witnesses that knew about it.
- Q. He told you when it died? A. No sir, he was asking me about it; I told him he ought to know when it died.
- Q. Did he ask you if you knew? A. Yes sir; I told him I did not know the day exactly, not the date of it.
- Q. Are you positive that it could not have been 1901 instead of 1902? A. Well no, sir, I don't think it could.
- Q. Do you know? A. Yes sir.

ON BEHALF OF COMMISSIONER:

- Q. Then you have had some talk recently with Mr. Pace about the death of his child? A. No sir, I don't know anything about it, only he asked me to come down here. At this time he lives eight or ten miles from me. He lived up there about a mile from me for three or four years.
- Q. When did you move to the place you live on now?
- A. I moved there last fall.
- Q. Do you know what year you were born? A. In '53.
- Q. What day of the month? A. Eleventh day of February.

JAMES PACE being duly sworn, testified as follows:

- Q. What is your name? A. James Pace/
Q. How old are you? A. Thirtysix years old the 27th of March
Q. What is your postoffice? A. Chelsea, Indian Territory
Q. What is the name of your wife? A. Minnie Pace.
Q. Did you have a child named Ola D. Pace? A. Yes sir
Q. Is that child dead? A. Yes sir
Q. When did she die? A. October 26, 1902
Q. Are you positive as to the date of her death? A. Nothing more than this-- when she died I told my wife, "Mamma, if she had lived till tomorrow she would have been a year and four months old.
Q. She was one year and four months old when she died? A. Yes sir
Q. Are you positive as to the year in which she died?
A. Yes sir, I think so.
Q. Are you positive that she was only a year and four months old?
A. Yes sir, that was that I said to my wife, I remember, I said a year and four months, or a year and six months.
Q. Now as to the date of her death, are you fixing that from any record or just from your memory? A. Well, just the day of her death, and what we were speaking of there at home.
Q. Had the child begun to walk? A. Yes sir she had been walking for a month or more before she was taken sick, but after she was taken sick she never got so she could walk afterwards
Q. Have you ever before this time executed an affidavit as to the death of this child? A. Up there at Chelsea there was an affidavit made, I think my wife made it, they told her to send it in here, and I think she put in the dates wrong.
Q. Why do you think that? A. Because I think she put it in September or something like that.
Q. You think she made a mistake in the month? A. Yes sir.
Q. Did she give the year correctly? A I don't know whether she did that correctly or not.
Q. Did you sign an affidavit as to the death of the child?
A. I don't remember whether I signed an affidavit or not, I had three children died right along there, this was the last one, but we had so much trouble when we was first married I just dont remember.
Q. But this child was either a year and four months or a year and six months old when she died? A. yes sir
Q. And from what you told your wife the next day is how you fix the date now? A. Yes sir, she was either a year and four months of a year and six months old to the best of my knowledge; I think four months.
Q. Do you know when it was your wife executed the affidavit? at Chelsea? A. Not exactly the date; no sir.
Q. Do you know what year? A. It was in 1902, I came down here to the paves Commission, they notified me you know, and made my own application as a white adopted citizen, and I came down here, and I think it was after I went back that she made her affidavit, if I am not mistaken.
Q. You think it was in the year 1902? A. Yes sir, it was right after I went back home, I disremember whether it was in November or when I came down here before the Commission.
Q. Now, Mr. Pace, I will ask you to examine this signature I will show you and state whether it is your signature.
A. (Witness examines signature shown) Yes sir, that is my signature.

Q. Your wife does not sign her name? A. No sir.

The records of this office show that on November 17, 1900, there was filed with the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes an affidavit as to the birth on June 27, 1900 of Ola D. Pace. said affidavit is signed by Minnie Pace, her mother and Hannie Walden, the midwife. The records further show that application for the enrollment of said child was made on November 17, 1900. The records further show that on May 5, 1903, there was filed with the Commission affidavits signed by James Pace and Minnie Pace as to the death of Ola D. Pace on November 26, 1901.

Q. Mr. Pace, the records show that this child was born June 27, 1900. You state that she was a year and four months, or a year and six months old at the time of her death. There can be no mistake as to the child being alive in the year 1900, as application was made at that time for her enrollment. From what the records show and from the affidavits of yourself and wife made April 28, 1903, do you think your child died during the year 1901 or 1902?

A. Why, it might be that she did because its just the memory and I might have lost it of course, I don't remember when she died just exactly, only I know I said to my wife, just like I told you, that she would be a year and four months or a year and six months old. I know she lacked just one day of the four months or six months.

Q. What physician did you have? A. Dr. Bones.

Q. J. W. Bones of Chelsea? A. I think that's the way he writes his name.

Q. Now, after you have refreshed your memory, what do you think is the correct year of the death of your child?

A. Well, according to the affidavits there the year would have to be 1901.

Q. Do you think then your memory is incorrect when you first made the statement that it was 1902? A Yes sir, I suppose I just didn't recollect it right.

Q. You think you made a mistake when you stated this child died in 1902? A Yes sir.

Q. Do you think now the correct date of her death was as you and your wife made it in your affidavit in 1903?

A. Well that one that we made first must have been correct, or they made a mistake in the date one or the other; of course we did not mean to do anything of that kind.

Q. The affidavit as to the birth of the child and the affidavit as to its death corroborate your statement with the exception that it was the year 1901 as the death affidavit states, instead of 1902 as you have heretofore testified to-day.

A. Well, of course we dont want to make any false statements, but it seemed to me when I got this letter that it was 1902 and I said to my wife you know I said she was a year and four months old.

BY MR. VANCE:

Q. Was anyone present at the time of her death other than your family? A. Yes sir, Mrs. Sanders and Mrs. Jordan and Mrs. Carter was there, she taken the baby out of my arms when she died, I was nursing her and she took her and laid her on the bed. I believe now Mrs. Sanders wasn't there right when she died but she came right in.

- Q. Where did you get the coffin? A. Got it from Mr. Roberts.
Q. At Chelsea? A. Yes sir, George Barr and this young Carter here came in and got the coffin.
Q. Do you know this Mr. Roberts full name? A. Marion Roberts.

MARCUS JORDON recalled, testified as follows:

- Q. Mr. Jordan, the records of this office show that Mr. Pace's child, Ola D. Pace, was born June 27, 1900, and he states that the child died at the age of one year and four months, or one year and six months, and he and his wife signed affidavits on April 28, 1903, as to the death of said child on November 26, 1901. After Mr. Pace has refreshed his memory by the records of this office he states that he thinks the child died in the year of 1901 instead of 1902. Have you any statement that you desire to make in connection with the date of the death of this child? A. The age of it?
Q. No, as to the date of its death? A. Well, I think it was in 1902, that was the year I made that trip I spoke of, and I think I got home on the first day of October.
Q. You have no interest in this case? A. None, sir.
Q. Are you prepared to state that the statement of Mr. Pace that the child died at the age of one year and four or six months, is incorrect? A. Why I don't know exactly when the child was born.
Q. Are you prepared to state that he is incorrect when he makes that statement? A. Well, I certainly think he was.
Q. Do you think your memory as to the date of its death is better than the records of this office, and better than that of Mr. Pace, the father of the child? A. Well, he must have made a mistake in stating it then or making it now.
Q. Why are you positive that this child died in 1902? A. Well on account of my making that trip, and my son he had went to Mexico the year before in the fall, and this season I went down to see him, and these are the only trips I have made.
Q. Might you not be mistaken as to that year? A. No, I cannot be mistaken, not about that, this is the fourth year my son has been out there.
Q. When did he go out there? A. This last fall three years ago, will be four years this fall.
Q. What year did he go there? A. I believe it was 1901, the fall of 1901.
Q. Are you sure that he went out there in 1901?
A. I never kept it, only just dating by how many crops he has made out there.
Q. You think he has been there three years now? A. I know he has been there three years.
Q. And you think he went in the fall of 1901? A. Yes sir.
Q. You stated awhile ago that you could not give the date of your marriage? A. My marriage?, well, I can't.
Q. But still you attempt to give the date of the death of your neighbor's child, and state you are not interested in it one way or the other, and give the date different from what he does? A. That date is nearer back, and I don't give the day of that, some time in October.
Q. You state it was October, 1902? A. Yes sir.
Q. Mr. Pace says now, after having refreshed his memory, that the child died in 1901, how do you reconcile these statements?

- Q. Well, one of us must be wrong, and of course my memory is not as good as it used to be; I was just saying here, that when you first asked me her name I couldn't think of it.
- Q. Did you ever see this child, Ola? A. Oh, yes sir.
- Q. About how large was she? when she died? A. She was a small child.
- Q. Could she talk? A. Yes sir, I think she did, I had not seen her for some time.
- Q. Did she walk? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Are you sure of that? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Now, about how old was the child the last time you saw her?
- A. She was a year or more, when I saw her.
- Q. If she died in October, 1902, according to your statement, she would have been two years and four months old. The records of this office show that she was born June 27, 1900, do you think she could have been as old as two years and four months when she died? A. I couldn't say for certain. I don't recollect when she was born and don't know just how old she was.
- Q. But from seeing the child do you think she could have been that old. A. I don't know for certain.
- Q. Do you think that Mrs. Pace, in her affidavit made on April 28, 1903, before Mr. Archibald Bonds here, wherein she gave the date of the death of her child as November 26, 1901, could have been mistaken? A. It don't look like they ought to give it in that way.
- Q. Are you prepared to state from your memory that Mrs. Minnie Pace and James Pace who are father and mother of this child could have made a mistake in the affidavit which they signed more than three years ago, when it was fresh in their memory, fresher in their memory than it is now, or could ever have been in yours, could have made a mistake?
- A. Then is when I would not have made a mistake at all. I would not have made a mistake when it was fresh in my memory.
- Q. Now, Mr. Jordan, after talking this matter over informally with Mr. Pace, can you state positively in what year this child died? Well, if its that way I must have been mistaken I cannot be sure as I ought to, but I remember helping to bury the child.
- Q. After talking with him now, are you sure as to the year you went to Oklahoma? Might not your trip to Oklahoma have been made in 1901 instead of 1902? A. Well, if that is the date of the death of the child, it must have been.
- Q. You stated awhile ago that you went to visit some person in Oklahoma? A. No sir, I just went out there to look at the country, it was my son that went to Mexico that I mentioned I visited.
- Q. Was it the same year? A. No it was the year before, it was after he went to Mexico-- he passed through Oklahoma, and told me about what kind of a country it was, and after he went through there I taken the trip.
- Q. Mr. Pace stated awhile ago that our records were correct, don't you think now, in view of what our records show, and his statement, that you are mistaken? A. Well, of course I would rather think that I was mistaken than that the records are. I only give my best knowledge; I could not be sure of it.

STATEMENT BY MR. PACE: Another thing makes me know now it must have been 1901, Mr. Jordon's son, Ernest, he was an adopted citizen, and he did not stay to be enrolled or to try to prove his rights at all.

ORVILLE CARTER recalled, testified as follows:

- Q. After talking this matter over informally, can you state positively whether it was in the year 1901 or the year 1902, this child died? A. Well, not positively, now.
- Q. Do you think you may have been mistaken when you said that it was in October, 1902? A. I may have been mistaken, I thought ganders left that place in 1902, and we was working together, that was what I was figuring by.
- Q. Do you think the affidavits signed by Mr. and Mrs Pace more than three years ago, in which they gave the date of the child's death as November 26, 1901, is correct or incorrect?
- A. Well, of course it would be more likely to be correct than anything I could say.
- Q. You don't intend to say that your personal recollection is better than that of Mr. Pace the father of the child, and the records of this office? A. No sir, not at all.

The undersigned being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes she correctly recorded the testimony taken in the above case, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true, and correct copy of her stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the death of Ola D. Pace, a regularly enrolled citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

FINDING OF FACT AND CONCLUSION

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Chelsea, Indian Territory, on November 17, 1900, Minnie Pace appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of, among others, her minor daughter, Ola D. Pace, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and that her name is included in a partial roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation approved by the Secretary of the Interior December 6, 1902, opposite No. 13344; that on May 6, 1903, James Pace and Minnie Pace, father and mother of the said Ola D. Pace, made affidavit that the said Ola D. Pace died November 26, 1901. Further proceedings relative to the death of Ola D. Pace were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory June 1, 1906.

On June 1, 1906, James Pace, father of the said Ola D. Pace, appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and testified in part as follows: My name is James Pace. I am thirty-six years old and my postoffice is Chelsea, Indian Territory. I had a child named Ola D. Pace. She is dead. She died October 26, 1902.

Q Are you positive as to the date of her death? A Nothing more than this, when she died I told my wife, "mamma, if she had lived till tomorrow she would have been a year and four months old".

Q She was one year and four months old when she died? A Yes sir.

Q Are you positive as to the year in which she died? A Yes sir I think so.

Q Mr. Pace, the records show that this child was born June 27, 1900. You state that she was a year and four months, or a year and six months old at the time of her death. There can be no mistake as to the child being alive in the year 1900, as application was made at that time for her enrollment. From what the records show and from the affidavits of yourself and wife made April 28, 1903, do you think your child died during the year 1901 or 1902? A Why, it might be that she did, because it's just the memory and

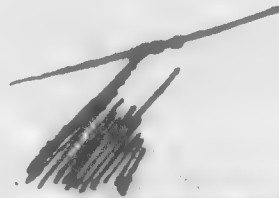

I might have lost it of course, I don't remember when she died just exactly, only I know I said to my wife, just like I told you, that she would be a year and four months or a year and six months old. I know she lacked just one day of the four months or six months.

Q Now, after you have refreshed your memory, what do you think is the correct year of the death of your child? A Well according to the affidavits there the year would have to be 1901.

Q You think you made a mistake when you stated this child died in 1902? A Yes sir.

Statement by Mr. Pace. "Another thing makes me know now it must have been 1901, Mr. Jordan's son, Ernest, he was an adopted citizen, and he did not stay to be enrolled or to try to prove his rights at all."

In view of the foregoing I am of the opinion that Ola D. Pace died prior to September 1, 1902, and so held.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith the record of proceedings had in the matter of the application of Minnie Pace for the enrollment of her minor child, Ola D. Pace, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, together with the opinion of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated October 6, 1906, holding that said Ola D. Pace died prior to September 1, 1902.

On November 17, 1900, Minnie Pace appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of, among others, her minor child, Ola D. Pace, and on May 6, 1903, there were filed with the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, affidavits of James and Minnie Pace, parents of Ola D. Pace, as to her death., on November 26, 1901.

On June 1, 1904, James Pace, father of the applicant, appeared before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, with witnesses, whose testimony was taken in regard to the date of the death of Ola D. Pace, from which it appears to be conclusively shown that she died prior to September 1, 1902.

The name of said Ola D. Pace appears upon a final roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 6, 1902, opposite Number 13344.

The Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

It is therefore respectfully recommended that the name of Ola D. Pace be stricken from the approved partial roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation retained by the Department and in the possession of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, that this office be authorized to strike her name from the copies of said roll in its possession, and that the application for the enrollment of Ola D. Pace as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, be dismissed.

Respectfully,

LAND: OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
89559-1906. WASHINGTON.

January 28, 1907.

The Honorable,
The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated October 6, 1906, transmitted the recurs relative to the death of Ola D. Pace, an enrolled citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

On November 7, 1900, Minnie Pace applied to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Ola D. Pace as a citizen by blood.

Ola D. Pace was enrolled on a partial roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation approved by the Department on December 6, 1902, at No. 13344.

On October 6, 1906, the Commissioner recommended that the name of Ola D. Pace be stricken from the rolls of the Cherokee Nation and that her application for enrollment as a citizen by blood of that nation be dismissed.

A preponderance of the evidence shows that Ola D. Pace died prior to September 1, 1902.

In view of Section 25 of the Act of July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. L. 761), the Office concurs in the recommendation of the Commissioner adverse to the applicant.

Very respectfully

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
CHELSEA, I.T., NOVEMBER 17th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF SUSIE C. TAYLOR FOR THE ENROLLMENT OF HERSELF AND DAUGHTER as citizens of the Cherokee Nation; she being sworn by Commissioner T. B. Needles, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Susie C. Taylor.
Q How old are you? A 47.
Q What is your post office address? A Pryor Creek.
Q What district do you live in? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q By blood? A By blood.
Q For whom do you apply for enrollment? A For myself and daughter, Alma R.
Q Is your name on the roll of 1880? A I do not know.
Q Are you married? A Yes, sir, I am a widow.
Q What is your husband's name? A Robert F.
Q When were you married? A In 1882.
Q What was your name before you were married? A Susie C. Choate.
Com'r:--Applicant presents a certificate of admission to Cherokee Citizenship signed by Connell Rogers, Asst. Executive Secretary, under the seal of the Cherokee Nation; certifying that among others that one Susie C. Taylor and Alma R. Taylor were admitted to citizenship in the year 1888.
Q Where were you living at the time of this admission? A Near Cincinnati, Arkansas, in the Territory.
Q Have you lived in the Territory continuously since? A Yes, sir, except I went on a visit to California.
Q Did you remove to California? A I went there with my family. My husband was an invalid.
Q What year was that? A I went there in '89, I think it was. I came here in '88 and staid until the Spring of '89 and then we went to Pennsylvania and staid two or three months. Then I went to California and came back here nine years ago.
Q Have you been living here continuously for nine years, with the exception of the two years you were in California with your husband?
A Yes, sir.
1896 Roll; page 257, #4739, Susie C. Taylor, Cooweescoowee.
Q What is the age of Alma R. Taylor? A 16 years.
1896 Roll; page 267, #4740, Alma R. Taylor, Cooweescoowee.
Q Alma R. Taylor has always lived in the Cherokee Nation, has she?
A Yes, sir.

Com'r Needles:--The name of Susie C. Taylor and her daughter, Alma R., appear upon the census roll of 1896 and they present satisfactory proof of admission to Cherokee citizenship, more particularly described in the testimony, and also satisfactory proof as to their residence. They being duly identified according to the page and number as indicated in the testimony, the said Susie C. Taylor and her daughter, Alma R. Taylor, will be duly listed for enrollment as Cherokee citizens by blood.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

1896 Roll; page 1030, #1447, Nola (A) West, Saline.
1896 Roll; page 1030, #1448, Tucker N. West, Saline.
Q What about this note on your 1880 enrollment to the effect that you took lands in the Neutral lands; where did you take the land?
A In the Neutral lands.
Q In Kansas? A Yes, sir.
Q Under what conditions did you take that reservation; in lieu of your property rights as a Cherokee? A I took it in lieu of part of my money as proceeds of the sale of the lands.

William N. West-2.

Q Did you draw strip money in 1894? A No, sir.

Q That was because you took lands in the Neutral lands? A Yes, sir.

Q So you do not claim to possess any more property rights as a Cherokee? A Only that I intermarried here.

Q You claim as a Cherokee by blood; can you take your property rights up there and come down here and get property rights as a Cherokee by intermarriage? A I do not know as I can take it that way; I took out a Cherokee license and married as a white man.

Q Have you got your marriage license with you? A I have got a copy of it.

Q I understood you to say that you married in '91? A Yes, sir. But that was in '70 my first marriage.

Q What was the name of your first wife? A Eliza Ann Rogers.

Q Now, she was a Cherokee by blood, was she? A Yes, sir.

Com'r:--The applicant files what purports to be an official copy of a Cherokee license issued by the Clerk of Saline district, September 6th, 1870, authorizing his marriage as a citizen of the United States to Miss Eliza A. Rogers, a Cherokee woman and citizen. The certificate shows that they were married in accordance with said license on October 16th, 1870, by the Rev. George Cochran. This is filed herewith.

Q Now, did you live with that wife until she died? A Yes, sir.

Q When did she die? A She died in the Spring of '71.

Q Then you did not marry until '91? A No, sir.

Q Now, where is your license and certificate? A I did not marry under the law, I just married as one citizen to another.

Q Did you and your wife, Eliza Rogers, live in the Cherokee Nation from the time you married her until she died in 1871? A Yes, sir.

Q Was her mother living 20 years ago? A No, sir.

Q Was her father living 20 years ago? A No, sir, her father died before the War.

Q Now, you are put down on the roll of 1880 not as an intermarried white; you married there as a citizen of the United States and not a Cherokee. You are put on the roll of 1880 as a native Cherokee, not as a citizen of the United States? A Yes, sir.

Q You began your case here as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q Now, do you want to amend your application ~~and~~ before you finish it and let your application be as a Cherokee by intermarriage? A You can fix it either way, the way that is right.

Q Undoubtedly under this evidence of your marriage as a citizen of the United States, you have ground to apply as an intermarried Cherokee, as a Cherokee by adoption.

Q When did you take your reservation? A Under the Treaty of '66.

Q And when did you take your reservation? A '67.

Q And married in '70? A Yes, sir, I come out to the Nation and married in '70 and been living here ever since.

Q What did you do with your land that you took up there in 1867? A I sold it.

Q Sold it before you married in 1870? A Yes, sir. Sold part of it and then moved down in the Cherokee Nation.

Com'r Breckinridge:--The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and four children: His wife is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee. She has stated to have lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. Of the four children, the first three named in the testimony are identified on the roll of 1896. They are living now and will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood. When the applicant files a certificate of birth of the youngest child, Willie J. West, this child also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

William N. West--3.

The applicant states that he has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, except a brief absence during the Civil War. He is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee. It is noted however, on the roll of 1880 that he took a reservation in the Neutral lands and he states that he did take such reservation in 1867 in such lands in Kansas, in satisfaction of his property rights as a Cherokee by blood; but he files what purports to be an official copy of the license and certificate of his first marriage. It is stated that at that time the district Clerks did not possess a seal. It shows that he was married to his first wife under the Cherokee law in 1870. She is stated to have died in '71. Without further issues of license he married his second and present wife in 1891. He has never been otherwise married and his present wife has not been previously married. He likes now to apply as a Cherokee by intermarriage. For the further consideration of his rights in this particular, his application under its head will be taken under advisement and will, for the present, be placed upon a doubtful card and the final decision of the Commission will be made known to him at his post office.

COMMITTEE

The following information was obtained from the records of the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Land Management, regarding the land owned by the United States in the State of California:

1. The total area of land owned by the United States in California is approximately 100 million acres.

2. The majority of this land is located in the western part of the state, particularly in the Sierra Nevada mountains and the coastal regions.

3. The land is primarily used for grazing, agriculture, and recreation.

4. The Department of the Interior is responsible for managing this land and ensuring its sustainable use.

5. The land is often leased to private individuals or companies for various purposes, such as mining, logging, and farming.

6. The Department also manages several national parks and monuments, which are open to the public for recreational activities.

7. The land is managed under a variety of laws and regulations, including the National Antiquities Act, the National Forest Management Act, and the Public Rangelands Improvement Act.

8. The Department works closely with other federal agencies, as well as state and local governments, to manage the land effectively.

9. The land is a valuable resource for California, providing many benefits to the state's economy and environment.

10. The Department is committed to protecting the land and ensuring it remains available for future generations.

Q What was the name of your first wife? A Eliza Ann Rogers.

Q Now, she was a Cherokee by blood, was she? A Yes sir.

Commissioner: The applicant files what purport to be an official copy of a Cherokee license issued by the clerk of Saline District September 6th, 1870, authorizing his marriage as a citizen of the United States to Miss Eliza A. Rogers, a Cherokee woman and citizen. This certificate shows that they were married in accordance with said license on October 16th, 1870, by the Rev. George Cochran. This is filed herewith.

Q Now did you live with that wife until she died? A Yes sir.

Q When did she die? A She died in the spring of '71.

Q Then you did not marry until '91? A No sir.

Q Now where is your license and certificate? A I did not marry under the law, I just married as one citizen to another.

Q Now you are put down on the roll of 1880 not as an intermarried white; you married there as a citizen of the United States and not a Cherokee. You are put on the roll of 1880 as a native Cherokee, not as a citizen of the United States? A Yes sir.

Q You began your case here as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.

Q Now do you want to amend your application before you finish it and let your application be as a Cherokee by intermarriage? A You can fix it either way, the way that is right.

Q Undoubtedly under this evidence of your marriage as a citizen of the United States you have ground to apply as an intermarried Cherokee, as a Cherokee by adoption.

Q When did you take your reservation? A Under the Treaty of '66.

Q And when did you take your reservation? A '67.

Q And married in 70? A Yes sir, I come out to the Nation and married in 70 and been living here ever since.

Q What did you do with your land that you took up there in 1867?

A I sold it.

Q Sold it before you married in 1870? A Yes sir. Sold part of it and then moved down in the Cherokee Nation.

Commissioner Breckinridge: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and four children: His wife is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee. She has stated to have lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. Of the four children the first three named in the testimony are identified on the roll of 1896. They are living now and will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood. When the applicant files a certificate of the birth of the youngest Willie J. West, this child also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

William N. West - 3 -

The applicant states that he has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, except a brief absence during the civil war. He is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee. It is noted however, on the roll of 1880 that he took a reservation in the neutral lands and he states that he did take such reservation in 1867 in such lands in Kansas, in satisfaction of his property rights as a Cherokee by blood, but he files what purports to be an official copy of the license and certificate of his first marriage. It is stated that at the time the district clerk did not possess a seal. It shows that he was married to his first wife under the Cherokee law in 1870. She is stated to have died in '71. Without further issue of license he married his second and present wife in 1891. He has never been otherwise married and his present wife has not been previously married. He likes now to apply as a Cherokee by intermarriage. For the further consideration of his rights in this particular, his application under its head will be taken under advisement and will, for the present, be placed upon a Doubtful card and the final decision of the Commission will be made known to him at his postoffice.

1896 roll; page 321, #842, Mary J. Rogers, Cooweescoowee.

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and wife: He is shown to have been admitted to Cherokee citizenship in 1888, and to have lived consistently in the Cherokee Nation since 1893. He is identified on the roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

He states that his wife is a white woman. That they were married in 1856; that neither was previously married and that they have lived together as husband and wife ever since their marriage. She is shown by personal testimony in addition to his own, to have lived with him as his wife for the last six years in the Cherokee Nation. She is identified on the roll of 1896 as an intermarried white. She is not named in the certificate of admission presented by the applicant and they were not remarried after his admission to citizenship. It is contended by the Cherokee representative that under these circumstances the wife is not entitled to enrollment. For the consideration of that question to enrollment the application for her enrollment will for the present, be placed upon a DOUBTFUL CARD and the final decision of the Commission will be made known to the applicant at his post office address.

J. O. Rosson being first duly sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

ACTING SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR

What do you know her name was when you married her? A Nancy Fox.
1880 Roll, page 207, #3390, George Williams, Cowasacowee.
1880 Roll, page 207, #402, Charlie Williams, Cowasacowee.
1880 Roll, page 207, #403, Willie Williams, Cowasacowee.

Gov't Records--The applicant is identified on the roll of 1880 as an adopted Shawnee. He states that he has lived in the Cherokee Nation for 29 years and is a full blood. He is not definitely identified on the roll of 1880, but his father, George Williams, is definitely identified on that roll as an adopted Shawnee, and his step-mother, Martha Williams at that time, the wife of George Williams, is identified on that roll as an adopted Shawnee. It is stated that his mother died before that roll was made. It is considered probable that the applicant himself is a full blood, and that his family is George Williams, Jr., on the roll of 1880, and that he had a brother by that name, but in the description of that roll. That would leave the applicant and a younger brother to appear on the roll. The younger brother seems to be identified for that of the applicant. The applicant is given on the roll of 1880 as 25 years of age. He gives his age now as 54. The roll of 1880, 17, to George Williams, Jr., was identified as a Cherokee-Shawnee. The applicant's age in 1880 and at present time, he will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee-Shawnee. His name, Willie, who is identified with him on the roll of 1880, a child of his deceased wife, a widow and living now, will be listed for enrollment.

SHAWNEES:

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
CHELSEA, I.T., NOVEMBER 19th, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Charley Williams for the enrollment of himself and child as citizens of the Cherokee Nation by Shawnee blood; said Williams being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your full name, please? A Charley Williams.
Q How old are you? A I am about 33.
Q What is your post office? A Ramona.
Q In what district do you live? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Have you a family? A I got one little girl.
Q Have you got a wife? A No, sir.
Q You just want to enroll yourself and one child? A Yes, sir.

Q Was she a Cherokee woman? A No, Eastern Shawnee.
Q Died some two months ago? A Died; just about 35 years old.
Q When did you marry her? A Six years ago.
Q Were you ever married except to her? A Yes.
Q When were you married before that? A I do not know when.
Q How many time were you married before you married your wife Jane?
A Twice.
Q What was the name of your first wife? A Nancy I believe.
Q Nancy what? A I do not know what.
Q What is the name of your second wife? A Nancy Fox.
Q Your first wife Nancy, she was a Cherokee? A Shawnee.
Q Eastern Shawnee? A No.
Q Cherokee-Shawnee? A Yes, sir.
Q Your second wife, Nancy, what was she? A Cherokee-Shawnee.

Q Have you got a marriage license of your last marriage? A I did not bring it here.
Q Have you got somebody here who knows that you lived with her?
A Yes, sir.

TOM WILLIAMS, being sworn and Examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give your full name there? A Tom Williams.
Q How old are you? A 29.
Q Are you a brother to Charles Williams here? A Yes, sir.
Q What was the name of his last wife? A Jane.
Q She is dead is she? A Yes, sir.
Q What was the name of his first wife? A I do not know.
Q Was she dead when he married this last wife? (No response.)
Q How long has Nancy been dead? A About 12 years.
Q And after she died then he married Jane? A Yes, sir.
Q And how long since he married Jane? A Six years.

Charley Williams--2.

CHARLEY WILLIAMS further testified:

- Q Give me the name of your child? A Sallie Williams.
Q How old is the child? A 14 years old.
Q That is a child of your first wife? A Yes, sir.
Q Did your first wife live in the Cherokee Nation all her life?
A Yes, sir.
Q What do you say her name was when you married her? A Nancy Fox.
1880 Roll; page 207, #3396, George Williams, Cooweescoowee.
1896 Roll; page 353, #403, Sallie Williams, Cooweescoowee.

Com'r Breckinridge:--The applicant is identified on the roll of 1896 as an adopted Shawnee. He states that he has lived in the Cherokee Nation for 29 years and is a full blood. He is not definitely identified on the roll of 1880, but his father, George Williams, is definitely identified on that roll as an adopted Shawnee, and his step-mother, Martha Williams at that time, the wife of his father, is identified on that roll as an adopted Shawnee. He states that his mother died before that roll was made. It is considered probable that the applicant himself is improperly enrolled with this family as George Williams, Jr., on the roll of 1880, as he states that he had a brother by that name, but that he died prior to the making of that roll. That would leave the applicant and a younger brother to appear on the roll. The younger brother does appear and the name of the deceased brother seems to be substituted for that of the applicant. The applicant is given on the roll of 1896 as 33 years of age. He gives his age now as 33. The age given in 1880, 17, to George Williams, Jr., would substantially correspond to the applicant's age in 1896 and the present time. He will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee-Shawnee. His child, Sallie, who is identified with him on the roll of 1896, a child of his deceased wife, a minor and living now, will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee-Shawnee.

It is probable that the 1880 enrollment in Case No. 3182 of William G. Williams, et al, was somewhat in error, as shown by this examination.

Q Any children? A One child.
Q Just for yourself and one child? A No, and my husband.
Q Is your husband here? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you been outside the Cherokee Nation any time within the past three years? A No, sir.
Q What is the name of your father? A Charley Noblitt.
Q Is he living or dead? A Dead.
Q Was he a Cherokee or a white man? A White man.
Q What is the name of your mother? A Delilah Cook now.
Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.
Q She a Cherokee by blood or a white woman? A Yes, sir, Cherokee by blood.
Q Are you married? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of your husband? A Richard Boswell.
Q Is he living? A Yes, sir.
Q How old is he? A Twenty.
Q Is he a white man? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of his father? A Tom Boswell.
Q What is the name of his mother? A I can't tell you; Sarah Boswell.
Q Are his parents both living? A No, sir, his father is living, his mother is dead.
Q Were they ever recognized as citizens of the Cherokee Nation?
A No, sir.
Q When were you married to him? A Last October was a year ago.
Q Have you lived with him continuously since that time? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you any evidence of your marriage? A Yes, sir.
(The applicant presents a marriage license authorizing the marriage of Richard Boswell to Miss Malinda Noblitt, signed by James A. Winston, Clerk of the United States Court for the Northern District of the Indian Territory, and a certificate showing that said marriage was consummated on the 9th day of October, 1899, by the Rev. C. Hesfelt, a minister of the Gospel. The license and certificate are filed herewith.)
Q Give me the name of your child? A Richard Ellis Boswell.

Q What was the name of her mother? A I don't know what her mother's name was.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself and one child as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and for the enrollment of her husband as a citizen by intermarriage. She is not identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880, having been born since said roll was compiled. Her mother is identified on that roll under her maiden name, as a native Cherokee. The applicant has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, she is identified upon the census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee, under her maiden name. She will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. When she files with the Commission satisfactory proof of the birth of her child, this child also will be listed with her as a citizen by blood.

She presents satisfactory proof as to her marriage on the 9th of October, 1896, in accordance with the laws of the United States, to one Richard Boswell, a white man. This marriage was too late for him to acquire property rights in the Cherokee Nation under the Cherokee law of 1895, and his application, therefore, for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation is rejected.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Chelsea, I.T., November 19, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Avery M. Miller for the enrollment of himself and children as Cherokees by blood; he appearing before the Commission, and being sworn and examined, he testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Avery M. Miller.
Q How old are you? A 28.
Q What is your post office address? A Needmore.
Q Are you a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q What degree of Cherokee blood do you claim? A 1/4.
Q For whom do you make application? A For me and two children.
Q How long have you resided in the Cherokee Nation? A 28 years.
Q Have you been outside the Cherokee Nation any time within the past three years? A No, sir.
Q What is the name of your father? A John A. Miller.
Q Is your father living or dead? A Living.
Q Is he a Cherokee or a white man; is he a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of your mother? A Lucinda Miller.
Q Is your mother living? A Yes, sir.
Q Is she a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you married? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of your wife? A Birdie M. Miller.
Q She living? A Yes, sir.
Q How old is she? A 21.
Q Is she a white woman? A Yes, sir.
Q When were you married to her? A June 30, 1897.
Q Have you any evidence of your marriage? A Yes, sir.
Q What was your wife's name before you married her? A Dodson.
(The applicant presents a marriage certificate showing that A. M. Miller and Miss B. M. Dodson were married on the 30th day of June, 1897, by J. O. Rhea, a minister of the Gospel. The certificate is filed herewith.)

Q Were you ever married before you married your present wife?
A No, sir.
Q Was she ever married before? A No, sir.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. He is identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 and the census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, and he will be listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood. When he files with the Commission satisfactory proof as to the births of his two children, they also will be listed with their father as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

Avery M. Miller. 2

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q Is there anybody here that knows that you were married to that wife? A Mr. West knows.

Q I am talking about your first wife? A I am talking about her too.

Q Is this child, Ethel M. Coats, living with you at the present time? A No, sir, she is living with her grandmother.

Q How long has Ethel been living with her grandmother? A She has been living with her ever since her mother died, she was 7 months old when her mother died.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and three children as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and for his wife as a citizen by intermarriage. He is identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 and the census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee, he has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, and he will be listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. His oldest child by his present wife is identified upon the census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee, and will be listed with its father as a citizen by blood. When he filed with the Commission properly executed affidavits as to the births of his two youngest children, they also will be enrolled as citizens by blood. He presents satisfactory proof as to his marriage in the year 1894 to his present wife, he has lived with her continuously since that time, she is identified upon the census roll of 1896 as an adopted white, and she will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as a citizen by intermarriage.

(The applicant has signified his willingness to withdraw his application for his child, Ethel M. Coats, who was enrolled by her grandmother, Amy Wattenberger.)

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

In the matter of the application of FELIX KIDD, for the enrollment of himself, and his children, OSCAR, RICHARD and BLANCHIA KIDD, as citizens by blood, and his wife JULIA KIDD, as a citizen by intermarriage, of the Cherokee Nation:

FELIX KIDD, being first duly sworn, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by the Commission:

- Q What is your name ? A Felix Kidd.
Q How old are you ? A I am twenty eight years old.
Q What is your post office address ? A Chelsea.
Q Do you claim to be a Cherokee by blood ? A Yes sir.
Q What is your mother's name ? A Elrida Kidd.
Q Is she a Cherokee by blood ? A Yes sir.
Q It appears that your mother was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation on September 25, 1889, do you know whether you were admitted at that time also ? A I do not.
Q You don't know ? A No sir.
Q How many children did your mother have then ?
A Why she had twelve living.
Q Can you give me their names ? A David, Mary, Wilburn, Felix, Ballie, Lizzie, Garfield, Monroe, Margaret, Jane, Nancy and Ida M.
Q Now you don't know whether the children you have named here were admitted with your mother or not, do you ? A I don't know whether they was or not, but it seems to me though that they was.
Q How many of them were under age at that time ?
A I expect from me down was under age.
Q You were under age then, were you ? A Yes sir.
Q All older than you were ever twenty one; now when did you come to the Cherokee Nation after the admission of your mother ?
A I think it was in 1891; I think it was.
Q What time of the year in 1891 ? A Well sir, about between Christmas and New Years when I came here.
Q Now you say your mother and her children came here in 1891 ?
A I think that was it.
Q What time of the year did you say ? A She come along about February, I believe, in 1891.
Q In 1891 ? A I think it was in 1891.
Q Have you any way of fixing that date in your mind ?
A I came just about a month before she did.
Q Was your father living then ? A No sir.
Q Where did you come from ? A North Carolina.
Q Where did you come to ? A Tahlequah.
Q Came to the town of Tahlequah ? A Yes sir, to the town of Tahlequah.
Q Who did you stop with there first ? A I stopped down there with an aunt of mine, Dutch Harkness.
Q Is she still living ? A Yes sir.
Q You say you came there, did your mother and all of them come to the same place ? A After I come in, she come to the same place, yes sir.
Q How long after you ? A A month I guess.
Q How long did you live there ? A Oh we lived there a year, I guess.
Q Then where did you go ? A We moved to Cowekin prairie.

Q Your mother and all the family ? A Yes sir.
 Q Bought a farm in there, did you ? A Yes sir.
 Q Has your mother been living there ever since ?
 A Yes, been living there.
 Q Do you know if your mother ever got a certificate of her admission ? A Yes sir.
 Q Have you seen it ? A Why I have seen the certificate, I think.
 Q Do you know whether she has still got it ? A I do not; I think the Dawes Commission has got it.
 Q Do you know whether she ever registered her name with the Chief when she came here ? A I do not.
 Q Now what about these children; Garfield, he is twenty one, isn't he ? A Yes sir, he's twenty one now.
 Q Where is he living ? A Why he is, I guess he's over at ma's.
 Q Over where ? A At my mother's I guess.
 Q Always lived there has he ? A Yes sir.
 Q Now the next one, Monroe M., is he living with your mother ?
 A Yes sir.
 Q Margaret ? A Margaret, she's married.
 Q When was she married ? A Why I don't know; it's been over a year ago I guess, I don't remember just what date.
 Q You don't remember when, do you ? A No sir.
 Q What is her husband's name ? A J. P. Underwood.
 Q Do you remember what month she was married ?
 A No sir, I can't tell you just what month.
 Q Is her husband a white man ? A Yes sir.
 Q Are they living together ? A Yes sir.
 Q In the Cherokee Nation ? A Yes sir.
 Q Is Ida M living with your mother ? A She's married.
 Q What is her husband's name ? A Why, Hiram Neal.
 Q When were they married ? A They was married about the time Margaret was, but I forget just the date.
 Q Are they living together ? A No sir.
 Q They have separated ? A Separated.
 Q Where is Ida living now ? A She is living with ma, I suppose.
 Q While Ida and her husband were living together they made their home in the Cherokee Nation ? A Yes sir.
 Q The youngest one is Nancy ? A Yes sir.
 Q When was Nancy born ? A Lets see, she is thirteen or fourteen years old now, I expect.
 Q Was she born in the Cherokee Nation ? A She was born in North Carolina.
 Q How old was she when your mother came here ?
 A Why she was--I don't know, a couple of years old, I guess.
 Q Was she walking around ? A Yes sir.
 Q You are married, are you ? A Yes sir.
 Q When were you married ? A August 11, 1895.
 Q What is your wife's name ? A Julia.
 Q Is she a white woman ? A Yes sir.
 Q Where were you living when you got married ? A Grove, I. T.
 Q That's in the Cherokee Nation ? A Yes sir.
 Q Now, Mr. Kidd, did you ever make application to the Dawes Commission to be admitted as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation ?
 A No sir.
 Q When was the first time you ever appeared before the Commission at all ? A Why the first time that ever I went before them was to enroll at Chelsea.
 Q That was in November, 1900, was it ? A Yes sir, I think so.
 Q What is the name of your wife's father ? A Frank Adams.
 Q Is Frank Adams a citizen ? A Why they tried to prove up.

Q They did, when? A Why, way back, I can't tell you just when.
 Q Do you know whether Frank Adams applied to the Commission in 1896 for admission to citizenship for himself and your wife?
 A Why I think he did.
 Q Did he apply for your child Oscar, also? A Yes sir, so I found out afterwards, that he applied.
 Q Was he claiming for them as citizens by blood, do you know?
 A Why he was putting in for his children and he put in for my wife.
 Q As citizens by blood? A As citizens by blood, yes sir.
 Q Did he claim to be a citizen by blood? A His children only.
 Q What was his wife? A She claimed to be an Indian, he was a white man, and he didn't claim any himself, but just for his children.
 Q Did he claim for his wife? A Yes sir.
 Q Her name was Ann Adams? A Yes sir.
 Q That's your wife's mother? A Yes sir.
 Q He claimed she was a Cherokee? A Yes sir.
 Q He applied to the Dawes Commission in 1896 for himself and your wife and your child as Cherokees by blood, through your wife's mother? A He put in for my wife unbeknownst to me, and for my child.
 Q Claiming through his wife, and not through you?
 A That putting in for my child was through ignorance of him.
 Q You didn't know when it happened? A No sir, I didn't know a thing in the world about it until afterwards.
 Q How many children have you? A Three.
 Q Oscar, Richard and Blanchia? A Yes sir.
 Q The two youngest ones have been born since 1896? A Yes sir.
 Q Have you and your wife Julia been living together ever since you were married? A We have.
 Q Living together on the first day of last September?
 A Yes sir.
 Q You say you have made your home in the Cherokee Nation ever since you came from North Carolina? A Yes sir. All the time.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I. T., April 7, 1903.

In the matter of the application of ELRIDA CAUDILL, for the enrollment of herself and her children GARFIELD, MONROE M., IDA M. and NANCY KIDD, and MARGARET UNDERWOOD, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation:

ELRIDA CAUDILL, being first duly sworn, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by the Commission:

- Q State your name ? A Elrida Kidd is the way I enrolled.
Q That is not your name now ? A No sir.
Q You have married since ? A Yes sir.
Q What is your name now ? A Caudill.
Q How old are you ? A I am forty eight.
Q You are getting younger aren't you ? A Yes sir.
Q You said you were fifty one three years ago; that's the way we have your name on the card. A I don't know how they put it down, I was born in 1849 I reckon.
Q You are fifty four then ? A I reckon.
Q What is your post office ? A Grove.
Q You are a Cherokee by blood ? A Yes sir.
Q How you were admitted to citizenship, weren't you, in 1888 ? A Yes sir, I reckon it was.
Q By the Cherokee Commission ? A Yes sir.
Q When did you remove to the Cherokee Nation ? A In 1891.
Q Where did you come from ? A North Carolina, Cherokee County.
Q What time in 1891 did you come to the Cherokee Nation ? A In February, I left there the 16th of February and landed the 20th.
Q Where did you go to ? A I come to Tahlequah.
Q Did you have your family with you then ? A Yes sir, I had nine children.
Q All of them come along with you ? A Yes sir.
Q Did any of them come before you ? A Felix and Mary and William come before I did.
Q How long ? A Mary was here a year or two or three, and Felix was here just about a year before I come.
Q Mary was here about three years ? A She come soon after she was admitted. I had three children that come before I did.
Q What is Mary's name now ? A Martin.
Q Have you been residing in the Cherokee Nation ever since you come here in 1891 ? A Yes sir, I stayed in Tahlequah from February till November, and went to Cowskin prairie, and I have been there ever since; I haven't been further away than Vinita. I have been right here in the Cherokee Nation.
Q What was your first husband's name ? A James C. Kidd.
Q Was he a Cherokee ? A No sir, a white man.
Q Was he dead before you came to the Cherokee Nation ? A Yes sir, died two years before I came here.
Q How how many children have you that are under age ? A I aint got but two I reckon, two or three.
Q At the time you made application for enrollment you had five, Garfield--
A He has become of age since.
Q Has he always lived in the Cherokee Nation ? A Yes sir, none of them has ever lived outside the Nation.
Q Monroe is of age ? A Yes sir, I guess he's of age.

Q Is he at home with you ? A Yes sir, part of the time.
 Q Margaret is about nineteen ? A Yes sir.
 Q Is she married ? A Yes sir, to J. P. Underwood.
 Q How about Ida ? A She's at home.
 Q Did she marry ? A She did marry but she and her husband parted
 Q Her husband was Hiram Neal ? A Yes sir.
 Q A white man ? A Yes sir.
 Q How long did they live together ? A Five or six months.
 Q Has she got a divorce ? A Yes sir, she got a divorce, and lawyer Davis sent it to her.
 Q She still goes by her husband's name ? A No sir, the lawyer wrote her that she goes back to her maiden name.
 Q How old is Ida ? A She is sixteen years old last October.
 Q Are you going to apply for her for an allotment ?
 A I don't know whether they will let me, but I aint got land selected for them children.
 Q Then you had a younger child named Nancy ? A Yes sir.
 Q Nancy was born in this country ?
 A No sir, all my children were born back east.
 Q How old was Nancy when you came here ? A About a year old
 I reckon.
 Q She is now about thirteen ? A Yes sir she was thirteen years old the 17th of last January.
 Q Now you say you have married lately have you ?
 A I have been married a year, will be the 16th of this month.
 Q What is your husband's name ? A W. H. Caudill.
 Q You were married to him when ? A The 16th of last April.
 Q A year ago ? A Yes sir.
 Q Mr. Caudill is a white man is he ? A Yes sir.
 Q He is not claiming citizenship ? A No sir, he's not claiming any for its no use.
 Q Have you and your husband W. H. Caudill been living together in the Cherokee Nation ever since you were married ? A Yes sir.
 Q Have you got a marriage certificate ?
 A Why they pinned it in there, we brought it.

--Applicant presents a marriage license issued by the Clerk of the United States Court in Indian Territory, for the Northern District, on the 16th day of April, 1902, authorizing marriage between W. H. Caudill and Mrs. Allie Kidd; and a certificate of marriage thereto attached showing that the parties named in said license were married on April 16, 1902, by R. H. Lybrand, deputy clerk.

Q You are the same person are you named in this marriage license as Allie Kidd ? A Yes sir.
 Q You were known as Allie ? A Yes sir.
 Q Now you say your daughter Ida was permitted to resume her maiden name ? A Yes sir, that's what the lawyer stated, in her divorcement, said she could go by the name of Neal now or Kidd either.
 Q Now when you came from North Carolina to the Cherokee Nation in 1891 did you register your name with the Chief of the Cherokee Nation ? A Yes sir.
 Q Where did you go to do that ? A I went to Tahlequah, to the capitol house.
 Q To the capitol ? A Yes sir, that's where I done all my business.
 Q Who did you see when you went to the capitol ?
 A I saw Chief Hayes, and several others; I had a certificate.
 Q What kind of a certificate do you mean ?
 A A certificate you know showing that me and my children have full rights and all that, me and my children.

Q You didn't have a certificate did you when you went to the capitol ? A There's where we went to get our certificate.

Q Did you register your name and the names of your children at that time with the Principal Chief ? A No sir, with the Committee.

Q When did you get this certificate ? A When I first come here.

Q Who issued it to you ? A Bob Hanks.

Q Who was he ? A An executive officer.

Q Executive Secretary ? A Yes sir, he lived there at the hotel.

Q You presented that certificate to the Commission didn't you when you enrolled ? A Yes sir, I always take my papers with me when I go until this time.

Q That certificate was issued to you after you came to the Cherokee Nation was it ? A Yes sir.

Q You went right to the capitol building for the purpose of getting it ? A Yes sir, I asked them where to go to, and they told me to go to Bob Hanks right up overhead.

Q Did he ask you any questions as to how long you had been in the Nation ? A Yes sir.

Q How long had you been in the Nation at that time ? A About a year.

Q You had been in the Cherokee Nation about a year before you went down to the capitol ? A Yes sir, and then every time I would go around if I didn't have them they would go to the records and get me one.

Q You didn't go to the capitol or any officer of the Cherokee Nation at the time you came to the Cherokee Nation ? A No sir.

Q How did you come to go to the capitol a year after you came here ? A I had a sister here and I asked her where I would have to go to get admitted and so on.

Q But you had been admitted two or three years before that ? A Yes sir.

Q But you didn't go to the Principal Chief and register your name at the time you came here ? A No sir.

Q It was a year before you did anything at all ? A Yes sir.

Q You simply went and get your certificate of admission ? A Yes sir, I thought that would show.

Q That was issued about 1892 ? A Yes sir.

Q And they asked you how long you had been in the Cherokee Nation ? A Yes sir, Bob Hanks did, and all about the children. When Margaret come over here to file and didn't want to come without me I told her I would just give her that certificate.

Q Is that certificate on file with the Commission ? A Yes sir, already on file.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Elrilda Kidd (now Caudill), et al., as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, consolidating the applications of---

Elrilda Kidd (now Caudill), et al. Cherokee 5573, Felix Kidd, et al., Cherokee 5575.

-: D E C I S I O N :-

The record herein shows that applications for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation were made to this Commission by Elrilda Kidd (now Caudill), for herself and minor children, Garfield, Monroe M., Margaret, Ida M., and Nancy Kidd; and by Felix Kidd for himself and minor children, Oscar, Richard, and Blanchia Kidd, and for his wife Julia Kidd as a citizen by intermarriage of said Nation, but as the status of intermarriage citizens is not at this time fixed, the rights of Julia Kidd to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation will not now be passed upon. Subsequent to the filing of their original application, the said Elrilda and Margaret Kidd were married, and they will now be listed for enrollment under their present names of Caudill and Underwood, respectively.

The evidence herein shows that on September 25, 1889, by the properly constituted authorities, Elrilda Kidd was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as a Cherokee by blood; that the applicants, Garfield, Monroe M., Margaret, Ida M., Nancy and Felix Kidd, are children of the said Elrilda Kidd, and that at the time of said admission they were minor members of their mother's family, and that during the months of January and February 1891, the said Elrilda Kidd and her above named children removed to the Cherokee Nation and have since continuously resided therein.

The evidence further shows that the minor applicants, Oscar, Richard and Blanchia Kidd, are the children of the said Felix Kidd, and that they have continuously resided in the Cherokee Nation since birth.

All of the applicants herein, except Richard and Blanchia Kidd, are identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896, and the said Richard and Blanchia Kidd are identified by birth affidavits filed with and made a part of the record herein.

It further appears from the record of the Commission that on August 31, 1896, in the case entitled "Francis Marion Adams vs. Cherokee Nation," (1896 Cherokee Citizenship Docket case number 4569), application was made to this Commission for the admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as a citizen by blood of the applicant, Oscar Kidd, and on November 13, 1896, the said Oscar Kidd was by this Commission denied admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It is the opinion of this Commission that following the ruling of the Department in the case of Wiley Adams (I. T. D. 4398-1903), the denial of the said Oscar Kidd, under the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321), was without authority of law and of no force and effect upon the status of said applicant as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and that Elrilda Gaudill, Garfield Kidd, Monroe M. Kidd, Margaret Underwood, Ida M. Kidd, Nancy Kidd, Felix Kidd, Oscar Kidd, Richard Kidd and Blanchia Kidd should be enrolled as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

COPY.

Receipt is acknowledged of your protest against the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated June 30, 1905, granting the application of Elrida Caudill for the enrollment of herself and children, Garfield and Monroe M. Kidd, Margaret Underwood and Ida M. and Nancy Kidd, and the application of Felix Kidd for the enrollment of himself and children, Oscar, Richard, and Blanchie Kidd, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

The decision, with the record of proceedings had in this case, has this day been transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior, for his review and decision. The action of the Secretary will be made known to you as soon as this office is informed of the same.

Respectfully,

James H. ...
Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS.
WASHINGTON.

August 3, 1905.

The honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated July 18, 1905, transmitting the record of the consolidated applications for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation by Elrilda Kidd (now Gaudill) for herself and her minor children, Garfield, Monroe M., Margaret (now Underwood), Ida M., and Nancy Kidd; and by Felix Kidd for himself and his minor children, Oscar, Richard and Blanchie Kidd.

June 30, 1905, the Commission decided favorably to all the applicants.

The record shows that on September 25, 1889, by the proper authorities, Elrilda Kidd was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as a Cherokee by blood; that the applicants, Garfield, Monroe M., Margaret, Ida M., Nancy and Felix Kidd are children of Elrilda Kidd and at the time of her admission they were minor members of their mother's family, and that during the months of January and February, 1891, Elrilda Kidd and her children removed to the Cherokee Nation and have since continuously resided therein.

The record further shows that the minor applicants, Oscar, Richard and Blanchia are the children of Felix Kidd and that they have continuously resided in the Cherokee Nation since birth.

The attached protest of the Cherokee nation has received careful consideration.

In view of the record the approval of the Commission's decision favorable to all the applicants, is recommended.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Iarrabee

Acting Commissioner.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

July 18, 1905, you transmitted the record in the matter of the consolidated applications for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee nation of Mirilda Caudill and her children, Garfield Kidd, Monroe M. Kidd, Margaret Underwood, Ida M. Kidd, and Nancy Kidd; and of Felix Kidd and his children, Oscar, Richard, and Blanchia Kidd, including the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes dated June 30, 1905, favorable to all the applicants.

Reporting August 3, 1905, the Indian Office recommended that the decision of the Commission favorable to the applicants be approved. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

The nation protests against the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes. The questions raised in this protest have been settled, however, by the decision of the Department of May 21, 1905, in the case of Wiley Adams, to which you refer, and the approved opinion of the Assistant Attorney-General of December 19, 1903, in the case of Benjamin F. Maxwell. In accordance with such rulings, the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes is hereby affirmed.

Respectfully,

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Chelsea, I.T., November 19, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Felix Kidd for the enrollment of himself and children as Cherokees by blood and his wife as a Cherokee by intermarriage; he appearing before the Commission, and being sworn and examined, ~~he~~ testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Felix Kidd.
Q How old are you? A 26 years old.
Q What is your post office address? A Chelsea.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q What degree of Cherokee blood do you claim? A Just about 1/16

I guess.

- Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Ever since about 1890 or 1891, I came here with ma.
Q What was the name of your father? A James C. Kidd.
Q Is your father living? A No, sir.
Q Was he a Cherokee? A No, sir.
Q What is the name of your mother? A Elrilda Kidd.
Q Is your mother a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.
Q For whom do you make application? A For myself.
Q Were you or your mother ever admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by an act of the Cherokee National Council or the Commission on citizenship? A Yes, sir.

(Attention is called to the document filed with the case of Elrilda Kidd, admitting her to citizenship on the 25th day of September, 1889, an act of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship. The document is signed by Will P. Ross, Chairman, and J. E. Gunter, Commissioner, and attested by D. S. Williams, Assistant Clerk of the Commission. The applicant was a minor at the time his mother was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation.)

- Q Have you lived continuously in the Cherokee Nation since you came here in 1890? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you any family? A Yes, sir, a wife and three children.
Q What is the name of your wife? A Julia.
Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.
Q How old is she? A She is 27 years old.
Q Is she a Cherokee by blood or a white woman? A White woman.
Q When were you married to her? A August 11, 1895.
Q Have you any evidence of your marriage? A Yes, sir, I have a certificate of marriage the minister give me.
Q What is the name of your wife's father? A Frank Adams.
Q Is he living or dead? A He is living.
Q What is the name of your wife's mother? A I don't know, she has been dead for a even or twelve years; Ann I believe.

(The applicant presents a marriage certificate showing that Felix Kidd and Jurley Adams were united in matrimony on the 11th day of August, 1895. The certificate he appears to have been issued on the 15th day of January, 1896, by Lewis Kelley, a minister of the Gospel, and the same is filed herewith.)

- Q Were you married to your wife on the 11th of August, 1895?
A Yes, sir.
Q Have you lived with her continuously since that time? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you ever married before? A No, sir.
Q Was she? A No, sir.
Q What is the name of your oldest child? A Oscar.
Q How old is she? A Five years old.
Q What is the name of the next child? A Richard, 3 years old.
Q The next child? A Blanche, 11 months old.
Q Have you any evidence of the birth of this child? A Yes, sir.
Q Are these children all alive and living with you at the present time? A Yes, sir.
Q You are the father of the children? A Yes, sir.
Q Your present wife is the mother? A Yes, sir.
Q Was your mother present at your marriage? A No, sir, she wasn't.

Felix Kidd - 2.

Elrilda Kidd, being sworn and examined, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Elrilda Kidd.
Q How old are you? A I am going on 51.
Q What is your post office address? A Grove.
Q Are you acquainted with the applicant here, Felix Kidd? A Yes, sir.
Q How are you related to him? A He is my son.
Q Do you know when he was married to Julia Kidd? A He was married about the 11th of August.

Q What year? A In 1895 I think.
Mr. Gale Starr, representative of Cherokee Nation: Do you swear positively it was on the 11th of August, 1895? A Yes, sir, the 11th of August.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself and three children as Cherokees by blood and for the enrollment of his wife as a citizen by intermarriage. He presents satisfactory proof, which is filed in the case of his mother, showing that she was admitted to citizenship on the 25th of September, 1889, by an act of the Cherokee Commission on citizenship, he being a minor at the time of her admission. He is identified upon the census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee, he has lived in the Cherokee Nation continuously since the year 1890 or 1891. His oldest child is also identified upon the census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee. They will both be listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and when he files with the Commission satisfactory proof in the form of affidavits of the birth of his two youngest children, they also will be listed with their father as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. He presents satisfactory proof as to his marriage to his present wife on the 11th of August, 1895, they have lived together continuously since that time, she is identified upon the census roll of 1896 as an adopted white, and Max will be listed for enrollment by the Commission as a citizen by intermarriage.

In the matter of the application of Felix Kidd for the enrollment of himself and his children Oscar, Richard and Blanchia as citizens by blood of the Cherokee nation, and for the enrollment of his wife, Julia, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee nation.

Felix Kidd being first duly sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Felix Kidd.
Q How old are you at this time? A 28 years old.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Chelaca, I. T.
Q Are you a citizen by blood of the Cherokee nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is your wife's name? A Julia.
Q Is she a white woman? A Yes sir.
Q Is she an applicant for enrollment as an intermarried citizen? A Yes.
Q When were you married to your wife Julia? A August 11, 1895.
Q Had you ever been married before your marriage to Julia? A No.
Q Had she ever been married before her marriage to you? A No sir.
Q You and she have been living together as husband and wife ever since you were married up to the present time? A Yes sir.
Q Never have been separated? A No sir.
Q You were living together September 1st, 1902? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee nation? A About 13 years.
Q All the time for the last 13 years? A Yes sir.
Q Has your wife been living there all the time since you were married to her in 1895? A Yes sir.
Q Are these children Oscar, Richard and Blanchia all your children by your wife Julia? A Yes sir.
Q Are they all living at this time? A Yes sir.
Q They are all by your wife Julia? A Yes sir.
Q Your wife Julia made application before the Daves Commission for herself and your oldest child Oscar for admission to citizenship under the act of June 10, 1896, did she not? A She didn't; her father put that in.
Q She and her oldest child Oscar were included in the application made by your wife's father, were they not? A I don't know; the child was ~~and~~ she was ~~with~~, as I understand it; she never put that in herself. It was just her father, unbeknown to her.
Q Your understanding is that she was in the application made by your (her) father in 1896? A Yes sir.
Q And they all were rejected in 1896, wasn't they? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know whether your wife applied in 1896 as a Cherokee by blood-- whether an application was made as a Cherokee by blood, for her? A She never did apply herself.
Q I am asking whether an application was made for her? and for what?
A It was made for citizenship by blood.
Q She didn't claim in 1896 by intermarriage, did she? A No sir.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Vinita, Indian Territory, March 5th, 1903.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

I have the honor to transmit herewith, for decision, the record in the matter of the application of Felix Kidd, et al, Cherokee #5575.

Attention is respectfully called to the fact that applicant's mother, Elrilda Kidd, through whom he seems to claim citizenship, was admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee Commission created by an act of the Cherokee National Council December 5th, 1888, which contained a provision that claimants admitted to citizenship by said Commission should remove to the Cherokee Nation within one year thereafter.

Attention is also respectfully called to the fact that application was made to the Commission, under the act of Congress approved June 10th, 1896, for the admission to citizenship of applicant's wife, Julia Kidd, and her son, Oscar Kidd.

(See Daves Commission Case #4569).

Respectfully,

Clerk in Charge.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:-

On March 5, 1903, there was transmitted to the general offices, for decision, the original papers in Felix Kidd, et al, Cherokee D-5575, and attention was called to the fact that the applicant's mother, Elrilda Kidd, through whom he claims citizenship, was admitted by the Cherokee Commission created by an act of the Cherokee National Council December 5, 1888, which provided that claimants admitted under that act should, as a condition precedent to citizenship, remove to the Nation within one year thereafter.

The office desires to be informed whether the case has been decided, as there are four other cases now ready for decision which should be consolidated with the Felix Kidd case, if no decision has yet been prepared, and in such case it is suggested that the record be returned to this office for consolidation with the four other cases referred to.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge
Cherokee Land Office.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskegee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

July 18, 1905, you transmitted the record in the matter of the consolidated applications for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee nation of Mirilla Gandill and her children, Garfield Kidd, Monroe M. Kidd, Margaret Underwood, Ida M. Kidd, and Nancy Kidd; and of Felix Kidd and his children, Oscar, Richard, and Blanchie Kidd, including the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes dated June 30, 1905, favorable to all the applicants.

Reporting August 3, 1905, the Indian Office recommended that the decision of the Commission favorable to the applicants be approved. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

The nation protests against the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes. The questions raised in this protest have been settled, however, by the decision of the Department of May 21, 1903, in the case of Wiley Adams, to which you refer, and the approved opinion of the Assistant Attorney-General of December 15, 1903, in the case of Benjamin F. Maxwell. In accordance with such rulings, the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes is hereby affirmed.

Respectfully,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

August 3, 1905.

The honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated July 18, 1905, transmitting the record of the consolidated applications for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation by Mirilda Kidd (now Gaudill) for herself and her minor children, Garfield, Monroe M., Margaret (now Underwood), Ida M., and Nancy Kidd; and by Felix Kidd for himself and his minor children, Oscar, Richard and Elanahia Kidd.

June 30, 1905, the Commission decided favorably to all the applicants.

The record shows that on September 25, 1889, by the proper authorities, Mirilda Kidd was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as a Cherokee by blood; that the applicants, Garfield, Monroe M., Margaret, Ida M., Nancy and Felix Kidd are children of Mirilda Kidd and at the time of her admission they were minor members of their mother's family, and that during the months of January and February, 1901, Mirilda Kidd and her children removed to the Cherokee Nation and have since continuously resided therein.

The record further shows that the minor applicants, Oscar, Richard and Blanchia are the children of Felix Kidd and that they have continuously resided in the Cherokee Nation since birth.

The attached protest of the Cherokee nation has received careful consideration.

In view of the record the approval of the Commission's decision favorable to all the applicants, is recommended.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Iarrabee

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Cherokee, I. T., November 19, 1900.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of William R. Greer and wife as Cherokee citizens; he being sworn and examined by Commissioner G. R. Brinkins, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name. A William R. Greer.
Q How old are you? A 36.
Q What is your postoffice? A Cherokee.
Q In what district do you live? A Coowescoowee.
Q Do you apply for enrollment of yourself and family? A Myself and wife.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A No sir.
Q Is your wife a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q Let me see your marriage license and certificate.
The applicant presents a license issued by the Clerk of Coowescoowee District, Aug. 28, 1894, authorizing marriage between himself and Mrs. E. O. Greer, nee Rogers. The certificate shows that they were married by the Rev. J. A. Friskey, on Aug. 11, 1895, and the document is admitted to record by the clerk of the district.
Q There seems to be a mistake in the date of the certificate of your marriage; that ought to be September, should it not? A No sir.
Q Your license is dated in 1894 and your certificate in 1895?
A Yes sir.
Q You had been previously married under United States law? A Yes sir.
This is filed herewith.
Q Your wife was admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee Commission, was she? A Yes sir.
Q Have you lived with your wife ever since you married her in August, 1895? A Yes sir.
Q And all the time in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Were you ever married except to this wife? A Yes sir.
Q Was your former wife dead when you married this wife? A Yes sir.
Q You were married only once previously? A Yes sir.
Q Was your present wife ever married before she married you? A No sir.
Q Give me the name of your present wife? A Eugenia O.
Q How old is she? A 38.
Q Her full name is Eugenia Greer? A Yes sir.
Q What was her name when you married her? A Rogers.
Q That was her maiden name? A Yes sir.
Q Give me the name of her father. A Henry O. Rogers.
Q Is he dead? A Yes sir.
Q Give me the name of her mother. A Louisa J. Rogers.
Q Is she dead? A Yes sir.
The applicant presents a copy, furnished by William Youngblood, Auditor of the Interior Department, under date of Oct. 22, 1900, of a certificate of admission issued by the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship showing that on the 14th of October, 1897, certain persons were admitted to citizenship by said Commission, and among them appears the name of E. O. Rogers, aged at that time 25 years.
Q That is the name of your wife is it? A Yes sir.
This is recognized as official evidence of the admission of the applicant's wife as stated.
Q You say your wife has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since she was admitted in 1897? A No sir.
Q When did she come? A She came in '98.
Q Lived here continuously ever since? A Yes sir.
This certificate is returned to the applicant.

Commissioner Brockbridge-

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and wife. It is shown that his wife was admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee Commission in 1897 as a Cherokee by blood. She and her husband came to the Cherokee Nation in 1888, and have lived here ever since. She is recorded on the roll of 1898 as a Native Cherokee, and she will be listed on the roll of 1900 as a Cherokee by blood. He is shown to have married his wife in the Cherokee Nation in August, 1888. They have since then lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since, and he is identified on the roll of 1898 as an adopted Cherokee. They had previously been married under United States law. He will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by intermarriage.

E. C. Rotherberger, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner Breckinridge-

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, wife and one child. He and his wife are identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as native Cherokees. They have lived in the Cherokee Nation all their lives, and will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood. Her change of name arising from marriage is established by the testimony of the applicant and one of the witnesses of the Cherokee Nation. When he files a certificate of the birth of the child, Lewis R. Kell, this child also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and one child as citizens by blood and his wife as a citizen by intermarriage. He is identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 and the census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee, he has lived almost all his life in the Cherokee Nation, and he will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by blood. His child, James W., is identified upon the census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee, and the residence of this child has been established to the satisfaction of the Commission, and it will be listed for enrollment with its father as a citizen by blood. His wife, Phoebe, is identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as an adopted white, and upon the census roll of 1896 as an adopted white. She and her husband have lived continuously together since their marriage, and she will be listed for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

COMMISSION TO THE PEOPLE

NOV 14 1902

WILLIAM CHAMBERLAIN

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., October 13, 1902.

In the matter of the application of James Goddard for the enrollment of himself and child, James W. Goddard, as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife, Phoebe Goddard, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation; said Phoebe Goddard being sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Phoebe Goddard.
- Q How old are you? A Fifty-six.
- Q What is your postoffice? A Catale.
- Q Are you a white woman? A Yes sir.
- Q Does your name appear on the roll of 1880 as an adopted white citizen? A Yes sir.
- Q What is your husband's name? A James Goddard.
- Q Was he your husband in 1880? A Yes sir.
- Q Is he the husband through whom you are claiming your citizenship? A Yes sir.
- Q Have you and your husband, James, been living together ever since 1880? A No sir.
- Q You have separated? A Yes sir, we are separated now.
- Q When were you separated from your husband? A Just about eight years.
- Q What was the cause of this separation? A Non-support.
- Q He didn't support you? A Yes sir, he didn't.
- Q Did you live with him from 1880, up until about eight years ago? A Yes sir.
- Q Did he support you during all of those years? A Just partly.
- Q What was your husband's business, his occupation? A We lived on a farm.
- Q In what way did he fail to provide for you? A He didn't provide anything scarcely.
- Q Clothing? A No sir, no clothing.
- Q Nor enough to eat? A I had some means before I married him; he didn't help me.
- Q What were his habits, did he drink any? A Yes sir.
- Q Did he stay away from home much? A Yes sir, a good deal.
- Q Did you leave him or he leave you? A He left me; the place belonged to me and he left me.
- Q He went away and left you didn't he? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you give him any cause to leave you? A Not any -- we just didn't agree.
- Q On account of the fact he didn't support you? A Yes sir, that is the trouble.
- Q You were quite willing to let him go? A I would rather for him to have stayed, but he wouldn't support the family.
- Q He has never lived with you since that first separation? A No sir.
- Q Has he made any provision for you since that time? A No sir.
- Q He hasn't contributed to your support at all? A Nothing at all.
- Q Did either of you ever bring any suit for divorce? A No sir.
- Q You haven't married again since he left you? A No sir.
- Q Have you been living in the Cherokee Nation ever since 1880? A Yes sir.
- Q How many children have you by your husband, James? A Three.
- Q How many are living at home with you? A Two living at home.
- Q What are their names? A Henry M.
- Q How old is Henry M.? A I believe he is twenty-six.
- Q He enrolled himself? A Yes sir.
- Q The other one James M.? A Yes sir.
- Q He is living at home? A Yes sir.
- Q He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life? A Yes sir.
- Q How many times have you been married? A Only one time.
- Q Where did you and your husband live at the time this separation took place? A On Grand River, Delaware District, Cherokee Nation.

~~James Goddard~~

- Q What was your postoffice at that time? A Fairland.
Q How far did you live from Fairland? A Seven or eight miles.
Q In which direction? A Southeast I guess; down the river.
Q Who owned the place that you lived on at that time? A I did.
Q How long had you owned it? A I don't believe I could tell you.
Q Did you own that place before you were married to Mr. Goddard? A No sir, after that.
Q How did you come to buy this place? A I bought this place.
Q You bought it and paid for it of your own means? A I did, yes sir.
Q How long did you and Mr. Goddard live on that place? A I don't really know; we lived just about two and a half miles from that place and sold it and moved down on the other place and lived there fifteen or sixteen years some where in the neighborhood of that; I don't know exactly.
Q Where did Mr. Goddard go when this separation took place? A He went to Kinnison.
Q Did you have any trouble before that? A Disagreement, yes sir.
Q What was the cause of that? A Just the same cause.
Q Just because he wouldn't provide for you? A Yes sir, because he didn't provide for me.
Q Who were living neighbors at that time of the separation? A Ab. Harlin.
Q Who else lived here by you? A Henry Keefer.
Q Did you go and try to get Mr. Goddard to come back and live with you? A No sir.
Q Didn't make any effort? A No sir.
Q Didn't care if he come back? A No.
Q You didn't go out to Centralia to get him to come back? A No sir.
Q Quite willing for him to go? A Yes sir, quite willing under those circumstances if he wanted to go.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Muskegee, Indian Territory, January 4, 1906.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Phoebe Goddard, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

Phoebe Goddard, being first duly sworn by Charles E. Webster, Notary Public, testified as follows:

BY THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q State your name, age and postoffice address? A Phoebe Goddard; 60; Catales, Indian Territory.
- Q You claim to be a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation do you? A Yes, sir.
- Q Through whom do you claim that right? A My husband, James Goddard.
- Q Is he living at the present time? A Yes, sir.
- Q What is his citizenship? A Cherokee.
- Q By blood? A By blood.
- Q When were you married to Mr. Goddard? A June 15, 1871.
- Q Where were you married? A In Delaware District.
- Q Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
- Q Who married you? A Preacher Adams. I have forgotten his given name.
- Q Did this man Adams furnish you with a certificate of marriage?
- A He did not.
- Q Do you know whether or not he issued one? A No, sir, I don't.
- Q If one was issued in which district when would it be recorded?
- A It would be recorded in Delaware District, I suppose.
- Q Had either you or your husband been married prior to 1871?
- A My husband had.
- Q Was his wife dead when you and he were married? A No, sir.
- Q Had they separated? A Yes, sir.
- Q How long prior to your marriage? A I don't know - about a year. Perhaps a little more.
- Q Was your husband and his wife divorced? A I don't know whether they were or not; I guess they was for she married.
- Q Did she marry prior to your marriage to Mr. Goddard?
- A No, sir, I think we married first. We was married in June and her the following fall as well as I remember.
- Q What was the citizenship of Mr. Goddard's first wife?
- A She was a white woman.
- Q Is his first wife living at the present time? A No, sir, she is dead.
- Q When did she die? A I think it is between 15 and 20 years ago.
- Q Have you and your husband lived together continuously ever since your marriage in 1871? A We have been parted about 10 or 12 years.
- Q Has either one of you secured a divorce? A No, sir.
- Q Have you married since your separation? A No, sir.
- Q Has he? A No, sir.
- Q At the time of your marriage to Mr. Goddard he was a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, was he? A Yes, sir.

- Q Was he a native born citizen or did he emigrate to this country from the east? A He was three years old when he come with the emigrants; that is the way I understand it.
- Q Your husband has made application for enrollment has he? A Yes, sir, he is enrolled.

The records of this office show that James Goddard, husband of the applicant is included in an approved partial roll of Cherokees by blood opposite No. 13393.

The applicant, Phoebe Goddard, is identified on the authenticated Cherokee Tribal Roll of 1880, and Cherokee Census roll of 1896, Delaware District, opposite numbers 1121 and 204, respectively, as an intermarried white.

- Q Is her your husband present today? A No, sir, he isn't; he isn't able to come he is sick.
- Q Where does he live at the present time? A His postoffice is Catalee; he lives about 2 1/2 miles or three from where I live.
- Q Do you know when your husband married his first wife? A No, sir, I don't know.
- Q Do you know where they were married? A No, sir, but I think they was married in Missouri, I think in Jasper County, Missouri.
- Q At the time of his first marriage your husband was a Cherokee citizen was he? A Yes, sir.
- Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation continuously since your marriage to Mr. Goddard in 1871? A Yes, sir.
- Q What was your maiden name, Mrs. Goddard? A Wright.

The marriage records for Delaware District furnished this office by the Cherokee Nation fails to show that a certificate of the marriage ceremony alleged to have been performed between the applicant and her husband, James Goddard, is filed for record therein.

- Q Have you any witnesses that can testify as to your marriage to Mr. Goddard? A There was two the last time I knew they were living, but I don't know where they are.
- Q Is your husband confined to his room? A No, sir, he wasn't.
- Q Do you know if you can get him to appear here as a witness in your behalf? A Yes, sir, he will come if it is absolutely necessary.
- Q Do you think you could secure any witnesses to your marriage to Mr. Goddard in 1871? A Not more than one; there is one woman.
- Q Where is this witness living that you think you can produce the last time you heard of her? A I heard that she was living here in Muskogee, but I don't know whether it is so or not. I heard it last summer.
- Q What is her name? A Her name is Wasson.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

Katherine Wasson, being first duly sworn, by W. W. Chappell, testified as follows:

BY THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q What is your name, age and postoffice? A Katherine Wasson; 51; Muskogee.

- Q Are you acquainted with the applicant in this case, Phoebe Goddard? A Yes, sir.
- Q How long have you known her? A Ever since she was married; she was married at my house.
- Q When was she married? A In 1871.
- Q Where did you say she was married? A Married up on Neosho River at my home in the territory.
- Q Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
- Q Which district? A Delaware.
- Q Whom did she marry? A James Goddard.
- Q Was he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation at that time? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you know whether or not the applicant or her husband, James Goddard, had been married prior to that time? A He had.
- Q Was his first wife living when he married the applicant? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you know whether or not he had secured a divorce from his first wife when he married the applicant?
- A I don't know about that, but they had separated and she got married again. About the time that I first knew anything about them she was married; she had married another man and went to the states. I wasn't very well acquainted with her, but I had seen her.
- Q Do you know where James Goddard and his first wife were married?
- A No, sir, I don't, must have been in the states.
- Q Do you know when they were married? A No, sir.
- Q Have you known the applicant ever since her marriage to James Goddard? A Yes, sir, I have known her or known of her; I haven't been right where she lived.
- Q Has she lived in the Cherokee Nation continuously since then?
- A Yes, sir.
- Q How do you identify the date of her marriage to Mr. Goddard?
- Q They were married at our house.
- Q You say that was in the year 1871? A Yes, sir.
- Q What causes you to remember that particular? A Well, because we hadn't been married very long ourselves, Mr. Goddard and I. We was living down on the river then; my son was just a baby.
- Q You were married at that time yourself were you? A Yes, sir.
- Q And your husband's name was Goddard? A Larkin Goddard.
- Q Was Larkin Goddard related to James Goddard? A Brother.
- Q When were you and Larkin Goddard married? A Married in 1869. In the winter of '69.
- Q Is the son that you refer to as being a baby in 1871 living now?
- A Yes, sir.
- Q Has he been enrolled? A Yes, sir.
- Q What is his name? A W. P. Goddard.
- Q How old was he when the applicant Phoebe Goddard married James Goddard? A I don't know; he was born in '70, and she was married in '71 in June I think; he was born in November, '70.
- Q Mrs. Goddard and her husband are not living together at the present time are they? A I don't think they are. I haven't heard much of them since Mr. Wasson and I were married; I understood that they are separated.
- Q You don't know of your own knowledge that they are separate; just what you have heard? A Just what I have heard.
- Q Do you know whether the applicant has married since she separated from her first husband? A I don't know anything about it if she has; I don't think she has; I never heard of it.
- Q You are a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation are you?
- A Yes, sir.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

Chas E. Nelson

Notary Public.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 11, 1907.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Phoebe Goddard as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

SUPPLEMENTAL.

Applicant appears in person.
APPEARANCES:
Cherokee Nation represented by
W. W. Hastings, Attorney.

James Goddard being first duly sworn by J. L. Garey, Notary
Public, testified as follows:

ON BEHALF OF COMMISSIONER.

Q What is your name? A James Goddard.
Q What is your age? A 71; soon-be 72; 14th day of this month.
Q What is your post office address? A Cattale.
Q You are a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, are you?
A Yes sir; I am.
Q Have you always lived in the Cherokee Nation?
A Never lived any other place; on every roll that was made since '35.
Q You have lived continuously in the Cherokee Nation since your birth?
A Yes sir.
Q How many times have you been married?
A Well, supposed to be married twice, but the first proved to be a fraud. I was married in '61 at the beginning of the war.
Q What was the name of your first wife?
A Elizabeth Nichols.
Q Was she a Cherokee by blood?
A No sir; she was a white woman.
Q When did you marry her? A '61.
Q You married her just ~~then~~ before the war, then?
A Just at the commencement of the war.
Q Did you and she live together until her death?
A No sir.
Q How long did you live together?
A Well, we didn't live together more than about five years.
Q What became of her at the end of the five years?
A Why, after the war was over, she married another man.
Q She married another man, then, did she, directly after the war?
A Yes sir.
Q Did she leave you? A Yes sir.
Q What was the cause of her leaving you?
A Nothing in the world that I could find out only she found out, -- we was not lawfully married she said, and she wouldn't live with me, and I couldn't get her to marry me again.
Q Then you and she were never married?
A No; there was a man pretended to marry us, and she went to see the man and found out we wasn't married.

Q Then you claim to have gone through a marriage ceremony?
A Yes.
Q But you claim that the man who married you to your first wife had no authority to perform a marriage ceremony?
A That's the way she told me herself.
Q At the time of her leaving you, you claim that she refused to re-marry you in accordance with the law?
A Yes sir.
Q Did you own a home when she left you?
A Yes sir.
Q You were living in your own house, were you?
A Yes sir.
Q Did she leave your house? A Yes sir.
Q And you, after she left you, continued to live in the same house, did you?
A I stayed there for two years after and she never came back; she married.
Q Did she ever secure a divorce?
A No, it was hard to get them days.
Q Did you attempt to get a divorce from her?
A No; after she was married, I just thought I would marry too.
Q She married, did she, before you married your second wife?
A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your second wife?
A Phoebe Wright.
Q Wright was her maiden name? A Yes sir.
Q Was she ever married before she married you?
A No sir.
Q When did you marry her?
A In '70 or '71 I guess; I can't hardly remember.
Q You say you married your second wife in '70 or '71?
A Yes sir.
Q Since your marriage to her, have you and she continuously lived together as husband and wife?
A We haven't exactly lived together all the time; we are not living together now.
Q How long did you and she after your marriage, continuously live together as husband and wife?
A 10 or 15 years; I guess 20 years.
Q Where are you living now or with whom are you living?
A With my renter.
Q How long have you been living with him, apart from your wife?
A I have been living with him now right at a year.
Q Where did you live prior to that time?
A With my brother part of the time.
Q With whom have you lived since you and your wife have been living apart?
A Just with my brother and my renter.
Q What is the cause of your living at one place and your wife living at another?
A We somehow didn't agree altogether; she said that I didn't exactly provide well enough, I guess; something that way.
Q Did you own a home when she left you?
A Yes sir; owned a home and I left the place; she didn't leave me.
Q You left her? A Yes sir.
Q And she continued to live in the home in which you and she had lived as husband and wife?
A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS.

- Q Is the only reason of your separation because of difference of temper?
- A No, it wasn't temper.
- Q How long have you been living apart from your wife, Phoebe Goddard?
- A About 11 years as well as I remember.
- Q Have you been living apart continuously for 11 years, all the time?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Did you ever separate before that? A No sir.
- Q Did you live together up until about 11 years ago?
- A Yes sir.
- Q What was the immediate cause of your separation; did you disagree because your wife complained that you didn't provide well enough for her? A Yes.
- Q Is that the only reason?
- A That's the only reason I know anything about,- with me.
- Q Did you have a falling out at the time?
- A Yes sir; we had a few words and she said she wasn't going to live with me and I left.
- Q Did you and she have any children?
- A Yes sir; We've got three.
- Q Who kept the children?
- A She took them and kept them there on the place.
- Q And they have always lived there?
- A Yes sir; right with her.
- Q She has never re-married? A No sir.
- Q Is what you stated here the sole and only reason of this separation?
- A That's the only thing we ever had any trouble about; that I didn't provide.
- Q This man that married you to your first wife, did he claim to be a preacher?
- A Why, he claimed to be a preacher but then she found out afterwards that he wasn't.
- Q Did you know the man?
- A No, I didn't know the man.
- Q Where were you married to your first wife?
- A In the edge of Missouri; Newton County.
- Q How far did you live from him at the time you married your first wife?
- A 5 or 6 miles.
- Q You had known him before?
- A I had seen him a few times.
- Q Well, he was a recognized minister? A No sir.
- Q Didn't you know it at that time?
- A No, I didn't know it then; I was sent to him by some of the neighbors.
- Q Well, didn't you hear at the time, that he had been in the habit of preaching around there?
- A If he had been preaching, I never heard it.
- Q Well, how came you to go to him if you didn't hear he was a preacher?
- A I was sent to him by some of my neighbors.

- Q How long did you and she live together,-- 5 or 6 years?
A Yes, we lived together during the war. When the war was over she left me.
Q You and she recognized that a marriage for that length of time, didn't you?
A Well, you see, I was a soldier and I wasn't at home all the time.
Q How long did you remain there in that community, immediately after you married and before you went to the war?
A About 6 months.
Q How far from where this preacher lived?
A He left there,-- left that country.
Q And where did he go to?
A Over about Springfield, Missouri,-- the last I heard of him.
Q How long did he live there after you were married, before leaving?
A Two or three months.
Q During that two or three months, he was recognized as a preacher wasn't he?
A Not that I heard of.
Q You didn't take any steps immediately after you were married to be re-married nor to separate, did you?
A No, not until after the war was over; we couldn't in that country.
Q Were you living over in Missouri at the time or in the Cherokee Nation?
A On the neutral land.
Q Where were you living when you married this present applicant, Phoebe Gardner?
A On Grand River in the Cherokee Nation.
Q When did you come to the Cherokee Nation after the war?
A I came right back; I was one of the first ones back here.
Q You were always recognized as a citizen here?
A Yes sir.
Q You didn't take any allotment on the neutral land?
A No sir.
Q When you and your present wife here, the applicant, first separated, how far did you go from there?
A I went about 25 miles to my brother's and stayed there.
Q Did you get a license over in Missouri to marry your first wife?
A No sir; it wasn't required at that time.

ON BEHALF OF COMMISSIONER.

- Q You say that after you and your present wife separated, she remained at your old home and the children remained with her?
A Yes sir.
Q Have you visited them frequently since then?
A Sometimes --- well, I didn't for about 5 years and then I would go there I guess once every two or three months.

(Witness Excused)

Phoebe Goddard being first duly sworn by J. L. Garey, Notary Public, testified as follows:

BY MR. HASTINGS.

Q Your name is Phoebe Goddard? A Yes sir.
Q You are the applicant in this case? A Yes sir.
Q Where is your post office? A Cattalee.
Q How old are you? A 60.
Q You claim the right to enrollment through your marriage to Mr. James Goddard, who just left the stand?
A Yes sir.
Q Were you ever married before you married him in '71?
A No sir.
Q Where were you living at the time of your marriage?
A My home was in Cherokee County, Kansas; I had come down here on a visit.
Q About how long did you and he live together as husband and wife?
A It must have been 30 years.
Q He says until about 11 years ago; is that right?
A It has been longer than that.
Q About how long ago was it?
A It was after the strip payment; I don't know whether it was a year after the strip payment or not.
Q Did you and he have some children?
A Yes, we have three.
Q With whom did the children remain?
A They remained with me.
Q Boys or girls?
A Two boys and a girl.
Q They continuously lived with you, did they?
A Yes sir.
Q Are they grown? A Yes sir.
Q All of them?
A Yes sir; my youngest one is 23.
Q Now, Mrs. Goddard, what was the cause of this separation?
A Well, I don't like to tell.
Q Was that the cause of the separation, - the statement he made?
A Yes, partly; he didn't provide; we had trouble over that and when he used whiskey too much.
Q The reason then was that he dissipated and he didn't provide?
A Yes sir.
Q I suppose dissipation was the main cause of the trouble?
A Yes; of course we got mad and had words and he was drinking---
Q You have never married since? A No sir.
Q That was your only marriage? A Yes sir.
Q You have continued to remain on the place since he left?
A No, I don't live there now; we sold out.
Q Did you remain for a while at the same place?
A 7 or 8 years I think.
Q You had heard of his previous marriage, had you?
A Yes sir.
Q He is reputed to have been married to some woman before the war? A Yes sir.
Q What do you know about that?
A I knew very little about it; only just hearsay.

- Q Did you know of him living with this woman personally, yourself?
- A No sir.
- Q Did you know when you married him that he had lived with this woman?
- A She said so.
- Q What representations did she make?
- A She said she was never married; she said she was fixing to get married; I think that was in '70 I saw her.
- Q Did she say she had ever gone through any form of any marriage ceremony or that she had not?
- A She didn't say; she just said she had never been married. At that time I hadn't even seen him and she was fixing to get married at that time, she said.
- Q She was fixing to marry someone else? A Yes sir.
- Q Is this woman with whom your husband first lived dead?
- A Yes sir; she's dead.
- Q You heard him give some testimony about the man who should have married him; do you know whether that man lives up there in the community or not?
- A I never did know him but I don't think he does.
- Q Would it be impossible for you to get any additional witnesses with reference to the fraudulency of this first marriage of your husband?
- A No, I don't know of anything at all at the present time.
- Q Did this woman with whom your husband first lived, marry again?
- Q Yes sir.
- Q And where did she marry?
- A Well, I can't tell you for certain but I understand she married in Kansas.
- Q Did she ever afterwards live in the community where she lived with your husband?
- A No sir; they went to Colorado; she died in Colorado.
- Q And she ran off with another man and left the country?
- A That is the information I have. I think she moved to Texas first and then from there to Colorado and she died in Colorado.
- Q But you claim to have understood from her before you married your husband, that she had investigated and found that she and your husband had never been lawfully married previous to that time?
- A That's what she said and that's what others said.
- Q Did you talk to others in the community about it?
- A Yes.
- Q Did they claim that this man who attempted to perform the marriage ceremony was not an ordained minister of the gospel?
- A Some said that they was married by a man that was not ordained and others said they never was married at all; that's all I can tell you; she just said that she was not married and that she had a lawful right to marry whenever she wanted to.
- Q Has the legality of your marriage to James Goddard ever been questioned up to this time?
- A No, not that I know of.
- Q Never been troubled about it in any way?
- A No, nothing that I ever knew anything about at all.

C. F. B.

ON BEHALF OF COMMISSIONER,

- Q You were under the impression, were you Mrs. Goddard, when you married James Goddard, from what you had heard concerning his former marriage, that you had lawful right to marry him?
- A Yes sir; I married him in good faith.
- Q And the legality of your marriage to him never has been questioned?
- A No, not that I ever heard of.

The undersigned being first duly sworn states that as stenographer to the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, she recorded the testimony taken in this case and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of her stenographic notes thereof.

Phoebe Goddard,

Catale, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

November 6, 1906, the United States Supreme Court held that white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens according to Cherokee law prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment and allotments of land as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

You are advised that to properly determine your right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, it will be necessary for you to appear before the Commissioner for the purpose of giving testimony as to the date of your marriage and whether or not your husband, by reason of your marriage to whom you claim the right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was a recognized Cherokee citizen at the time of your marriage to him.

You are therefore directed to appear before the Commissioner at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at 9 o'clock A. M., on Saturday, January 5, 1907, and give testimony as above indicated.

Respectfully,

S.V.

Acting Commissioner.

The applicant presents a certificate of marriage showing that he and his wife were married as stated by him on March 3, 1869 by the Rev. L.T.M. Johnson. This is filed herewith.

Commissioner Breckinridge-

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and one child. He is shown to have been readmitted to Cherokee citizenship in 1887. He states that he has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since. He is identified on the roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. His child, Archabald, is identified with him on the certificate of admission previously cited. He is identified on the roll of 1896; he is a minor; is living now, and will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. The applicant states that he and his wife were married in 1869; that he was once previously married, but that his former wife was dead when he married his present wife, and that his present wife was never married except to him. He states that they have lived together ever since their marriage in 1869, and files a certificate of marriage herewith. His wife is identified ~~with him on the roll of 1896; she is not in the certificate of admission, and they have not remarried since the applicant was admitted by the Cherokee Commission. For the further consideration of the question raised by the representative of the Cherokee Nation as to whether under these conditions a wife is entitled to enrollment, she will now be placed upon a doubtful card, and she will be listed as a Cherokee by adoption. The final decision of the Commission will be made known to the applicant at his post-office address.~~

E.G. Rothenberger, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

Q Her name is Rosa May? A Not that I know of.

(Applicant's wife signs her name to birth affidavits as Rosa May.)

Q How long has your father been dead? A I don't know, sir, how long he has been dead; he has been dead ever since I was four or five years old.

Q Where were you born? A I was born in Tahlequah.

Q Did you ever move out, or did your people ever move out, of the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir, not that I know of.

Q Did you ever have a middle name? A Tom.

Q Did your mother marry after your father's death? A No, sir; it is on the 1880 roll as Mary Malissa Murphy.

Q Isn't your oldest child's name Claude L.? A Why I think they do sign him that, my wife calls him that, Claude Lee Sixkiller I think they call him.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and three children as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife as a citizen by intermarriage. He is identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 under the name of his mother, Murphy, as a native Cherokee, and upon the census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, and will be listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood. His two oldest children are identified upon the census roll of 1896 as native Cherokees, their residence has been established satisfactorily, and they also will be listed for enrollment with their father as citizens by blood. When he files with the Commission satisfactory affidavits as to the birth of his youngest child, this child also will be enrolled as a citizen by blood. He presents satisfactory proof as to his marriage in 1892 to his present wife, they having lived together continuously since that time, and she is identified upon the census roll of 1896 as an adopted white, and will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as a citizen by intermarriage.

Bruce G. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Chelsea, I.T., November 19, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Charley Edward Cowles for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood; he appearing before the Commission, and being duly sworn and examined, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Charley Edward Cowles.
Q How old are you? A I am 31 years old.
Q What is your post office address? A Catalees.
Q Are you Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q What degree of Cherokee blood do you claim? A About 1/16 I guess.
Q Who do you want to enroll besides yourself? A Just myself.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Lived all my life.
Q Have you lived outside the Cherokee Nation within the past three years? A Yes, sir, I was in Oklahoma last winter and stayed there a while and came back.
Q What is the name of your father? A Jim Cowles.
Q Is he alive? A Yes, sir.
Q Is he a Cherokee by blood? A No, sir, he is adopted.
Q What is the name of your mother? A Adaline Cowles.
Q Is your mother living? A Yes, sir.
Q Is she a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.
Q Does your name appear upon the roll of 1880? A Yes, sir.
Q What district were you living in at that time? A Delaware.
Q What district were you living in in 1896? A Cooweescoowee I guess.
Q Is your mother named Martha? A Martha Adaline Cowles, I think.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee citizen by blood. He is identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 according to the page and number as set forth in the testimony, as a native Cherokee, and upon the census roll of 1896 as set forth in the testimony as a native Cherokee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, and he will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Chelsea, I. T., November 19, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Love Rogers for the enrollment of himself, wife and children as Cherokee citizens; he being sworn and examined by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your full name. A Love Rogers.
Q How old are you? A 33.
Q What is your postoffice? A Adair.
Q You live in Cooweescoowee district? A Yes sir.
Q Who is it you want to enroll; yourself and family? A Yes sir.
Q Have you a wife? A Yes sir.
Q How many children have you? A Two.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes.
Q What's your wife? A She's a white woman.
Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation all your life? A No sir.
Q How long? A Since '93.
Q Have you been admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee Commission? A Yes sir.
Q Let me see it? A My father left it here.
Q When did you say you were admitted? A In '87 -- In '88 I think.
Q Give me the name of your wife. A Gola B.
Q How old is she? A 31.
Q When did you marry her? A In '96.
Q What time in '96? A First of September.
Q Have you the certificate of marriage? A Yes sir.
The applicant presents a license issued by the Clerk of the United States Court Northern district, Indian Territory, authorizing marriage between himself and Miss Gola Flanagan, Aug. 29, 1896. The certificate shows that they were married by the Clerk of Cooweescoowee district on Sept. 1st, 1896. This is filed herewith.
Q You say that your wife ought to have been put down as Mrs. and not Miss? A Yes sir.
Q She was married before she married you? A Yes.
Q Was she married more than once? A I think not.
Q You don't know? A I don't know.
Q Was her husband Flanagan dead when she married you? A Yes sir.
Q Were you ever married except to this wife? A No sir.
Q Wouldn't you be apt to know if she was ever married before? A I ought to know.
Q Have you known her a long time? A Yes, a longtime.
Q You know her father? A No.
Q You never saw her own people? A No sir.
Q Has she lived with you ever since she married you in '96? A Yes sir.
Q What are the names of your children? A Bula G.
Q How old is that child? A Three years old.
Q Name of the next child? A Nicholas R.
Q How old is that child? A Eight months old.
Q Did you ever hear her say whether she was married before she married you? A Only the one that I told you.
Q Did you ever talk about how many times she was married before? A No sir.
Q How long did her people live in this country before you married her? A They never lived here at all; they lived in Texas.
Q Where did you marry her? A In Adair. She was living here; she had moved here.
Q How long had she lived here before you knew her? A About a year I suppose.
Q Had she lived here with her former husband Flanagan? A No sir; he died in the Chickasaw Nation.
Q How do you know he was dead? A I got her word for it; that is all I know about it. She said she was a widow.
Q What was her maiden name? A Mayes.

2- L.R.

Q You never found out whether she was married more than once or not? A I never have.
Q How far do you live from here? A Six miles.
Q Your wife at home? A Yes sir; she's sick.
Q Is your wife much sick? A No sir.
Q Is she confined to her bed? A No sir. Come to think of it; she told me she was married twice to a man by the name of— I can't tell his name now.

Q How did you happen to leave that out? A I never thought of it. The applicant presents a duly authenticated certificate of admission showing that on Sept. 6, 1888, certain persons were admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship, and among them appears the name of Love Rogers, aged at that time 20 years of age.

Q That is your name is it? A Yes sir. This is ~~submitted~~ as official evidence of the applicant's admission at the time stated, and the paper is filed with Card D.-813 in the application of Mary J. Rogers.

Commissioner Breckinridge—

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife, and two children. He is shown to have been admitted to Cherokee citizenship by the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship in 1888. He states he came to the Cherokee Nation in 1893, and has lived here ever since. He is identified on the roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. He files a marriage license and certificate showing that he and his wife were married September 1, 1896. She is identified with her husband on the roll of 1896. She is a white woman. He states that his wife was previously married twice, but he only appears to be convinced of the death of one of her previous husbands. She married too late under the Cherokee law of 1895 to entitle her to enrollment, and also additional evidence will be needed in regard to her status after her two previous marriages. Under the Cherokee law of 1895 relating to acquirement of citizenship by intermarriage, the application for her enrollment is rejected. When certificates are filed of the birth of the two children, Eula C. and Nicholas R., they will be listed as Cherokees by blood on a doubtful card to await further evidence in regard to the status of the applicant's wife arising from her two former marriages. The applicant states that he was never married except to his present wife.

E. G. Rothenberger, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

Commissioner Breckinridge-

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and five minor children. He is shown to have been admitted to Cherokee Citizenship by the Cherokee Commission in 1888. He states that he has lived in the Cherokee Nation since 1887. He is identified on the roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee, and he will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

2- J.T.B.

The five children named in the testimony, Elizabeth J., Eunice A., Joel T., John H., and Clara M., all are identified on the roll of 1896; they are living now. The first two named are identified with their father on the certificate of admission. They will all be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood. The applicant states that he and his wife were married in 1875 under United States law; that neither was previously married. That they have lived together as husband and wife ever since their marriage. She is identified with him on the roll of 1896; she is not in the certificate of admission, and they were not remarried after his admission. To determine the question as to whether under these conditions she is entitled to enrollment, she will now be listed as a Cherokee by adoption on a doubtful card, and the final decision of the Commission will be made known to him at his post-office address. It is found that the oldest child enumerated in the decision, Elizabeth J. Hankhead, is married, therefore, her application is stricken from the present decision and she will make a special application for herself.

THE HISTORY OF

Department of the Interior.
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Chelsea, I. T., November 19, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Elisabeth J. Durkee for the enrollment of herself and one child as Cherokee citizens: she being sworn and examined by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your full name. A Elisabeth J. Durkee.
Q How old are you? A 20 years old.
Q What is your postoffice? A Chelsea.
Q You live in Cooweescoowee district? A Yes sir.
Q Who is it you want to have enrolled? A Me and my child.
Q You don't apply for a husband? A No sir.
Q You are a Cherokee by blood are you? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Ever since 1887.
Q You were admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee Commission were you not? A Yes sir.
Q Give me the name of your father. A John T. Bankhead.
Q He's alive is he? A Yes sir.
Q Give me the name of your mother. A Mary S.
Q She's alive is she? A Yes sir.
Q You never have been married except to your present husband? A No sir.
Q Has he ever been married except to you? A No sir.
Q When were you married? A In 18--.
Q Is your husband named Frank Durkee? A Yes sir.
The applicant presents a license issued by the Clerk of the United States, Northern District, Indian Territory, dated March 9, 1898, authorizing marriage between herself and husband as stated by her. The certificate shows that they were united in marriage on the same date by the Rev. M.L. Butler. This is filed herewith.
Q Give me the name of your child. A George A.
Q How old is that child? A Eight months old.
1896 roll; page 114, #468, Jane E. Bankhead, Cooweescoowee.
The applicant presents a duly authenticated certificate of admission showing that on Oct. 30, 1888, Elisabeth J. Bankhead was admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee Commission. This is recognized as official evidence of her admission. Certificate is filed in the case of John T. Bankhead, her father.

Commissioner Breckinridge--

The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself and one child. She is shown to have been admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee Commission on citizenship in accordance with the certificate cited in the testimony, and filed in the application of her father, John T. Bankhead, in 1888. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation since 1887. Her change of name arising from her marriage is established by the license and certificate filed herewith. She is identified on the roll of 1896 and she will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. When she files a certificate of birth of her child, George A., this child will also be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

H.C. Rothenberger, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

Madam:

I am in receipt of your letter of April 5, in which you ask information relative to money due your son, Emery C. Durkes, to equalize his allotment in the Cherokee Nation. You also ask that your marriage license and certificate be returned.

In reply thereto you are advised that your child being a minor Cherokee enrolled under the provisions of the Act of April 26, 1906, no final allotment of land can be made, or money paid to him, until the suit, which is now pending in the Supreme Court of the United States, affecting the right of this class of citizens to be enrolled and take allotments in the Cherokee Nation, has been decided.

As requested, your marriage license and certificate is enclosed herewith, a copy having been retained in the files of the office.

Respectfully,

(The applicant presents letters of guardianship appointing his guardian for one George Grant, a minor child of Susan Grant, and the same is filed herewith.)

Q What was the name of this child's father? A Edward A. Grant.

Q Is he living or dead? A He is dead.

Q Was he a Cherokee or a white man? A He was a white man.

Q Who is the mother of this child? A Susan Grant.

Q What was her name in 1880? A Susan Grant.

Q Is she living or dead? A She is dead.

Q Was she a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.

Q Did your wife make application to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in 1888? A No, sir.

Q Any of her people make application? A Yes, sir, her brother did.

Q Was her name included in that application? A No, sir.

Q Did her brother apply as a citizen by blood? A Before the Dawes Commission, I think so.

Q Does your wife claim to have any Cherokee blood? A I never heard, she never made any application for any citizenship. There was a good many of her people, Mr. Starr knows, made application at that time, but my wife never made any application at that time. I think her father made an application.

Q You know of your own personal knowledge your wife didn't apply in 1888? A Yes, sir, I do, we were living together at the time and she didn't.

Mr. Dale Starr, representative of Cherokee Nation: Do you know he didn't apply for her? A Yes, sir, I know that too, because I saw some of his application; she was of lawful age and living with me at the time; there was him and one of his sons; my wife and his other son never did apply.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and three children and a half brother as citizens by blood, as the enrollment of his wife as a citizen by intermarriage. He is identified upon the authenticated roll himself, and the census roll of 1886, as a native Cherokee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, and will be listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood. His half brother is identified upon the census roll of 1880, he is not identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880, having been a minor when said roll was compiled. His mother, Susan Grant, his identified name said roll of 1880 as a native Cherokee. Susan Grant was of lawful age at the residence of the said George O. Grant, and he will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

The applicant avers he was married in 1882 to his present wife, that he has lived with her continuously since that time. He does not produce any satisfactory evidence as to her marriage, and for this reason she and three children will be placed upon what is known as a doubtful card, and the applicant will be required to file with the Commission satisfactory proof as to his marriage in 1882. His wife is identified upon the census roll of 1886 as an adopted white, and she will be listed for enrollment as such. His two oldest children, Edgar and Sylvester, are identified upon the census roll of 1896 as native Cherokee, and they will be listed for enrollment as citizen by blood, and when he files with the Commission properly executed affidavits as to the birth of his youngest child, Henry H., this child will also be listed with its brothers as a citizen by blood.

(Examine Dawes Commission Booklet A., page 482, Cherokee No. 2622, and see if the name of Callie Inlow, nee Parker, is included in the application made by William A. Parker in 1894.)

Bruce S. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

 Q Does your wife claim to have any Cherokee blood? A I never heard, she never made any application for any citizenship. There was a good many of her people, Mr. Starr knows, made application at that time, but my wife never made any application at that time. I think her father made application.
 Q You know of your own personal knowledge your wife did not apply in 1896? A Yes sir, I do we were living together at the time and she did not.
 Mr. Cale Starr, representative of the Cherokee Nation: Do you know he did not apply for her? A Yes sir, I know that too, because I read some of his application; she was of lawful age and living with me at the time; there was him and one of his sons; my wife and his other son never did apply.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and three children and a half brother as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife as a citizen by intermarriage. He is identified upon the authenticated roll himself, and the census roll of 1896, as a native Cherokee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life and will be listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood. His half brother is identified upon the census roll of 1896 he is not identified upon the ~~authenticated~~ authenticated roll of 1880, having been born since that roll was compiled. His mother, Susan Grant, is identified upon said roll of 1880 as a native Cherokee. Satisfactory proof is made as to the residence of the said George O. Grant, and he will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

The applicant avers he was married in 1892 to his present wife, that he has lived with her continuously since that time. He does not produce any satisfactory evidence as to her marriage, and for this reason she and three children will be placed upon what is known as a doubtful card, and the applicant will be required to file with the Commission satisfactory proof as to his marriage in 1892. His wife is identified upon the census roll of 1896 as an adopted white, and she will be listed for enrollment as such. His two oldest children Edgar and Sylvester, are identified upon the census roll of 1896 as native Cherokees, and they will be listed for enrollment as citizens by blood, and when he files with the Commission properly executed affidavits as to the birth of his youngest child, Henry H. this child will also be listed with its brothers as a citizen by blood.

Q Were they ever recognized as citizens of the Cherokee Nation?
A No, sir.
Q When were you married? A I was married in 1884.
Q Have you any evidence of your marriage? A No, sir.
Q Where were you living at the time of your marriage? A In Delaware district.
Q By whom were you married? A Why a man by the name of Byrd, a preacher, a minister of the gospel.
Q Did he give you a certificate? A No, sir.
Q Is there anybody here who knows of your marriage?
A Nobody but my brother.
Q Was he present at the time of your marriage? A No, sir.
Q Have you lived with your wife continuously since that time?
A Yes, sir.
Q Were you ever married before? A No, sir.
Q Was she? A No, sir.
Q Is anybody living who was present at the time of your marriage? A Yes, sir; a man by the name of Butler was there.
Q Where is he now? A He is at Grove.
Q How far is Grove from here? A About fifty miles.
Q Is your brother the only person present who knows that you have been living with your wife continuously since you married her in 1884? A Well, I don't know. There is another man here.
Q Where is he? A I guess he is. He is on the street somewhere. His name is Brown.

Q Give me the name of your oldest child. A Margaret, I believe.

Q Have you any evidence as to the birth of this younger child? A No, sir.

Q How do you spell Carrie's name? A Carrie.

THE COMMISSION: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and his six children as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and for the enrollment of his wife as a citizen by intermarriage. He is identified upon the authenticated roll of 1868 and census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee; he has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life and he will be enrolled by this Commission as a citizen by blood. The four oldest children are identified upon the census roll of 1896 as native Cherokees. Their residence in the Cherokee Nation, having been established, they will be only listed for enrollment as Cherokee citizens by blood. When the applicant files with the Commission properly executed affidavits as to the birth of his two younger children, they also will be enrolled as citizens by blood.

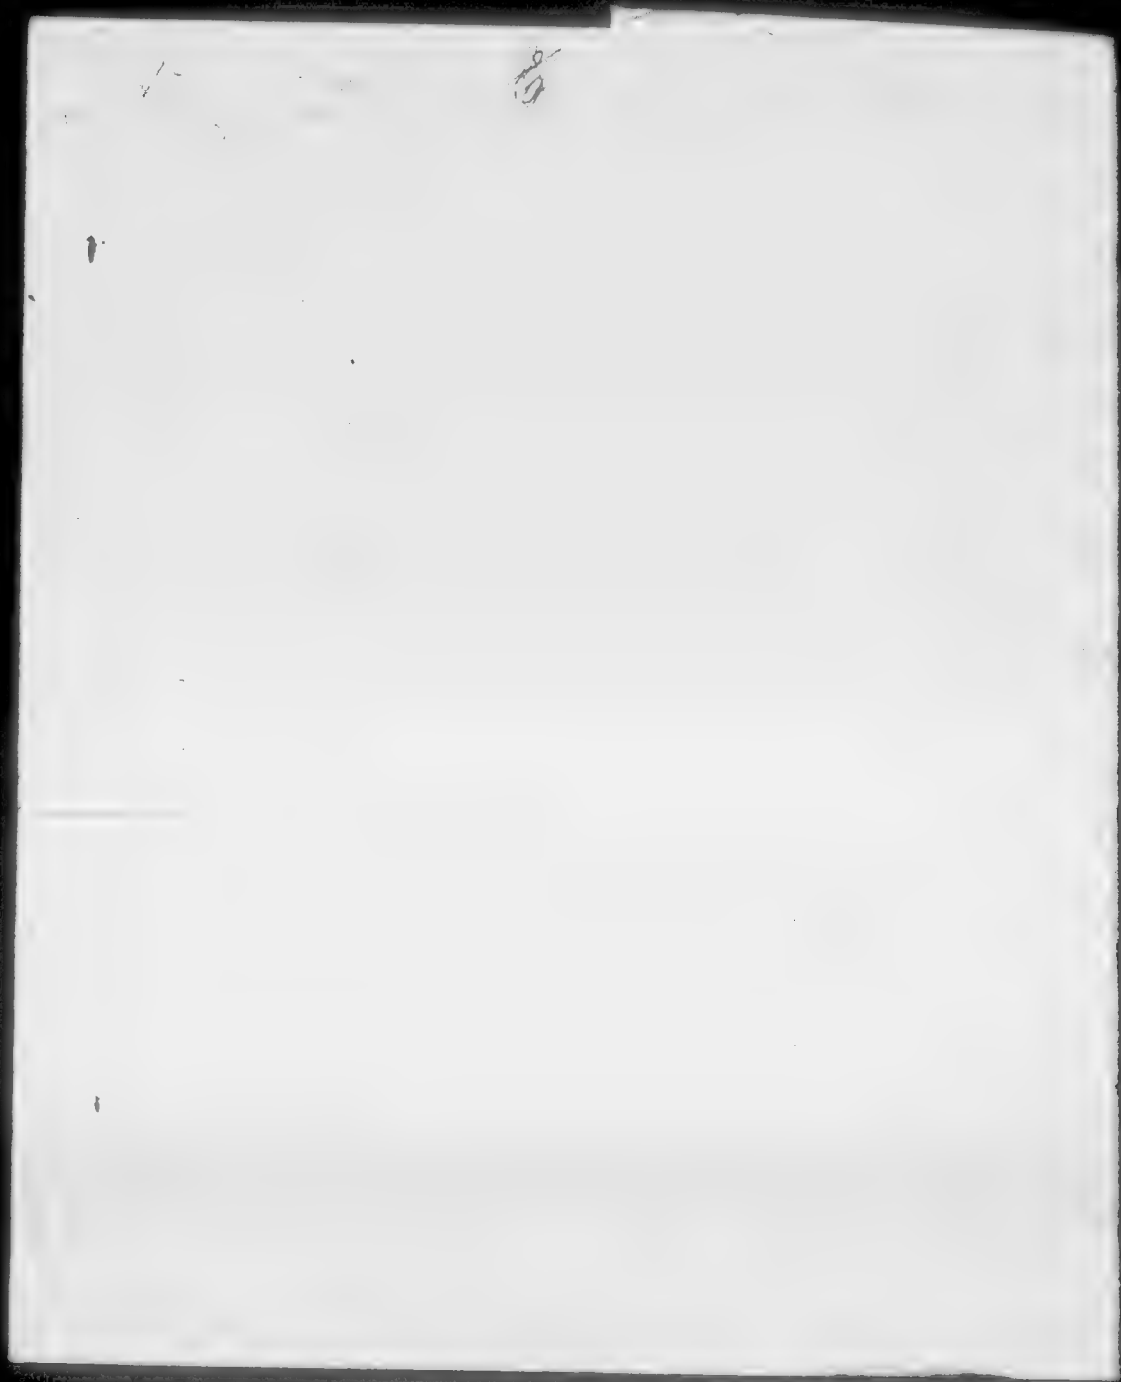

He avers that he was married in 1884, to his present wife; that he has lived with her constantly ever since. She is identified upon the census roll of 1896 as an adopted white, and will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as an intermarried citizen. The applicant will be required to bring proof as to his marriage in the year 1864, either in the form of a marriage certificate or personal testimony.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in this application for enrollment and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 18th day of November 1900.

In the matter of the application of Thomas Suwat, for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation:

J. C. STARR, called as a witness, being duly sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

Q What is your name ? A J. C. Starr.
Q What is your age ? A Thirty-two; post office, Vinita, I. T.
Q Are you acquainted with Thomas Suwat ? A Yes sir.
Q What is his citizenship ? A He is a Cherokee by blood.
Q Is he a full blood ? A He looks to be a full blood.
Q Did you know his father ? A Yes sir.
Q What is his name ? A Steen Suwat.
Q Do you know whether the applicant in this case was ever known by any name other than Thomas Suwat ?
A Yes sir, his father was named Steen Suwat, and the family is generally known by the name of Steen; everybody in that vicinity knows Thomas Suwat as Thomas Steen.
Q Do you know whether this Thomas Suwat or Steen is married now ?
A Yes sir.
Q Whom did he marry ?
A A daughter of Thomas J. Inlow.
Q Do you know her name ? A She is commonly called Fannie, but I understand that her right name is Margaret. I know that from information I gathered in the country.

The Commission: It appears from the records of the Commission that the applicant's wife has been listed for enrollment under the name of Margaret Inlow, on Cherokee Roll Card Field No. 5587, and that she has been identified upon the census roll of 1896 under the name of Fannie Inlow. There is offered in evidence a certificate signed by W. M. Thompson, Minister of the Gospel, in which he certified that Thomas Steen and Fannie Inlow were united in matrimony by him on the 15th day of June, 1901.

E. C. Bagwell, on oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings had in the above entitled cause, and that the foregoing is an accurate transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Department of the Interior.
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Tahlequah, I. T., October 25, 1902.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the application for the enrollment of NANCY INLOW as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee nation.

THOMAS J. INLOW, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:

BY COMMISSION: What is your name? A Thomas J. Inlow.
Q How old are you? A I will be forty years old the 4th day of next December.
Q What is your post office address? A Grove.
Q Are you a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee nation?
A Yes sir.
Q Have you been listed for enrollment as such? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your wife? A Nancy.
Q Is she living? A Yes sir.
Q She is a white woman, is she? A Yes sir.
Q You present here a letter from the Commission addressed to your wife, directing her to appear before the Commission and give testimony relative to her right as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation on the 1st day of September, 1902? A Yes sir.
Q What is the reason your wife is not present before the Commission in person? A Because she was not able to be here, expected to be sick soon.
Q She is expecting to be confined? A Confined, yes sir.
Q How soon? A Probably be six weeks, she is in bed part of the time now. I left her mother at home with her.
Q Her present physical condition is such that it would be dangerous for her to travel? A Yes sir.

ALFRED E. HOLLAND, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:

BY COMMISSION: What is your name? A Alfred E. Holland.
Q How old are you? A Forty-eight.
Q What is your post office address? A Grove.
Q You are a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee nation?
A Yes sir.
Q Do you know the witness who was just on the stand? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know his wife? A Yes sir.
Q What is her name? A Nancy Inlow.
Q Do you know her present physical condition? A Yes sir.
Q State what it is? A She is a tolerably stout looking woman, and just judging from my own observation, it looks to me like she would be ready to be confined pretty soon. If there is any other disease working on her I don't know anything about it.
Q Do you know that she is sick in bed part of the time?
A I have not been at Mr. Inlow's house lately, but she told me the last time I saw her, two or three days ago, she was not in bed that day, but she told me some days she felt well and some days she didn't.
Q Do you think that her present physical condition is such that it would be dangerous for her to travel? A I would hate to take chances on it if she was a wife of mine.

Cher. 5587-----2.

THOMAS J. INLOW Recalled.

BY COMMISSION: Does your wife claim her right to enrollment by reason of her marriage to you? A Yes sir.

Q When were you and she married? A We have been married seventeen years.

Q You were married along about 1884 or 1885? A Along about 1884 or 1885.

Q Have you filed with the Commission your marriage license and certificate? A No sir we didn't have any, married according to Cherokee law.

Q Did you have a certificate of marriage? A No sir.

Q What proof did you offer to the Commission of your marriage to your wife? A By witnesses.

Q Witnesses who were present at the marriage? A They were not exactly present, but they knew that we were living together as man and wife ever since we were married.

Q Who married you? A A man by the name of Bird, a preacher.

Q Is he living? A I don't know whether he is or not. I don't know where he is.

Q He never gave you a certificate of your marriage? A No sir.

Q Were you ever married before you married your present wife?

A No sir.

Q Was she ever married before she married you? A No sir.

Q You are the first man she ever lived with and she is the first woman you ever lived with? A Yes sir.

Q Have you and she lived together continuously since your marriage?

A Yes sir.

Q Were you living together on the 1st day of September, 1902?

A Yes sir.

Q Have you ever been separated at all? A No sir.

Q How long have you resided in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life

Q Born and raised here? A Yes sir.

Q Have you been outside the Cherokee Nation for any purpose within the past four years? A No sir, I have not.

Q Has your wife resided in the Cherokee Nation continuously since she married you in 1884 or 1885? A Yes sir.

Q You have how many children that you made application for?

A Six.

Q Are all those children living at this time? A Yes sir.

Mr. Inlow, your testimony will be filed in your wife's case, and if the Commission finds it necessary, your wife will be required to appear before the Commission in person at some future date.

This testimony will be filed with and made a part of the record in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Nancy Inlow as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, Cherokee straight card field No. 5587.

Wm. Hutchinson, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of the stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 12th day of November, 1902.

Supplemental to #7492.

W. I. Thornton, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q. What is your name? A. W. I. Thornton.
Q. How old are you? A. I will be 56 years old next May.
Q. What is your post office? A. Southwest City, Missouri.
Q. Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you know one Thomas Suwat? A. Yes, sir. His father's name was Steen. We always called him Steen Suwat. Steen is his proper name.
Q. He was known by the name of Steen Suwat? A. Yes, sir. He was a full blood.
Q. Is Steen his given name? A. Yes, sir; we always called him Steen.
Q. How long have you known him? A. Well, sir; I have known Steen Suwat ever since I come to the country. I come to the country in 1870.
Q. How long have you known the boy? A. I have known him ever since he was an infant.
Q. Has he always lived in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Always lived in Delaware district? A. Yes, sir.
Q. He was married lately? A. I heard that he was? I don't know that he was. He married one of the Inlow girls. Of course I never seen them married but that was known all over the country.
Q. This Thomas or Steen Suwat is the same person that married the Inlow girl? A. Yes, sir. His mother was a Muskrat. She was a Cherokee.
Q. The father of Thomas Suwat is Steen Suwat? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And the boy is sometimes known as Steen Suwat and sometimes known as Thomas Suwat? A. Yes, sir.

It is ordered that copies of this testimony be filed with and made a part of the record in Cherokee #5587.

Jesse O. Carr, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported the above entitled case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 7th day of March, 1903.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Thomas J. Inlow,

Grove, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

In connection with the application for the enrollment of your child, Laura J. Inlow, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, you are advised that in the caption of the affidavit and in the affidavit of the mother as to the birth of the child, its name is given as Laura J. Inlow, and in the affidavit of the midwife in attendance at the birth of said child, its name is given as Laura Inlow.

There is inclosed herewith a blank form of birth affidavit which you are directed to have properly executed and return to this office, the full name of the child to be given throughout the affidavit. You are also requested to return, with the affidavit, either the original or a certified copy of the marriage license and certificate of yourself and said children's mother. This matter should receive your immediate attention.

You are requested to return this letter with your reply.

Respectfully,

Department of the Interior.
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Chelsea, I. T., November 19, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Julius T. Maupin for the enrollment of his wife and one child as Cherokee citizens; he being sworn and examined by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows-

- Q Give me your full name. A Julius T. Maupin.
Q How old are you? A 34.
Q What is your postoffice? A Ruby.
Q Do you live in Cooweescoowee district? AA Yes sir.
Q Who is it you want to enroll: yourself and family? A My wife and family.
Q Do you apply for your own enrollment? A I was ~~not~~ married since 1895.
Q Your wife and one child you apply for? A Yes sir.
Q Are you married under a Cherokee license? A No sir.
Q Is your wife a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q What is her name? A Maggie L.
Q Have you got your certificate of marriage? A Yes sir.
Q How old is she? A She's 23.
Q Her maiden name was Hudson was it? A Yes sir.
Q Were you ever married except to this wife? A No sir.
Q Was she ever married except to you? A No sir.
The applicant presents a license issued by the Clerk of the United States Court, July 1, 1898, authorizing marriage between himself and his wife Maggie L. Hudson. The certificate shows that they were united in marriage on the 3rd day of the same month and within the same year by the Rev. J. E. Vick.
Q Give me the name of your wife's father. A Lewis B. Hudson.
Q Is he dead? A No sir.

Q Let me see the certificate.
The applicant presents an official copy of the records of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship showing that on the 11th of August, 1887, sundry persons were admitted to citizenship as Cherokees by blood, and among them appears the name of Lena Hudson, aged at that time 10 years. In the same certificate there is the name of her father and other members of her family. This is recognized as official evidence of the admission to citizenship as a Cherokee by blood of his wife at the time stated, and the document is returned to him.
Q Give me the name of your child, please? A Walter G.
Q How old is the child? A 18 months old.
1896 roll; page 185, #2493, Lena Hudson, Cooweescoowee.

Commissioner Breckinridge-

The applicant applies for the enrollment of his wife and one child. He states that he is a white man, and is shown to have married his wife under United States law, and no application is made for himself. His wife is shown to have been admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship in 1887 as a Cherokee by blood. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation for the last ten years; she is identified on the roll of 1896. Her change of name is established by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith, and she will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. When a certificate is filed of the birth of the child, Walter G. Maupin, this child will also be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

No. 1,234

It is hereby certified that the above named person is a citizen of the United States and is entitled to the benefits of the laws of the United States in all respects as if he were a native-born citizen.

Commissioner Breckinridge-

The applicant applies for the enrollment of two children. He is identified with the mother of these children on the roll of 1880. He is a white man, and states that since the death of their mother he has married out of his rights and he makes no application for himself. His deceased wife is identified on the roll of 1880 as a native Cherokee. The two children of that marriage William J. and Bessie L. Reynolds, are identified on the roll of 1896; they are still ~~single~~ minors, are living at this time, and will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

H. C. Rothberger, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 26th day of November, 1900.

Q This child living now is she? A Yes sir.

Commissioner Breckinridge-

The applicant applies for the enrollment of one child. He and his wife are identified on the roll of 1880, she as a native Cherokee. He has since married out of his rights as an adopted citizen, and makes no application for himself. His wife has since died. Their child, Sarah, is too young to be upon the roll of 1880, but she is identified on the roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee. She is living now, and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

H. C. Rothberger, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

Q How old is she? A Twenty-two.
Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.
Q Is she a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q What degree of Cherokee blood has your wife? A About one-sixteenth, I believe.
Q How long has she resided in the Cherokee Nation? A Born and raised here.
Q Has she been outside of the Cherokee Nation at anytime within the past three years? A No, sir.
Q What is the name of her father? A Lem Parris.
Q Is he living or dead? A He is living.
Q Is he a Cherokee by blood or a white man? A By blood.
Q What is the name of your wife's mother? A Ibbie.
Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.
Q Is she a Cherokee by blood? A No, sir; adopted.
Q Does your wife's name appear upon the roll of 1880 or not? A Of 1887, I believe it is.
Q Was your wife ever admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q What year was that? A 1887, I think.
Q Have you any evidence of that fact? A Yes, sir.
Q Isn't your wife's name Martha Frances? A Mattie Frances.
Q Mattie is her correct name? A Yes, sir; Mattie F.

THE COMMISSION: The applicant presents a certificate of admission to Cherokee citizenship dated at Tahlequah, admitting one Martha Frances Parris, age at that time nine years, to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation on the 17th day of August, 1887. The document is signed by J. T. Adair, Chairman Cherokee Commission on Citizenship, Henry Riffert Clerk Commission on Citizenship, approved and endorsed by D. W. Bushyhead, Principal Chief Cherokee Nation. The document bears the seal of the Cherokee Nation, and the document is returned to the applicant.

Q Now, is your wife the identical Martha Frances mentioned in that document? A Yes, sir.

Q When were you married? A 1899.

1896 Roll, page 230, No. 3706, Mattie Paris, Coowasecoowee District.

THE COMMISSION: George B. Geer applies for the enrollment of his wife and one child, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.
He produces satisfactory proof of the admission of his wife to Cherokee citizenship on the 17th day of August, 1887. She is identified upon the census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee; she has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, and will be listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood. When he files with the Commission a duly authenticated certificate of the birth of his child Vera M., this child also will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in this application for enrollment and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

 Q You didn't leave here until two years ago this fall? A 2 years ago in November; the end of the present month.
 Q Is it the purpose of your husband and yourself to return to the Cherokee Nation and live here permanently? A Yes sir.

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant is shown by the certificate cited in the testimony to have been admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee Commission on citizenship in 1884; she states that she has lived continuously in the Cherokee Nation since 1890, with the exception of an absence of 2 years from November 1898, spent at various places with her husband, occasioned by the necessity of travel for his health; her change of name arising from marriage is established by the official evidence filed herewith; she is identified on the roll of 1896 as a native Shawnee; she will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee-Shawnee.

M.D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

1894 roll, page 383, No 882, Jane Dawes, Delaware.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, wife and four children as citizens of the Cherokee nation by blood. He presents satisfactory proof showing that he was one of a number of North Carolina Cherokees who removed to the Cherokee Nation under an act of the National Council of the Cherokee Nation approved December 3rd 1880. He has resided here continuously ever since said time. He is identified on the census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee. His wife is not identified on the census roll of 1896, but satisfactory proof as to the admission of her mother is introduced, she, the applicant's wife, being a minor at that time. It is filed with Cherokee card #5573. The applicants wife is identified on the 1894 roll, she has resided continuously in the Cherokee Nation ever since the admission of her mother and will be listed with her husband as a Cherokee by blood. Her oldest child, Mary E. Dawes, is identified on the census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. When he presents satisfactory certificates to this Commission as to the birth of the three youngest children, whose names do not appear on the census roll of 1896, they also will be listed for enrollment with their parents as Cherokees by blood.

John W. Hanna applied for the enrollment of his wife and two children as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. His wife is identified on the authenticated roll of 1880 and on the census roll of 1896 under her maiden name as a native Cherokee. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. Her change of name is accounted for by her marriage to John W. Hanna in 1897. When he files with the Commission properly executed affidavits as to the birth of his two children they also will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

Chas. von Weise being sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all the proceedings in the above entitled case and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes therein

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes
Chelsea, I. T., November 19, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Robert Lathan Owen for the enrollment of himself wife and child as Cherokee citizens being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge he testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A Robert Lathan Owen.
Q How old are you? A 44.
Q What is your post-office address? A Muskogee, Indian Territory.
Q In what district do you live? A I have a residence at Muskogee and I have a place in Cooweescoowee.
Q But where would you call your civil and political home?
A At Muskogee.
Q Who is it you want to have enrolled yourself and family?
A Yes sir.
Q You have a wife? A I have a wife.
Q And how many children? A One child.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A By blood.
Q Is your wife a Cherokee by blood? A White.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A 21 years.
Q Are you on the roll of 1880? A I am.
Q Give me the name of your father, please? A Robert Lathan Owen White.
Q Is he dead? A Yes sir.
Q Give me the name of your mother? A Narcissa C. Owen.
Q Is she dead? A Alive.
Q Give me the name of your wife? A Daisy Hester Owen.
Q How old is your wife? A 35.
Q When did you marry her? A December 31 1889.
Q You were never married except to her? A Only to her.
Q She was never married except to you? A No.
Q You and she have lived together ever since your marriage?
A Ever since our marriage.
Q What is the name of your child? A Dorothea Owen.
Q No middle name? A No middle name, six years old.
Q The child is living now is she? A Yes sir.
Q You haven't a certificate of marriage with you? A No sir.
189 roll examined for name and not found Applicant; I didn't give my name in the 1894 roll page 267 #3229 Robt L. Owen Cooweescoowee
Q Your baby drew her Strip money? A Yes sir.
Q 1894 roll examined for baby's name and not found;
Q Are you sure your baby got her money or not? A No, I am not sure; she was born May 15th and I don't think I enrolled her.
Q Applicant: My wife was admitted by the Dawes Commission some time ago.
Q The application was for your wife and child? A Yes sir.
Com'r: The records of the Dawes Commission Docket B page 411 case 5383 show that application was made for admission in the case of Annie R. C. Owen and others, and that Dorothy Owen and Daisy H. Owen were admitted to citizenship, the latter as an intermarried citizen and the former, a child, as a citizen by blood. From that decision no appeal was taken.
Q Now were you and your family residing at Muskogee at the time your wife and child were admitted to citizenship by the Dawes Commission? A I think I shall have to explain my residence there; in 1885 I was living at Vinita; I was appointed by the United States Government United States Indian Agent for the Five Civilized Tribes, and it became necessary for me because of that official position to remove to Muskogee, where the agency was located; I remained there and served until 1889, and in 1889 I was appointed by the Choctaws to perform a duty for them, and in 1889 I received another duty in connection with the Choctaws and Chickasaws, through what is known as the Leased District, and that takes me to Washington every year for the last 10 years, and there has never been any reason-- I have never had occasion to move my residence to Washington but I have been there ever since every winter.

Q Where are your lands located? A In Cooweescoowee District.; in the place in which I expect to reside is near Caney, on the Caney River.

Q Is not that then properly your political home now? A Yes sir I receive my mail at Caney, Kansas at present, and have been for the last two or three months; I am preparing that place for my country residence; my political home is in the Cooweescoowee District, - I have a farm there, and also a biological laboratory where I do my work.

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and one child; he is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1894 as on the former as a native Cherokee, and the 1894 roll is a blood roll; he was absent from his home in 1896, engaged on official duty, and was omitted from that roll for that reason; he has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since his enrollment in 1880 and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

His wife and child are shown to have been admitted to Cherokee citizenship by the Dawes Commission in 1896, as cited in the testimony; they are both living at this time and will be listed for enrollment, his wife as a Cherokee by adoption, and his child as a Cherokee by blood.

M.D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

SIGNED:

Fama Kirby

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

this January 10, 1907.

W. W. Hastings,

Attorney for Cherokee Nation,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting the application for the enrollment of James Watson, et al., as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was affirmed by the Department, January 26, 1907.

For your information, there is enclosed herewith a copy of Departmental decision referred to.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 11, 1907.

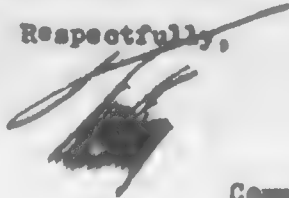

Daisy H. Owen,

Caney, Kansas.

Dear Madam:

You are advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior, January 26, 1907.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

D

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 9, 1907.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the undersigned, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, has been designated by the Secretary of the Interior, as the official to make and approve appraisals of the value of improvements upon land in the Cherokee Nation which were made prior to November 5, 1906, by white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens prior to December 16, 1895, and who have the right under the Act of Congress approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), to sell improvements.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage who have made permanent and valuable improvements on lands of the Cherokee Nation and who claim the right to sell the same under and by virtue of said Act of Congress of March 2, 1907 (Public 180), must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, and designate the land upon which are located the improvements which they claim the right to sell by virtue of said Act; and if any such intermarried citizen shall fail to appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, it will be considered that he makes no claim to the benefits conferred by said Act. Such appearance and designation of improvements must be made before the Commissioner at his office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, at any time between Monday, March 11th, 1907, and Saturday, March 30th, 1907, inclusive, or at any of the following named places between the dates named at which places the Commissioner will have a representative to receive said designations and hear testimony relative thereto:

Bartlesville, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907,
to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Tulsa, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Claremore, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907,
to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Nowata, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907,
to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Vinita, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Pryor Creek, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907,
to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Tahlequah, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18, 1907,
to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Sallisaw, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907,
to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Designations must be made in person by the intermarried white claimant, or in case proper proof is made that he is physically unable to appear, by some adult member of his immediate family, or in case proper proof is made of the fact that the intermarried white claimant is physically unable to appear and has no adult member of his immediate family, by a person holding a properly executed power of attorney; provided, that in every case the designation must be made by a party familiar with the character, ownership, location and value of the improvements to be designated. At the time of said designation the testimony of any competent person will be taken by the Commissioner as to the location, character and value of said improvements.

No former intermarried white claimant will be permitted to designate improvements upon more land than he would have been entitled to take in allotment for himself had he been admitted to citizenship. If any intermarried white claimant has made a tentative selection of a full allotment he will not be allowed to designate improvements upon other land.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN

the Act of Congress approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), to sell improvements.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage who have made permanent and valuable improvements on lands of the Cherokee Nation and who claim the right to sell the same under and by virtue of said Act of Congress of March 2, 1907 (Public 180), must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, and designate the land upon which are located the improvements which they claim the right to sell by virtue of said Act; and if any such intermarried citizen shall fail to appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, it will be considered that he makes no claim to the benefits conferred by said Act. Such appearance and designation of improvements must be made before the Commissioner at his office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, at any time between Monday, March 11th, 1907, and Saturday, March 30th, 1907, inclusive, or at any of the following named places between the dates named at which places the Commissioner will have a representative to receive said designations and hear testimony relative thereto:

Bartlesville, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Tulsa, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Claremore, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Nowata, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Vinita, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Pryor Creek, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Tahlequah, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Sallisaw, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Designations must be made in person by the intermarried white claimant, or in case proper proof is made that he is physically unable to appear, by some adult member of his immediate family, or in case proper proof is made of the fact that the intermarried white claimant is physically unable to appear and has no adult member of his immediate family, by a person holding a properly executed power of attorney; provided, that in every case the designation must be made by a party familiar with the character, ownership, location and value of the improvements to be designated. At the time of said designation the testimony of any competent person will be taken by the Commissioner as to the location, character and value of said improvements.

No former intermarried white claimant will be permitted to designate improvements upon more land than he would have been entitled to take in allotment for himself had he been admitted to citizenship. If any intermarried white claimant has made a tentative selection of a full allotment he will not be allowed to designate improvements upon other land.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that if any citizen of the Cherokee Nation entitled to select an allotment shall claim that the improvements on land tentatively selected by a former intermarried white claimant, or held by him, do not belong to said intermarried white claimant, or makes any adverse claim to said improvements, or to the right of the intermarried white claimant to sell said improvements under the Act approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), said citizen must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes either at Muskogee, Indian Territory, prior to April 1, 1907, or at one of the places above designated and within the dates above designated and make formal complaint before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes of his contention. At Muskogee, Indian Territory, between March 11th and March 30th, 1907, inclusive, and at the other places herein named during the hearings at said places as herein fixed, plats will be open for inspection showing the location of tentative allotments made by former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage and all other land on which such claimants claim improvements, so far as indicated by the records of this office.

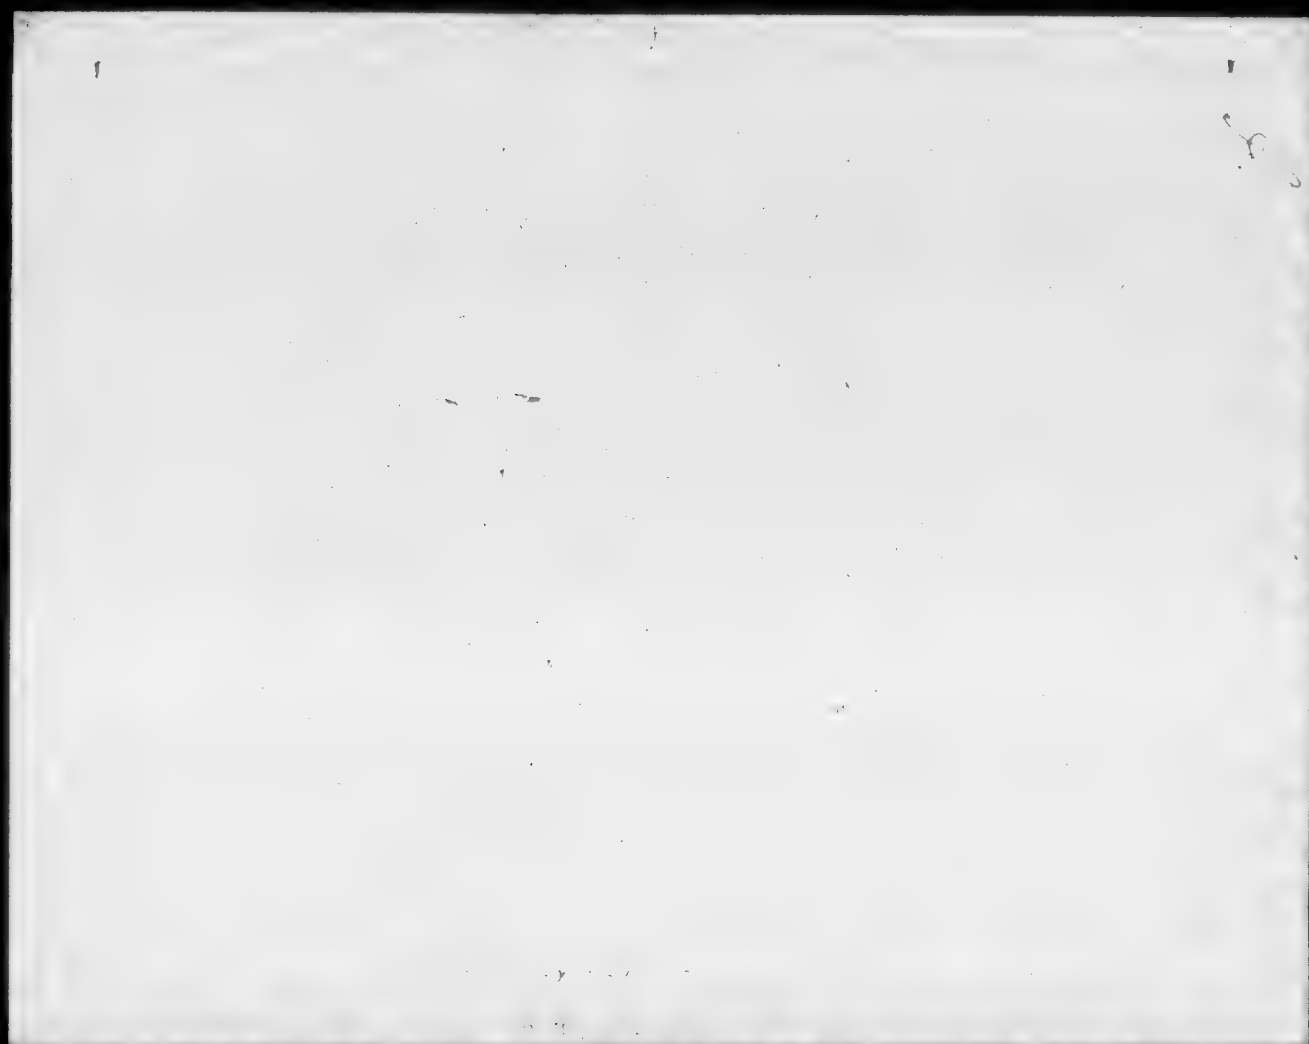

All persons interested should take careful note of the limitation of time herein provided for, within which designations and complaints may be made, and that they must be made by appearance before the Commissioner.

TAMS BIXBY,
Commissioner.

Q How old is that child? A 13
Q Was he admitted by the Dawes Commission with his mother?
A Yes sir.

Com'r: The records of the Dawes Commission, book B page 411 case 1383, show that Annie R. C. Owen made application September 10, 1896 to the Dawes Commission for admission to Cherokee citizenship and she was admitted by the commission as a Cherokee by intermarriage, and at the same time William Owen, eight years of age, was admitted as a Cherokee by blood.

Q Now this William Owen admitted by the commission -

A Should have been William Otway Chism Owen.

Q There are several William Owens in the family? A Yes sir.

Q William Otway Owen, three years of age, is a cousin of this Will Owen? A Yes sir.

Q This child is living now? A Yes sir.

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant applies at this time for the enrollment of a brother, the wife of his brother; and their child; his brother, William Otway Owen, is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1894; he has claimed his residence in the Cherokee Nation since 1880, but is for the most part absent, due to his being an officer in the United States Army, and the applicant is permitted to apply for his brother and family, at this time, on account of his brother's being on duty at Fort Thomas, Kent cky, and unable in consequence to apply for himself.

The applicant's brother, William Otway Owen, a Major in the United States Army, will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

His wife and child, Annie R. C. Owen and William O. C. Owen, are shown to have been admitted to citizenship by the Dawes Commission in 1896. Neither Major Owen nor his wife were ever previously married; they have been married 14 years, and his wife will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption, and his child, William O. C. Owen, as a Cherokee by blood.

AFFIDAVIT.

Personally appeared before me Owen Owen, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, of Coowescoowee District, who having been duly sworn, on his oath says:

In my twentieth year I went to the Cherokee Nation and established residence in the Coowescoowee District in the employ of Robert L. Owen.

I left the Cherokee Nation in 1894, in the service of the United States, in the Treasury Department, and afterwards served the Government in various places, New York, Washington, Boston, Philadelphia, having gone on a trip to Costa Rica, Central America, representing the United States there in a counterfeiting case. I brought back from that trip nearly $600,000. in counterfeit money.

I claim the right of political domicile in the Cherokee Nation.

Robert L. Owen has been my agent, in relation to my rights to an allotment in the Cherokee Nation, and I still so recognize him.

My father died the 15th day of February, 1892. His name was William Otway Owen, of Lynchburg, Virginia.

My mother is Alice L. Owen, the daughter of Jane Bruton, of Sequoyah District. Her children were Robert Otway Owen, Jane Owen, William Owen, Charles Owen, Owen Owen and Alice Owen. They were made orphans by the death of my father, the 15th day of February, 1892.

My mother was born in the Cherokee Nation and belonged to the old settlers or Western Cherokees. Her mother, Jane Bruton, was never out of the Territory and is buried there.

AFFIDAVIT/

Robert L. Owen having been duly sworn , on his oath says; I knew Owen and Charles Owen well (Roll No. D. 651 Cherokee Rolls) they are the sons of Alice Owen a native born Cherokee. By an inadvertance Alice Owen has been referred to as having been re-admitted in 1881. She was not re-admitted in fact, ne ver having applied for readmission, but, as a copy of the certificate on file in her case shows, she was simply enrolled , on my request being entitled thereto as a recognized native born Cherokee. Neither she nor her children come within the scope of the Cherokee act of 18 94 requiring re-admitted persons to remove within six months into the Cherokee Nation. Owen Owen had been in my employ in the Cherokee Nation residing in Cooweescoowee District in 1893 and left the Cherokee Nation to enter the service of the United States in the Treasury Department where he was registered as from the Indian Territory. I have regarded myself as the Agent of Alice Owen and her children and have held for them since 1891 cultivated land in the Cherokee Nation and now hold the same for them such land proposing to file an application for allotment to them of such land as soon as their rights of citizenship are determined, holding proper powers of attorney fro each and every one of Alice Owen and her children for that purpose.

W. O. Bruton, I am informed and believe and therefore assert held a bunch of cattle belonging to Alice Owen and her children in Sequoyah District from 1881 to 1891. His evidence to that effect should be found in the case of Alice Owen. None of these people have forfeited their rights but are entitled to enrollment as Cherekees by blood.

In the matter of the application of Alice L. Owen, et al., for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

O R D E R.

It is ordered that copies of the affidavits of Wilson O. Bruton, dated June 7, 1904, Owen Owen, dated June 10, 1904, and Robert L. Owen, dated July 2, 1904, and copies of the certificates of C. J. Commissioner.

Cherokee Case 5600.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of William O. Owen and William O. C. Owen as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on November 19, 1900, Robert L. Owen appeared before the Commission at Chelsea, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of William O. Owen and William O. C. Owen as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on October 24, 1902. The application also included Annie R. C. Owen for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, but her status as such is not passed upon at this time and she is not embraced in this decision.

The evidence shows that William O. Owen is a Cherokee citizen by blood and is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, and also the Cherokee strip payment roll of 1894. The minor applicant, William O. C. Owen, is the principal applicant's son by his wife, Annie R. C. Owen.

The evidence further shows that the minor applicant, William O. C. Owen, among others, filed his original petition under the act of June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321), with the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for admission as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, which was granted by the Commission and no appeal taken therefrom.

The evidence further shows that William O. Owen, about 1880, entered the military service of the United States and has continued in said service from that time up to and including the date of the application herein, and with the exception of about four years about 1890, has resided outside of the Cherokee Nation, engaged in his said duties as a government official. His said son being a minor it is considered that his residence in the Cherokee Nation has not been forfeited since his admission in 1896, as hereinbefore shown.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that William O. Owen and William O. C. Owen should be enrolled as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Chelsea, I. T., November 19, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Robert L. Owen for the enrollment of his mother, NARCISSE C. OWEN, as a Cherokee citizen; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge he testified as follows:

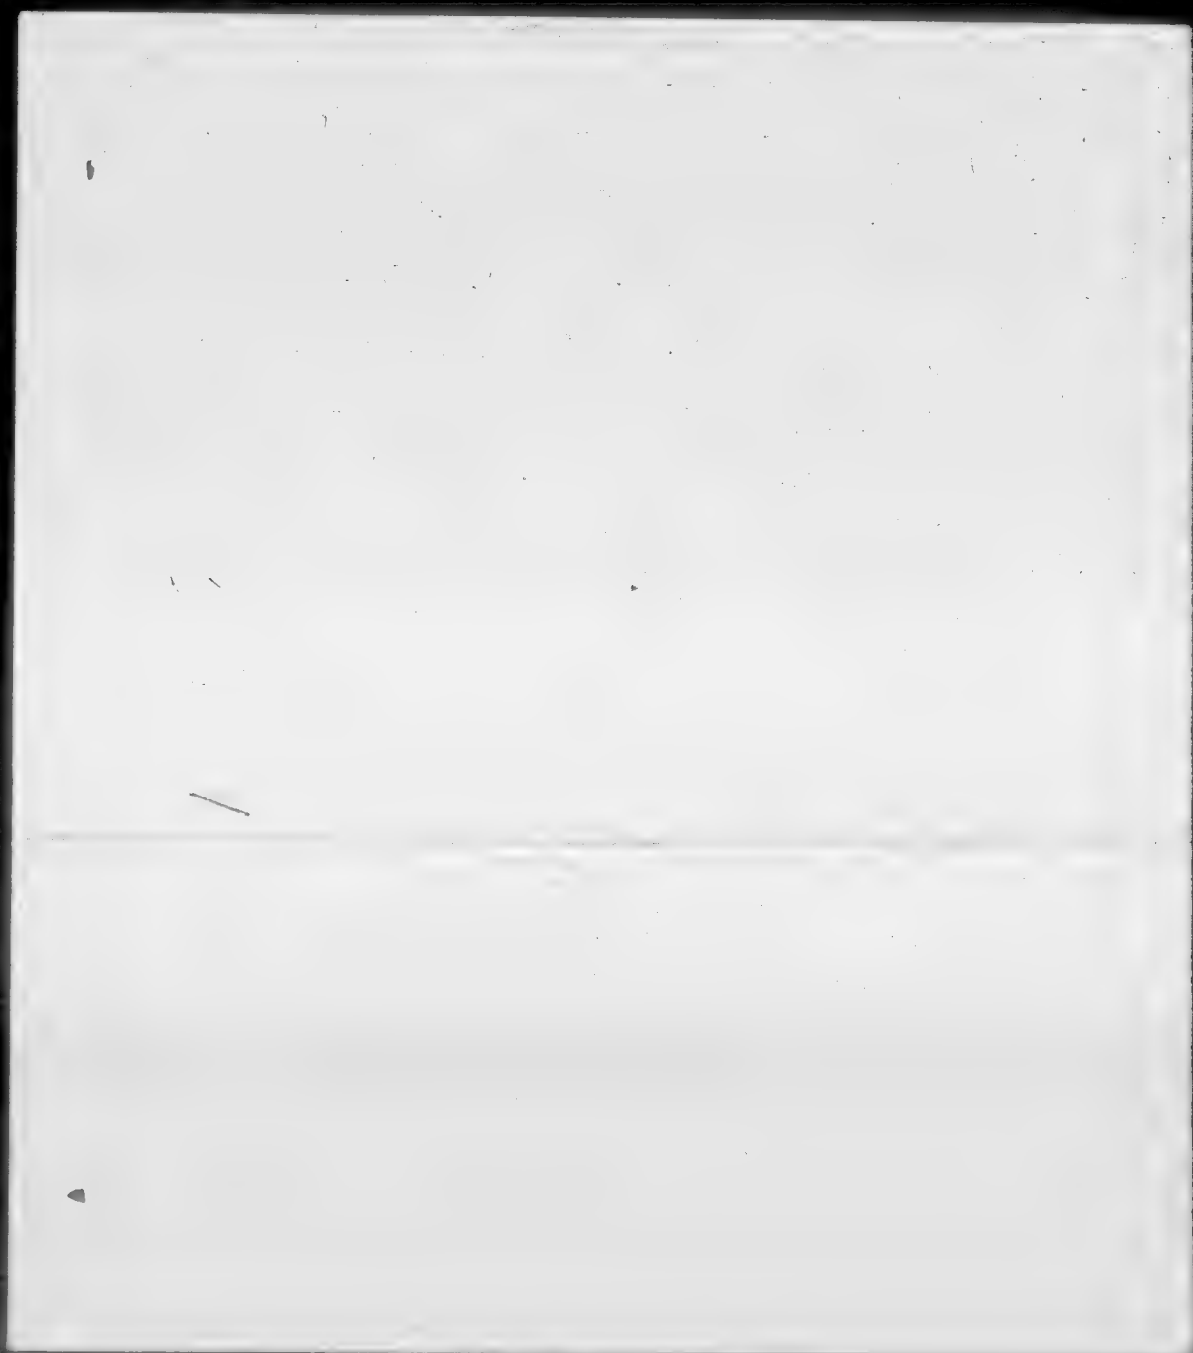

- Q Give me your full name? A Robert L. Owen.
Q What is your age, A 44
Q What is your post-office? A Muskogee.
Q You claim to be a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q And of Cooweescoowee District? A Yes sir.
Q For whom do you wish to make application now? A For my mother Narcissa C. Owen.
Q Your mother is a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q What is your mother's age? A Sixty-eight years old.
She was born at Webbers Falls in 1832.
Q Does she find it impracticable to apply for herself?
A Yes sir.
Q How long has she lived in the Cherokee Nation? A She has lived in the Cherokee Nation for the last 19 years.
Q She is not on the roll of 1880? A She is.
Q Was her husband living at that time? A No sir.
Q 1880 roll page 652 #812 Narcissa Owen Saline Dist native Cherokee 1896 roll examined, and name of mother not found;
Q Was your mother here in 1896? A She was away with me/
1894 roll page 267 #3231 Narcissa Owen Cooweescoowee.
Q What is your mother's post-office? A Caney, Kansas.
Q She lives in Cooweescoowee District? A She lives in Cooweescoowee District, post-office just across the State line.
Q She is not on the 1896 roll, was she temporarily absent at that time? A Yes sir.
Q You had taken her with you? A Yes sir.
Q She has lived continuously in the Cherokee Nation except for temporary absence? A Except absence on pleasure; she goes to Washington every winter with me, but her farm is in Cooweescoowee District.

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant applies for the enrollment of his mother, Narcissa C. Owen; she has lived for the past 19 years in the Cherokee Nation; she is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1894; owing to temporary absence she was omitted from the roll of 1896, but it did not effect her residence; she will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

M.D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 20 day of November 1900.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself, husband and three children as Cherokees by blood, and for her husband as an intermarried citizen. She is identified on the authenticated roll of 1888 and on the census roll of 1896 as native Cherokee. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life and she will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. She avers that and produces satisfactory evidence that she was married to one Jesse McKnight according to the laws of the Cherokee Nation in 1894. He is identified on the census roll of 1896 as an adopted white. They have lived together continuously ever since their marriage and he will be listed not for enrollment as a Cherokee by inter-marriage. The two eldest children are identified on the census roll of 1896 as native Cherokees, and they will be listed with their mother for enrollment as Cherokees by blood. When she supplies the Commission with satisfactory evidence of the birth of her youngest child, said child will also be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

Chas. van Weise being sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized tribes he reported in full all the proceedings in the above case and that the foregoing is a true correct and full transcript of his stenographic notes therein.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat: 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Commissioner.

In the Matter of the ~~enrollment~~ ^{enrollment} of Annie Dick for the enrollment of herself and children as Cherokee citizens. she being sworn testified through Caleb Beshane as interpreter as follows:

1880	roll, page 84,	No 853,	Wm. Carpenter, Cooweescoowee, Ad.
1880		84	854 Fannie Carpenter,
1896		357	58 Annie Carpenter

The applicant applied for the enrollment of herself and three children as Cherokee citizens by Shawnee blood. She is ~~identified on the 1890~~ ~~authenticated roll, having been born since said roll was compiled,~~ She is not identified on the 1890 authenticated roll, having been born since said roll was compiled, but her father and mother are both identified on said roll as native Shawnees. Applicant is identified on the census roll of 1890 as a native Shawnee under her maiden name. Her change of name is accounted for by her marriage of James Dick in 1896. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life and will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by Shawnee blood. When she presents properly executed affidavits as to the birth of her three children they also will be listed for enrollment with her as citizens of the Cherokee Nation by Shawnee blood.

Mrs. James Dick,

White Oak, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:-

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of February 26, enclosing birth affidavit in the matter of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Eva Dick, infant child of yourself and Annie Dick. The same is herewith returned to you and your attention is called to the fact that one of the parties who sign as a witness to the signature by mark of your wife and also to the signature of the midwife Mary Beaver, signs his name by mark. You are requested to have the signatures of your wife and the midwife attested by two witnesses who can write their names.

Your attention is also called to the fact that in the caption of this affidavit the name of your wife appears as Anna Dick, while in the affidavit which she makes her name appears as Annie Dick, under which latter name she is listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. You are required to have her name corrected in the caption to this affidavit.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Mary Price as a Cherokee by blood.

Wallace M. Price being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your full name please? A Wallace M. Price.
Q How old are you? A 43 years old.
Q What is your post office? A Talala.
Q Do you live in Cooweescoowee district? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you want to enroll yourself and family? A No, just my wife.
Q Is she a Cherokee by blood? A No, sir.
Q What is her name? A Mary Price, she was Mary Yount.
Q How old is she? A She is 20 years old in December.
Q When did you marry her? A I married her the 20th of December, 1898.
Q Have you a certificate of marriage? A Yes, sir.
Q What was your wife's name when you married her? A Mary Yount.
Q What was her father's name? A Jack Yount, Andrew J.
Q He is alive, is he? A Yes, sir, he is here now.
Q Her mother's name? A Her mother's name was Eliza Harmon, before she married Mr. Yount.
Q Has your wife lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life? A All except when we were married, she was out about a month, visiting once.
(The applicant presents an illuminated certificate showing that he and his wife were married as stated by him on December 20, 1898, by the Rev. A. G. Murray. This is returned to him.)

The applicant applies for the enrollment of his wife. She is identified on the roll of 1898 as a native Cherokee. She is too young to be on the roll of 1880, but her mother is identified on that roll as a native Cherokee. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, her change of name is established by the marriage which is shown to have taken place in 1898, and she will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

Q Where were you living in '96? A I was working up in Missouri.
Q Does your wife's name appear upon the census roll of 1896? A Yes, sir.
Q Was she living at Seneca at that time with you? A Yes, sir.
Q Who enrolled her in 1896? A John McIntosh and Judge Clingan.

COMMISSION: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage and for the enrollment of his wife and child as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. He presents satisfactory proof of his marriage on the 30th day of December, 1896. This is too late for him to acquire property rights in the Cherokee nation under the Cherokee law of 1896, and his application, therefore, for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation is REJECTED. He is identified, however, on the roll of 1896 as an adopted white.

His wife, Dollie Merrell, is identified upon the census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee. He presents satisfactory proof as to her admission to citizenship September 3, 1883, and she will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood of the Cherokee Nation. When he files with the Commission properly executed affidavits of the birth of his child, Ethel W., this child also will be listed for enrollment with its mother as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, April 25, 1905.

In the matter of the application of Henry Westenhaver
~~a non-citizen to select allotments~~ for his wife, Flora Westenhaver, Roll No. 13461, and his minor children, Bertha M. and George Blackstone Westenhaver, whose names appear upon the Cherokee Roll opposite Nos. 13462 and 13463, respectively, Field card No. 5611.

Henry Westenhaver, non-citizen husband and father, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Henry Westenhaver.
Q What is your post office address? A Chelsea.
Q Your age? A 37.
Q What is your occupation, Mr. Westenhaver? A Farmer.
Q Do you claim any rights to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation?
A I do according to the Cherokee laws.
Q You claim as an intermarried? A Yes sir.
Q Is your object in appearing before the Auxiliary Cherokee Land Office of the Commission today to select allotments for your minor children and your wife? A Yes sir.
Q What is your wife's name? A Flora Westenhaver.
Q How old is she? A I think- forget whether 26 or 29.
Q What are the children's names? A Bertha M. and George Blackstone Westenhaver.
Q How old is Bertha M? A 9 past.
Q How old is George Blackstone? A 2 last July.
Q Has your wife authorized you in writing to select allotments for herself and her minor children? A Yes sir.

Witness offers power of attorney executed by Flora Westenhaver, dated April 24, 1905, in which she authorizes Henry Westenhaver to select an allotment for herself and her minor children in the Cherokee Nation.

- Q Why is it that your wife cannot appear in person and select these allotments? A Why she is not a stout woman, weakly, has a baby too little to take with her.
Q Is she confined to her home? A Not able to leave it hardly.
Q Is the land that you desire to have allotted to them under improvement and in cultivation? A Most of it, all under fence, with exception of just little places, the fractions. Got two places all under fence.
Q In Goo-veg-see-see district? A Yes sir.
Q Has any guardian ever been appointed for your minor children?
A No sir.
Q Has anyone ever before this time appeared before either the Land Office at Vinita or Tahlequah and attempted to select allotments for them? A No sir, only I was down here last Saturday and could not file.

Westenhaver -2-

- Q When you were here last Saturday is the only attempt that has been made? A Yes sir.
- Q Has your wife been notified by the Commission to appear within a certain time and select her allotments? A Yes, did not get the letter until last Thursday and came last Saturday.

Witness offers letter from the Commission dated March 31, 1905, addressed to Flora Westenhaver in which she is notified to appear at the Cherokee Land Office on or before April 22, 1905, and select allotments in the Cherokee Nation.

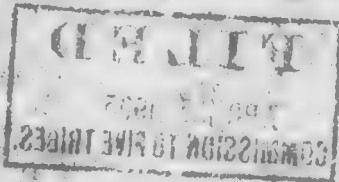

- Q Is the land which you desire to have allotted to them in your possession, Mr. Westenhaver? A Yes sir.
- Q How long has it been your possession? A Why one place I took it on prairie and improved it and it has been mine I think seven years, the other one I just got it two years ago.
- Q Are you and your wife now living together? A Yes sir.
- Q Are these two children living with you? A Yes sir.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped
 2. out of the car was the smell of the
 3. fresh air. It was a relief after the
 4. stuffy car. I looked around and saw
 5. a few people walking. They were
 6. dressed in casual clothes. I felt a
 7. bit nervous, but I tried to relax.
 8. I walked towards the entrance of the
 9. building. The door was open, and I
 10. went inside. The interior was bright
 11. and clean. I saw a receptionist
 12. sitting at a desk. I approached her
 13. and asked for the manager. She
 14. led me to a meeting room. I sat
 15. down and waited. After a few
 16. minutes, the manager came in. We
 17. talked for an hour. He seemed
 18. interested in what I had to say.
 19. We agreed on a date for the next
 20. meeting. I thanked him and left.
 21. I felt a bit better now. I was
 22. sure I had made a good impression.
 23. I was looking forward to the next

WITNESSES my hand
this 28 day of Dec
1900.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I.T., April 19, 1902.

In the matter of the application of James W. Foust for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

SUPPLEMENTAL TO D-975.

In the matter of the application of Paulina P. Pitcher for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

SUPPLEMENTAL TO 5614.

COMMISSION: The Cherokee Nation, by its representative, makes satisfactory proof of service on the said James W. Foust that it would introduce testimony at the offices of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes on the 19th day of April, 1902, tending to disprove his right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The applicant has this day, to wit the 19th day of April, 1902, been called and fails to respond either in person or by attorney.

The Cherokee Nation makes satisfactory proof of service on the said Paulina P. Pitcher, now Paulina Foust, that it would, by its representative, introduce testimony at the offices of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at the town of Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 19th day of April, 1902, tending to disprove her right to be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The applicant in this case has been called three times and fails to respond either in person or by attorney.

The Cherokee Nation, by its representative, offers in evidence a certified copy of a marriage license issued at Miami, Indian Territory, on the 25th day of December, 1901, by Charles A. Davidson, Clerk of the United States Court for the Northern District of the Indian Territory, by H. H. Butler, Deputy Clerk, authorizing the marriage of J. W. Foust and Mrs. Pauline Pitcher. The certificate of marriage shows that they were united in matrimony by William T. Freeman, a minister of the Gospel, on the 26th day of December, 1901.

The Cherokee Nation, by its representative, desires to call attention to section 666 of the Compiled Laws of the Cherokee Nation for the year 1892.

Upon an examination of the records of the Commission it is found that James W. Foust has been listed for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage on Doubtful Cherokee Card Field No. D-975, and that his wife, Paulina P. Foust, nee Pauline P. Pitcher, has been listed for enrollment under the latter name as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation on Cherokee Roll Card Field No. 5614.

Said marriage license is as follows:

*MARRIAGE LICENSE.

COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 10, 1907.

Paulina P. Pitcher,
Welch, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

ADDRESS ONLY THE
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 23rd, 1902.

Paulina P. Pitcher,

Welch, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

The Act of Congress, approved July 1, 1902, and entitled
"An Act To provide for the allotment of the lands of the Cherokee Nation, for the disposition of town sites therein, and for other purposes," (Public No. 241), provides that "the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen-hundred and two."

In accordance with said provision, you are hereby notified that the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes will be at its offices at Muskogee, Indian Territory, until Friday, October 31, 1902, inclusive, for the purpose of affording you an opportunity to show that you have not, between the date of the original application for your enrollment and Sept 2, 1902, forfeited your right as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

This evidence should be introduced immediately, as it is necessary in determining your right to share in the allotment of the lands of the Cherokee Nation, and until the same is furnished no further action can be taken looking toward your final enrollment as an intermarried citizen.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 11, 1907.

Paulina P. Pitcher,

Welch, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

You are advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior, January 26, 1907.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

D

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 9, 1907.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the undersigned, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, has been designated by the Secretary of the Interior, as the official to make and approve appraisals of the value of improvements upon land in the Cherokee Nation which were made prior to November 5, 1906, by white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens prior to December 16, 1895, and who have the right under the Act of Congress approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), to sell improvements.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage who have made permanent and valuable improvements on lands of the Cherokee Nation and who claim the right to sell the same under and by virtue of said Act of Congress of March 2, 1907 (Public 180), must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, and designate the land upon which are located the improvements which they claim the right to sell by virtue of said Act; and if any such intermarried citizen shall fail to appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, it will be considered that he makes no claim to the benefits conferred by said Act. Such appearance and designation of improvements must be made before the Commissioner at his office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, at any time between Monday, March 11th, 1907, and Saturday, March 30th, 1907, inclusive, or at any of the following named places between the dates named at which places the Commissioner will have a representative to receive said designations and hear testimony relative thereto:

Bartlesville, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907,
to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Tulsa, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Claremore, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907,
to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Nowata, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907,
to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Vinita, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Pryor Creek, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907,
to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Tahlequah, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18, 1907,
to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Sallisaw, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907,
to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Designations must be made in person by the intermarried white claimant, or in case proper proof is made that he is physically unable to appear, by some adult member of his immediate family, or in case proper proof is made of the fact that the intermarried white claimant is physically unable to appear and has no adult member of his immediate family, by a person holding a properly executed power of attorney; provided, that in every case the designation must be made by a party familiar with the character, ownership, location and value of the improvements to be designated. At the time of said designation the testimony of any competent person will be taken by the Commissioner as to the location, character and value of said improvements.

No former intermarried white claimant will be permitted to designate improvements upon more land than he would have been entitled to take in allotment for himself had he been admitted to citizenship. If any intermarried white claimant has made a tentative selection of a full allotment he will not be allowed to designate improvements upon other land.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that if any citizen of the Cherokee Nation entitled to select an allotment shall claim that the improvements on land tentatively selected by a former intermarried white claimant, or held by him, do not belong to said intermarried white claimant, or makes any adverse claim to said improvements, or to the right of the intermarried white claimant to sell said improvements under the Act approved March

Nation which were made prior to November 3, 1866, by white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens prior to December 16, 1895, and who have the right under the Act of Congress approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), to sell improvements.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage who have made permanent and valuable improvements on lands of the Cherokee Nation and who claim the right to sell the same under and by virtue of said Act of Congress of March 2, 1907 (Public 180), must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, and designate the land upon which are located the improvements which they claim the right to sell by virtue of said Act; and if any such intermarried citizen shall fail to appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, it will be considered that he makes no claim to the benefits conferred by said Act. Such appearance and designation of improvements must be made before the Commissioner at his office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, at any time between Monday, March 11th, 1907, and Saturday, March 30th, 1907, inclusive, or at any of the following named places between the dates named at which places the Commissioner will have a representative to receive said designations and hear testimony relative thereto:

Bartlesville, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Tulsa, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Claremore, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Nowata, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Vinita, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Pryor Creek, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Tahlequah, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Sallisaw, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Designations must be made in person by the intermarried white claimant, or in case proper proof is made that he is physically unable to appear, by some adult member of his immediate family, or in case proper proof is made of the fact that the intermarried white claimant is physically unable to appear and has no adult member of his immediate family, by a person holding a properly executed power of attorney; provided, that in every case the designation must be made by a party familiar with the character, ownership, location and value of the improvements to be designated. At the time of said designation the testimony of any competent person will be taken by the Commissioner as to the location, character and value of said improvements.

No former intermarried white claimant will be permitted to designate improvements upon more land than he would have been entitled to take in allotment for himself had he been admitted to citizenship. If any intermarried white claimant has made a tentative selection of a full allotment he will not be allowed to designate improvements upon other land.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that if any citizen of the Cherokee Nation entitled to select an allotment shall claim that the improvements on land tentatively selected by a former intermarried white claimant, or held by him, do not belong to said intermarried white claimant, or makes any adverse claim to said improvements, or to the right of the intermarried white claimant to sell said improvements under the Act approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), said citizen must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes either at Muskogee, Indian Territory, prior to April 1, 1907, or at one of the places above designated and within the dates above designated and make formal complaint before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes of his contention. At Muskogee, Indian Territory, between March 11th and March 30th, 1907, inclusive, and at the other places herein named during the hearings at said places as herein fixed, plats will be open for inspection showing the location of tentative allotments made by former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage and all other land on which such claimants claim improvements, so far as indicated by the records of this office.

All persons interested should take careful note of the limitation of time herein provided for, within which designations and complaints may be made, and that they must be made by appearance before the Commissioner.

Cherokee Nation.

MAILED IN REPLY TO THE FOLLOWING

Cher. 5615.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

WFS
Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 10, 1907.

Charley Headrick,
Centralia, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decm. ____ D ____

Commissioner.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

James Dixby
Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

this January 10, 1907.

REFER IN REPLY TO THE FOLLOWING:

~~Cherokee No. 2011~~

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Muskegee, Indian Territory, May 21, 1907.

Charley Headrick,

Centralia, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

You are advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior, January 26, 1907.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

D

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 9, 1907.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the undersigned, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, has been designated by the Secretary of the Interior, as the official to make and approve appraisals of the value of improvements upon land in the Cherokee Nation which were made prior to November 5, 1906, by white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens prior to December 16, 1895, and who have the right under the Act of Congress approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), to sell improvements.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage who have made permanent and valuable improvements on lands of the Cherokee Nation and who claim the right to sell the same under and by virtue of said Act of Congress of March 2, 1907 (Public 180), must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, and designate the land upon which are located the improvements which they claim the right to sell by virtue of said Act; and if any such intermarried citizen shall fail to appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, it will be considered that he makes no claim to the benefits conferred by said Act. Such appearance and designation of improvements must be made before the Commissioner at his office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, at any time between Monday, March 11th, 1907, and Saturday, March 30th, 1907, inclusive, or at any of the following named places between the dates named at which places the Commissioner will have a representative to receive said designations and hear testimony relative thereto:

Bartlesville, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Tulsa, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Claremore, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Nowata, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Vinita, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Pryor Creek, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Tahlequah, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Sallisaw, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Designations must be made in person by the intermarried white claimant, or in case proper proof is made that he is physically unable to appear, by some adult member of his immediate family, or in case proper proof is made of the fact that the intermarried white claimant is physically unable to appear and has no adult member of his immediate family, by a person holding a properly executed power of attorney; provided, that in every case the designation must be made by a party familiar with the character, ownership, location and value of the improvements to be designated. At the time of said designation the testimony of any competent person will be taken by the Commissioner as to the location, character and value of said improvements.

No former intermarried white claimant will be permitted to designate improvements upon more land than he would have been entitled to take in allotment for himself had he been admitted to citizenship. If any intermarried white claimant has made a tentative selection of a full allotment he will not be allowed to designate improvements upon other land.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that if any citizen of the Cherokee Nation entitled to select an allotment shall claim that the improvements on land tentatively selected by a former intermarried white claimant, or held by him, do not belong to said intermarried white claimant, or makes any adverse claim to said improvements, or to the right of the intermarried white claimant to sell said improvements under the Act of Congress of March 2, 1907 (Public 180), he must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, and designate the land upon which are located the improvements which he claims the right to sell by virtue of said Act; and if any such citizen shall fail to appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, it will be considered that he makes no claim to the benefits conferred by said Act.

the Act of Congress approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), to sell improvements.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage who have made permanent and valuable improvements on lands of the Cherokee Nation and who claim the right to sell the same under and by virtue of said Act of Congress of March 2, 1907 (Public 180), must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, and designate the land upon which are located the improvements which they claim the right to sell by virtue of said Act; and if any such intermarried citizen shall fail to appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, it will be considered that he makes no claim to the benefits conferred by said Act. Such appearance and designation of improvements must be made before the Commissioner at his office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, at any time between Monday, March 11th, 1907, and Saturday, March 30th, 1907, inclusive, or at any of the following named places between the dates named at which places the Commissioner will have a representative to receive said designations and hear testimony relative thereto:

Bartlesville, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Tulsa, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Claremore, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Nowata, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Vinita, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Pryor Creek, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Tahlequah, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Sallisaw, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Designations must be made in person by the intermarried white claimant, or in case proper proof is made that he is physically unable to appear, by some adult member of his immediate family, or in case proper proof is made of the fact that the intermarried white claimant is physically unable to appear and has no adult member of his immediate family, by a person holding a properly executed power of attorney; provided, that in every case the designation must be made by a party familiar with the character, ownership, location and value of the improvements to be designated. At the time of said designation the testimony of any competent person will be taken by the Commissioner as to the location, character and value of said improvements.

No former intermarried white claimant will be permitted to designate improvements upon more land than he would have been entitled to take in allotment for himself had he been admitted to citizenship. If any intermarried white claimant has made a tentative selection of a full allotment he will not be allowed to designate improvements upon other land.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that if any citizen of the Cherokee Nation entitled to select an allotment shall claim that the improvements on land tentatively selected by a former intermarried white claimant, or held by him, do not belong to said intermarried white claimant, or makes any adverse claim to said improvements, or to the right of the intermarried white claimant to sell said improvements under the Act approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), said citizen must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes either at Muskogee, Indian Territory, prior to April 1, 1907, or at one of the places above designated and within the dates above designated and make formal complaint before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes of his contention. At Muskogee, Indian Territory, between March 11th and March 30th, 1907, inclusive, and at the other places herein named during the hearings at said places as herein fixed, plats will be open for inspection showing the location of tentative allotments made by former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage and all other land on which such claimants claim improvements, so far as indicated by the records of this office.

All persons interested should take careful note of the limitation of time herein provided for, within which designations and complaints may be made, and that they must be made by appearance before the Commissioner.

Commissioner.

W. V. Hastings,

Attorney for Cherokee Nation,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting the application for the enrollment of James Watson, et al., as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was affirmed by the Department, January 26, 1907.

For your information, there is enclosed herewith a copy of Departmental decision referred to.

Respectfully,

625-1909

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith a request of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, Muskogee, Oklahoma, dated April 21, 1909, that he be authorized to change the designation of the sex of Watie E. Headrick, No. 13478, as appears on the final roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, by changing the letter "M" to the letter "F," in the column marked "Sex," opposite the above name and number.

The Commissioner reports that ~~the~~ it appears from affidavits in his possession executed by E. C. and Lucy Headrick, the parents of Watie E. Headrick, that Watie E. Headrick is a female instead of a male, as appears on the present printed roll.

The Office recommends that authority be granted to correct the designation of the sex of Watie E. Headrick by changing the letter "M" to the letter "F," in the column marked "Sex," opposite No. 13478, on the copies of the approved final roll of Cherokee by blood in the possession of the Department, this Office, and the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes.

Very respectfully,

(Signed) R. G. Valentine,
Acting Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
CHULSA, I.T., NOV. 20th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF William Nelson Stinson for the enrollment of himself, wife and children as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and he being sworn and examined by Commissioner, C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your full name please? A William Nelson Stinson.
Q How old are you? A Thirty.
Q What is your Postoffice? A Adair.
Q In what district do you live? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Who is it you want to enroll? A Myself, wife and two children.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A No sir.
Q Is your wife a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q Give me your marriage license and certificate?
(Applicant hands paper to Commissioner)

o The applicant presents an official copy of the records of Cooweescoowee District, showing that in accordance with a Cherokee license issued by the Clerk of Cooweescoowee District, he was married on the 17th of October, 1894 to Miss Lena M. Rogers, the ceremony being performed by Reverend M. E. Goode. This is filed herewith.

- Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation, and with your wife, ever since you married her in 1894? A Yes sir.
Q Were you ever married except to this wife? A No sir.
Q Was she ever married except to you? A I suppose not; I never heard of it. This man here - indicating - can tell you.

David M. Rogers, being sworn and examined by Commissioner, C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your full name? A David M. Rogers.
Q How old are you? A Sixty five.
Q What is your Postoffice? A Adair.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Seven years.
Q Do you know the applicant here, William N. Stinson? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know his wife? A She is my daughter.
Q Has she ever been married except to him? A No sir.

Applicant recalled:

- Q Your wife's full name then at the present time is Lena M. Stinson? That is right, is it? A Yes sir.
Q How old is she? A Twenty seven I believe.
Q Has she been admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee Commission?
A Yes sir.
Q Have you a certificate of her admission? A It is filed here.
Q In what case? A In the case of David M. Rogers.
Q When do you claim that your wife was admitted to citizenship?
A I do not know.
Q Was she admitted with her father? A I do not know that: That was before I knew her.
Q Do you know whether she has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since she was admitted? A No sir; I do not know.
Q Give me the names of your children please? A Willie May Stinson.
Q Is that a girl? A Yes sir.
Q How old is this child? A She is five years old.
Q The next child? A Violet Valentine Stinson.
Q How old is that child? A She is nine months old.
Q They are both living, now, are they? A Yes sir.

A certificate of admission, dated September 6th, 1888, shows that the father of the applicant's wife and members of the family were admitted to citizenship at that time. Among them appears the name of Lena M. Rogers? That was the name of your wife at that time?

A Yes sir.

This is recognized as official evidence of the admission of the applicant's wife as stated: Her age is given at that time as fourteen years. This document is filed in the case of Mary J. Rogers, "D" #813.

(1896 Roll, Page 324, #935, William Stinson, Coe. District)

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and two children: His wife is shown to have been admitted to Cherokee citizenship by the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship in 1888. The marriage license and certificate filed herewith show that she was married in the Cherokee Nation in 1894, while still a minor. The applicant states that he and his wife have lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since their marriage: She is identified on the roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee, and she will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

The applicant is shown to have married his wife in accordance with Cherokee law in October, 1894: He is identified on the roll of 1896. He and his wife have lived together, and in the Cherokee Nation ever since their marriage: Neither was previously married. He will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by intermarriage. The child, ~~William~~ Willie May Stinson is identified on the roll of 1896. He is living now, and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

When a certificate of the birth of the younger child, Violet V. Stinson is filed with the Commission, this child also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 20th day of November, 1900.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

COMMISSION: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee by blood and for the enrollment of his wife as a Cherokee citizen by intermarriage. He is identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 and census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee. He has lived in the Cherokee nation all his life and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood. He avers that he was married to his wife on the 15th day of October, 1900. She is a white woman. He does not produce any satisfactory proof as to his marriage and will be required to file with the Commission the original certificate of a copy of the record. His wife was married too late according to the laws of the Cherokee nation of 1895, to acquire property rights by intermarriage, consequently the application he makes in her behalf, as a citizen by intermarriage, will be REJECTED:

Commission--

Benjamin F. Rowland applies for the enrollment of Blue Thomas as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. He has been legally appointed guardian of this child. The name of said child does not appear upon the authenticated roll of 1880, having been born since said roll was compiled. His father, however, is identified upon that roll as a adopted white, and his mother is identified thereon as a Native Cherokee. The child is identified upon the Census roll of 1890 as a Native Cherokee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

Commission.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and for the enrollment of his wife and one child as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. He produces satisfactory proof as to his marriage to his wife on the 7th day of December, 1896. This was too late for him to acquire property right in the Cherokee Nation under the Cherokee law regulating marriages, and consequently his application for enrollment as a citizen by marriage in the Cherokee Nation is rejected. His wife is identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880, and the Census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee. She is identified on both rolls under her maiden name. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, and will be listed for enrollment by the Commission as a Cherokee citizen by blood; and when he files with the Commission properly executed affidavits as to the birth of his son Samuel W. this child will also be listed with its mother as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

E. G. Rothenberger, being duly sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes in said case

Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q What is your wife? A White woman.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? All your life?
A No sir: I came here the first day of January, 1888, I believe.
Q Were you admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee Commission on citizenship? A I was admitted in 1887.
Q Have you your certificate of admission? A It is on file here.
Q In what case? A My father's case.
Q What is his name? A Patrick Henry.
Q You claim to have been admitted in 1887, and to have lived here ever since? A No sir.
Q Have you lived here ever since you came in 1888? A Yes sir.
Q Give me the name of your wife? A Lenora A. Henry.
Q How old is she? A Twenty six past.
Q When were you married to her? A August 16th, 1891.
Q Have you a certificate of your marriage? A Yes sir.
Q Your wife's maiden name was Ross, was it? A Yes sir.

The applicant presents a marriage license and certificate, showing that he was married by the Reverend David M. Allen, on August 16th, 1891, to Miss Lenora A. Ross. This document is filed herewith, and is of record in the United States records at Muskogee.

- Q Were you ever married except to this wife? A No sir.
Q Was she ever married except to you? A No sir.
Q Has she lived with you ever since you and she were married? A Yes sir.
Q Give me the name of your father? A Patrick Henry.
Q Is he living? A Yes sir.
Q Give me the name of your mother? A Laura Henry.
Q Is she living? A No sir.

The applicant is shown by a duly authenticated certificate of admission to citizenship to have been admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship on the 30th of September, 1887. This document is filed in Case #5499, the same being the application of his father. The applicant's age is given in this document as being at that time thirteen years.

(1896 Roll, Page 183, #2429, Albert G. Henry, Coe District)

- Q What is the "A" in your wife's name for? A I do not know.
Q Who here knows that you and your wife have been living together?
A My father.

Thomas B. Dixon, being sworn and examined by Commissioner, C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your full name please? A Thomas B. Dixon.
Q How old are you? A Thirty seven.
Q What is your Postoffice? A Chelsea.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I came here in 1889.

- Q Do you know Mr. Henry here? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know his wife? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known them? A Ever since they have been married: I do not remember just when that was.
Q Have they lived together ever since as husband and wife?
A So far as I know, they have.
Q Have you known them all the time from that time until now?
A Yes sir.
Q Met them from time to time? A Yes sir: If they are not living together, I do not know it.
Q Would you be in a position to know if they were not living together? A It does look like I would, but there is so much of this separation in this Country.
Q How far do they live from you? A About five miles: He married Mr. Ross' daughter.
Q Have they lived that close to you ever since they were married?
A No sir; they lived over on Caney.
Q Are they living five miles from you now? A I can not tell you: The last I heard was that he was working on the section.
Q Were he and his wife living together then? A Yes sir.
Q You have never heard of any row or break between them?
A No sir; I have not.

Marion W. Couch, being sworn and examined by Commissioner, C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your full name? A Marion W. Couch.
Q How old are you? A Fifty eight.
Q What is your Postoffice? A Chelsea.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation?
A About thirty two years.
Q Are you one of the witnesses here for the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes sir.
Q Do you know Mr. Henry here, the applicant? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know his wife? A Yes sir: I have seen his wife.
Q Have you been acquainted with them ever since they were married?
A I can not say: I have known them six or eight years.
Q Have they been living together ever since you first knew them?
You do not know whether they are living together now or not, do you? A No sir.

Patrick Henry, being sworn and examined by Commissioner, C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your full name? A Patrick Henry.
Q How old are you? A Sixty five.
Q What is your Postoffice? A Chelsea.
Q Are you the father of Mr. Henry here; Albert G. Henry?
A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of his wife? A Lenora.
Q They were married in October, 1891? A Yes sir.
Q Have they lived together as husband and wife ever since?
A Yes sir.
Q And are so living at this time? A Yes sir.
Q You know that of your own personal knowledge? A Yes sir.

Applicant recalled:

The applicant is shown to have been admitted to Cherokee citizenship in 1887, by the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship. He states that he came to the Cherokee Nation January 1st, 1888, and has lived here ever since. He is identified on the roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee. He will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

His wife is shown by the license and certificate filed herewith to have married him October 16th, 1891. Her name is not found on the roll of 1896, but it is established by the testimony of the applicant's father, and by other testimony, that they have lived together as husband and wife ever since their marriage, and are so living at this time. Neither was previously married. It is considered therefore that the omission of her name on the roll of 1896 was an oversight, and that she acquired by her marriage under the circumstances and conditions the right to enrollment at this time, she being by that act made a Cherokee by adoption. She will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 20th day of November, 1900.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 8, 1906, in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

SUPPLEMENTAL PROCEEDINGS.

EFFIE M. ADAMS, being sworn, testified as follows:

By the Commission,

- Q What is your name, please? A Present name?
Q Yes. A Effie M. Adams.
Q How old are you, Mrs. Adams? A I am twenty-six years old September 11th.
Q What's your postoffice address? A Estella, Indian Territory.
Q When you made your original application it was Adair? A Yes, sir, it was Adair; we was living at Adair at that time.
Q You're an applicant for enrollment as an intermarried citizen, are you, of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your husband's name, Mrs. Adams? A Nathan F. Adams, a Delaware Indian.
Q He claims to be a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, does he?
A Yes, sir.
Q When were you married to Mr. Adams? A March 1, 1894.
Q Had you ever been married prior to your marriage to Mr. Adams?
A No, sir.
Q Had he ever been married prior to his marriage to you? A Not as I knew of; I never heard of it.
Q Have you and Mr. Adams lived together since the date of your marriage up to the present time? A We are not housekeeping at this time, but he comes to see us as often as possible. He is in business at one place and I am living at another.
Q You have never had any separation since your marriage? A No, we never had no falling out.
Q But you are not living together as husband and wife? A I want you to understand we are not housekeeping---
Q But you have never separated? still living together as husband and wife? A We are not now but we have been separated during the last year.
Q During the time you say you have been separated, do you mean to say that during that time you were not bearing the relation of husband and wife? A Two or three months. Four months.
Q Where were you living during the separation? A I were living at Vinita.
Q Have you and he gone back together, living together as husband and wife at this time? A Yes, sir.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 195, 196, 197 and 198, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

this January 10, 1907.

REFER IN REPLY TO THE FOLLOWING:

Cherokee No. 1422.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 11, 1907.

Effie M. Adams,

Estella, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

You are advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior, January 26, 1907.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

D

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 9, 1907.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the undersigned, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, has been designated by the Secretary of the Interior, as the official to make and approve appraisals of the value of improvements upon land in the Cherokee Nation which were made prior to November 5, 1906, by white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens prior to December 16, 1895, and who have the right under the Act of Congress approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), to sell improvements:

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage who have made permanent and valuable improvements on lands of the Cherokee Nation and who claim the right to sell the same under and by virtue of said Act of Congress of March 2, 1907 (Public 180), must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, and designate the land upon which are located the improvements which they claim the right to sell by virtue of said Act; and if any such intermarried citizen shall fail to appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, it will be considered that he makes no claim to the benefits conferred by said Act. Such appearance and designation of improvements must be made before the Commissioner at his office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, at any time between Monday, March 11th, 1907, and Saturday, March 30th, 1907, inclusive, or at any of the following named places between the dates named at which places the Commissioner will have a representative to receive said designations and hear testimony relative thereto:

Bartlesville, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907,
to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Tulsa, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Claremore, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907,
to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Nowata, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907,
to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Vinita, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Pryor Creek, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907,
to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Tahlequah, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18, 1907,
to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Sallisaw, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907,
to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Designations must be made in person by the intermarried white claimant, or in case proper proof is made that he is physically unable to appear, by some adult member of his immediate family, or in case proper proof is made of the fact that the intermarried white claimant is physically unable to appear and has no adult member of his immediate family, by a person holding a properly executed power of attorney; provided, that in every case the designation must be made by a party familiar with the character, ownership, location and value of the improvements to be designated. At the time of said designation the testimony of any competent person will be taken by the Commissioner as to the location, character and value of said improvements.

No former intermarried white claimant will be permitted to designate improvements upon more land than he would have been entitled to take in allotment for himself had he been admitted to citizenship. If any intermarried white claimant has made a tentative selection of a full allotment he will not be allowed to designate improvements upon other land.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that if any citizen of the Cherokee Nation entitled to select an allotment shall claim that the improvements on land tentatively selected by a former intermarried white claimant, or held by him, do not belong to said intermarried ried with Cherokee citizens prior to December 16, 1895, and who have the right under the Act of Congress approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), to sell improvements:

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage who have made permanent and valuable improvements on lands of the Cherokee Nation and who claim the right to sell the same under and by virtue of said Act of Congress of March 2, 1907 (Public 180), must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, and designate the land upon which are located the improvements which they claim the right to sell by virtue of said Act; and if any such intermarried citizen shall fail to appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, it will be considered that he makes no claim to the benefits conferred by said Act. Such appearance and designation of improvements must be made before the Commissioner at his office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, at any time between Monday, March 11th, 1907, and Saturday, March 30th, 1907, inclusive, or at any of the following named places between the dates named at which places the Commissioner will have a representative to receive said designations and hear testimony relative thereto:

Bartlesville, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Tulsa, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Claremore, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Nowata, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Vinita, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Pryor Creek, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Tahlequah, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Sallisaw, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Designations must be made in person by the intermarried white claimant, or in case proper proof is made that he is physically unable to appear, by some adult member of his immediate family, or in case proper proof is made of the fact that the intermarried white claimant is physically unable to appear and has no adult member of his immediate family, by a person holding a properly executed power of attorney; provided, that in every case the designation must be made by a party familiar with the character, ownership, location and value of the improvements to be designated. At the time of said designation the testimony of any competent person will be taken by the Commissioner as to the location, character and value of said improvements.

No former intermarried white claimant will be permitted to designate improvements upon more land than he would have been entitled to take in allotment for himself had he been admitted to citizenship. If any intermarried white claimant has made a tentative selection of a full allotment he will not be allowed to designate improvements upon other land.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that if any citizen of the Cherokee Nation entitled to select an allotment shall claim that the improvements on land tentatively selected by a former intermarried white claimant, or held by him, do not belong to said intermarried white claimant, or makes any adverse claim to said improvements, or to the right of the intermarried white claimant to sell said improvements under the Act approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), said citizen must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes either at Muskogee, Indian Territory, prior to April 1, 1907, or at one of the places above designated and within the dates above designated and make formal complaint before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes of his contention. At Muskogee, Indian Territory, between March 11th and March 30th, 1907, inclusive, and at the other places herein named during the hearings at said places as herein fixed, plats will be open for inspection showing the location of tentative allotments made by former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage and all other land on which such claimants claim improvements, so far as indicated by the records of this office.

All persons interested should take careful note of the limitation of time herein provided for, within which designations and complaints may be made, and that they must be made by appearance before the Commissioner.

Commission-

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and for the enrollment of his wife and three children as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. He presents satisfactory proof as to his marriage in accordance with the laws and customs of the Cherokee Nation on the 7th day of October, 1891. He and his wife have lived together continuously since that time. Neither were previously married. The applicant is identified upon the Census roll of 1896 as an adopted white. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation for 14 years, and he will be listed by this Commission for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage. He presents satisfactory proof as to the admission of his wife to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation on the 3rd day of September, 1885. She has resided in the Cherokee Nation continuously since that time. She is identified upon the Census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee, and will be listed for enrollment by the Commission as a citizen by blood. His two oldest children are also identified on the Census roll of 1896 as native Cherokees, and satisfactory proof as to their residence having been made, they will be listed for enrollment with their mother as citizens by blood; and when he files with the Commission properly executed affidavits as to the birth of his youngest child, this child, will also be listed with its mother for enrollment as a citizen by blood.

E. G. Rothsberger, being sworn ~~and~~ states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

this January 10, 1907.

Cherokee No. 5624.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 11, 1907.

John H. Shimp,

Talala, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

You are advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior, January 28, 1907.

Respectfully,

Commission-

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and for the enrollment of his wife and five children as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. He is identified upon the Census roll of 1896 as an adopted white. He produces satisfactory proof as to his marriage in accordance with the laws and customs of the Cherokee Nation on the 24th day of March, 1891; and he and his wife lived together continuously since that time. Neither have ever been married before. He will be listed for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. His wife is identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 and the Census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, and will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as a citizen by blood. His three eldest children are identified on the Census roll of 1896 as native Cherokees. Their residence has been established to the satisfaction of the Commission, and they also will be listed with their mother for enrollment as citizens by blood. And when he files with the Commission properly executed affidavits as to the birth of the two youngest children, whose names do not appear upon the Census roll of 1896, these children also will be listed for enrollment with this mother as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

E.G. Rothenberger, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 30th day of November, 1900.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
MUSKOGEE, IND. TER., OCT. 2, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Thomas B. Dickson et al. for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation:

SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT.

It appears, from examination of the principal applicant, that he applied for five children; the names of only four children appear in the testimony, that of Serena Dickson being omitted. An examination of the memorandum made at the time of this examination, shows the name of Serena Dickson, and this child is also found on the tribal rolls, included in the family of Thomas B. Dickson. It is, therefore, considered that Serena Dickson is properly listed on this card for enrollment.

It is ordered that copies of this statement be filed with and made a part of the record in this case:

Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

Thomas B. Dickson,

Chelsea, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decn. ____D____

Commissioner.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

this January 10, 1907.

Cherokee No. 5625.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 11, 1907.

Thomas B. Dickson,
Chelsoe, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

You are advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior, January 26, 1907.

Respectfully,

D

Commissioner.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 11, 1907.

W. W. Hastings,

Attorney for Cherokee Nation,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting the application for the enrollment of James Watson, et al., as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was affirmed by the Department, January 26, 1907.

For your information, there is enclosed herewith a copy of Departmental decision referred to.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
Chelsea, I.T. November 20th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF CLARA MAY WILKINSON FOR THE ENROLLMENT OF HERSELF AS A CHEROKEE CITIZEN.

The said Clara May Wilkinson, being sworn and examined by Commissioner C. R. Brookbridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name. A Clara May Wilkinson.

Q How old are you? A Seventeen.

Q What is your post office? A Coody's Bluff, Indian Territory.

Q In what district do you live? A Coowescoowee District.

Q For whom do you wish to apply? A Just myself.

Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Since 1864.

Q Give me the name of your father. A D. M. Flourney.

Q Is he dead? A No, sir.

Q Give me the name of your mother. A Anna.

Q Is she dead? A No, sir.

Q You have married have you? A Yes, sir.

Q To whom have you married? A Eugene Wilkinson.

Q When did you marry? A In 1899.

Q Have you a certificate of marriage? A Yes, sir.

THE COMMISSIONER: The applicant presents marriage license issued by the Clerk of the United States Court, Northern District Indian Territory, and a certificate in accordance therewith, showing that on the 24th of September, 1899 she was married as stated by her, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. J. E. Vick.

Q Your husband's full name is Eugene A. A Yes, sir.

THE COMMISSIONER: The applicant presents an official copy of the records of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship showing that on the 15th of September 1864, Clara Flourney was admitted to citizenship, her age at that time being one year.

Q That is your name, is it? A Yes, sir.

THE COMMISSIONER: This is identified as official evidence of the applicant's admission as stated, and the document is returned to her.

Q Now, you have lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since your admission in 1864? A Yes, sir.

1896 Roll, page 162, No. 1862, Clara Flourney, Coowescoowee District.

THE COMMISSIONER: The applicant is shown to have been admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship in 1864.
She has lived here ever since; she is identified on the roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee. The marriage license and certificate filed herewith establish her change of name, and she will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in this application for enrollment and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Cherokee, I. T., November 26, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Benjamin F. Shorten for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen; he being sworn by Commissioner O. B. Breckinridge, and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Benjamin F. Shorten.
Q How old are you? A 30.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Vinita.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Shawnee.
Q What degree of Shawnee blood do you claim? A About 3/4.
Q For whom do you make application? A Myself.
Q How long have you actually resided in the Cherokee Nation? A I can't hardly say; about eight years old when I came here.
Q Resided here continuously since that time? A No sir, I went to school in Kansas, five terms.
Q You never made your home in Kansas? A Before I came here I did.
Q After you came to the Cherokee Nation, after you were eight years of age? A No sir.
Q Have you been outside of the Cherokee Nation in the past three years for any purpose? A I have been out three or four different times.
Q For what purpose? A Working out.
Q How long were you gone at any one time? A Two or three months.
Q Where were you actually residing on the 26th of June, 1898? A Here in the territory.
Q You had previously removed to and settled in the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your father? A William Shorten.
Q Is your father living? A Yes sir.
Q Is he a Shawnee? A He's about a half.
Q What is the name of your mother? A Mary.
Q Is she living? A No sir.
Q Was she a Shawnee? A Yes, she was a full blood.
Q Does your name appear upon the roll of 1898? A I think it does.
Q What district were you living in at that time? A Shawnee dist.
Q What district were you living in in 1890? A Geowescoowee.
Q Where were you living in 1880; were you living in the Cherokee Nation? A No sir; I was going to school at that time.
Q After you came to the Cherokee Nation when you were eight years of age, did you ever remove to and make your home in any other state or territory? A No sir.
Q Always lived here and maintained your residence in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
1898 roll; page 518, 519, Benjamin Shorten, Geowescoowee.
Q For how many years did you go to school in Kansas? A Four or five terms.
Q Five months to a term? A Yes sir.
Q After you completed your education there at Kansas, did you come back to the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Lived here ever since that time? A Well, I have been out a time or two, just for a short time.
Q Been out to live? A No sir.
Q How old were you when you finished your school in Kansas? A About 19 or 20 I guess.
Q Had you reached your majority? A No sir.
Q Did you come to the Cherokee Nation when the Shawnees came here?
A Yes sir.
Q What was that? A I don't hardly remember that; it was along in '90 I guess.
Q You came here when you were about 8 years of age? A Yes sir, was there along there.

Commissioner-

The name of Benjamin F. Garrison appears upon the Census roll of 1880. His name also appears upon the register of names of the members of the Cherokee tribe of Indians who removed to and landed in the Cherokee Nation in accordance with article 24 of the Cherokee treaty with the United States, proclaimed Aug. 11, 1866. The applicant's name is not found upon the authenticated roll of 1880, but in the testimony he gives satisfactory reasons therefore, and satisfactory proof as to his actual residence in the Cherokee Nation. He avers that he was away at school when the roll of 1880 was compiled, and for that reason his name does not appear thereon. He is identified on the Census roll of 1880 as a Native Cherokee. The Commission being satisfied as to his residence in the Cherokee Nation, he will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen of Cherokee blood.

H.C. Rothenberger, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 20th day of November, 1900.

Commission-

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, and two children as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. He produces satisfactory proof as to his admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation on the 30th day of September, 1887, said proof being filed in the case of his father, Cherokee Card No. 5499. He avers that he has resided continuously in the Cherokee Nation since the date of his admission, with the exception of the past year, which he has been absent in Joplin, Mo., for the purpose of securing work. He avers that his family has not lived with him in the latter place, and that he has always maintained his residence here in the Cherokee Nation. He is identified on the Census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee, and the Commission being satisfied as to his actual residence in the Cherokee Nation, he will be listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood. His two children are identified on the Census roll of 1896 as native Cherokees. They have always resided in the Cherokee Nation and will be listed with their father for enrollment as citizens by blood. He avers that he was married to his wife 11 or 12 years ago, she being a white woman. She is identified on the Census roll of 1896 as the wife of the applicant, and as unmarried white. He does not produce any satisfactory proof as to his marriage. She will be listed for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation; but before her enrollment or the enrollment of her children become final, the applicant will be required to file either the original or a certified copy of the original records of his marriage, or being before the Commission no less than two witnesses who know that he was married to his present wife, and that he has lived with her continuously since that time as her husband.

H. C. Rothberger, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

Q Is she a white woman? A Yes, sir.
Q When were you married to her? A 1890, May 1st.
Q She's your first wife? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you her first husband? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you and your wife, Minnie, lived together since you were married? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you ever been separated? A Never have.
Q Are you living together now? A Yes, sir.
Q And you made your home in the Cherokee Nation ever since you were married? A Yes, sir.
Q You say your postoffice is Joplin, Missouri? A Yes, sir, my present address now is Joplin, yes, sir.
Q When did you go up there? A I work there; my family live in the Cherokee Nation, but I work at Joplin, as a day laborer.
Q But your home and legal residence is in the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes, sir, Chelsea.
Q You don't consider you have any legal home in Joplin? A I don't vote or hold office there.
Q You don't intend to hold office? A No, sir.
Q How many children have you by your wife, Minnie? A I have two.
Q Are they both living?

By Mr. Starr,

- Q How long have you been in Joplin? A I have been in Joplin about three years.
Q When did you first go there? A About May 24th last; May three years ago. About May 24th, I think, when I started.

Q Where were you living before you went to Joplin? A I lived in Chelsea, Indian Territory.

Q Do you know the exact time you first went to Joplin? A Sir?

Q Do you know the exact time you first went to Joplin? A About May 24th when I left Chelsea.

Q What year? A Well, you can count it back. It has been about three years ago, 1899.

Q Hasn't it been longer than that? A '99 and three make twelve, does not that make 1902?

Q You are sure you have not been there longer than that? You were not there in 1898? A I don't see how you make it.

Q You have been living in Chelsea, in the Cherokee Nation, ever since you married this woman until 1899? A Well, Chelsea has been my home but I have been working up there in Joplin for wages.

Q When did you first come to the Cherokee Nation? A In '87.

Q Where did you come to? A Where did I come to?

Q Where did you locate? A In Tahlequah.

Q How long did you stay there? A Six or seven months, then I went to Chelsea.

Q What were you doing up there? A In the mercantile business.

Q How long did you stay there? A I was in business there in '88. Of course, I don't know exactly what time; it was in the fall of '88, and in the early part of the spring I sold my interest to my father and went on a farm.

Q How long did you stay on the farm there? A I suppose it must have been a year or two; I don't know how long it was.

Q Where did you go from there? A I went into the mercantile business in Chelsea.

Q How long did you continue in the mercantile business in Chelsea?

A Well, then I went to clerking in my father's store about a year.

Q What did you do after that? A In '94, in March or April, I went back into business again myself.

Q How long did you stay in business for yourself? A I don't know just exactly; I did not stay in there only until just about December.

Q Then what did you commence doing? A Just whatever I could get to do for a living.

Q Where were you in '94? A Chelsea.

Q Where were you in '95? A Chelsea.

Q How about '96? A I was in Chelsea.

Q All the year? A Yes, sir.

Q How about '97? A I was in Chelsea.

Q How about '98? A I was in Chelsea.

Q All the year? A Yes, sir.

Q What did you do? A I was not in Chelsea all the time; I was at Oatoosa.

Q What did you do? A I was in the egg and poultry business. Then I went to Joplin to hunt work for the support of my family.

Q You're there now? A When I first went up there I was on the railroad and worked there a month or two, then the man I worked for run a grocery store in Joplin.

Q Where has your family been for the last two years or so? A Well, I worked there for a fellow about two years and he got broken up and he was not able to keep me so I went to the railroad company.

Q During the last three years you have been in Joplin, was your wife and children with you? A Not till last July. They moved up there the last of July.

Q Had not been there before? A My wife made one visit of about two or three days on a visit and went back.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Commission-

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and for the enrollment of his wife and seven children as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. He is identified upon the Census roll of 1896 as an adopted white. He produces satisfactory proof as to his marriage in accordance to the laws and customs of the Cherokee Nation on the 25th day of February, 1896. He has lived with his wife continuously since that time, and neither he nor she have ever been previously married. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation 14 years, and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by intermarriage. His wife is identified upon the authenticated roll of 1896 and the Census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation since the year 1876, and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood. His five eldest children are also identified upon the Census roll of 1896 as native Cherokees. Satisfactory proof as to their residence having been made, they will be listed with their mother for enrollment as Cherokee citizens by blood. When he files with the Commission properly executed affidavits as to the birth of his two youngest children, they likewise will be listed for enrollment as citizens by blood with their mother.

H. C. Rothberger, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 20th day of November, 1900.

Commissioner.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

this January 10, 1907.

Cherokee 5629

Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 7, 1902.

Thomas J. Simpson,

Chelsea, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:-

The Commission is in receipt of birth affidavit in the matter of the application for the enrollment, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, of your infant child, Francis A. Simpson, born September 5, 1902.

The affidavit is herewith returned to you and your attention is called to Sections 25 and 30 of the Cherokee Agreement proclaimed August 12, 1902, as follows:

"Sec. 25. The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

.....
Sec. 30. During the months of September and October, in the year nineteen hundred and two, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes may receive applications for enrollment of such infant children as may have been born to recognized and enrolled citizens of the Cherokee Nation on or before the first day of September, nineteen hundred and two, but the application of no person whatsoever for enrollment shall be received after the thirty-first day of October, nineteen hundred and two."

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Cherokee 5629

Maskogee, Indian Territory, March 9, 1907.

Thomas J. Simpson,

Chelsea, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

You are advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior, January 26, 1907.

Respectfully,

Commissioner

Commission-

The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself and three children as Cherokee citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of her husband as a citizen by intermarriage. She is identified on the authenticated roll of 1880, and the Census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood. Her two eldest children are also identified on the Census roll of 1896, and satisfactory proof as to their residence having been made, they will be listed with their mother as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and when she files with the Commission properly executed affidavits as to the birth of her youngest child, this child will also be listed with her for enrollment as a citizen by blood. Her husband is identified upon the Census roll of 1896 as an adopted white. She produces satisfactory proof of his marriage in accordance with the laws and customs of the Cherokee Nation on the 14th day of October, 1891. They have lived together continuously since that time. Neither were previously married. The applicant's husband has resided in the Cherokee Nation for eleven years, and he will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by intermarriage.

H. C. Rothenberger, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 20th day of November, 1900.

Dear Sir:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decn. D

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

commission. The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself, and five children as citizens of the Cherokee Nation by blood, and for the enrollment of her husband as a citizen by intermarriage; she is identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 and the census roll of 189 as a native Cherokee; she has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

Her four oldest children are identified upon the census roll of 1896 as native Cherokees; they will also be listed with their mother as citizens by blood of the Cherokee nation.

And when she files with the commission properly executed affidavits as to the birth of her youngest child, this child will likewise be enrolled with its mother as a Cherokee by blood.

Her husband is identified upon the census roll of 189 as an adopted white; she produces satisfactory proof as to her marriage to him in accordance with the laws and customs of the Cherokee Nation on the 8th day of January 1888; they have lived together continuously since that time. Neither the applicant nor her husband had ever been previously married; he will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by intermarriage.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
Chelsea I. T. November 20th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION FOR ENROLLMENT OF JENNIE HENRY AND HER CHILD AS CHEROKEE CITIZENS.

The said Jennie Henry being sworn and examined by Commissioner
Brekinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name please? A Jennie Henry.
Q How old are you? A I am thirty-five.
Q What is your postoffice? A My post office --- I am living here now. Chelsea.
Q You live in Cooweescoowee District do you? A Yes sir.
Q Who is it you want to enroll? A I want to enroll myself and my boy.
Q Yourself and one child? A Yes sir.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A No sir.
Q When were you married? A I was married in 1887.
Q To whom were you married? A I was married to Thomas Benton Henry.
Q Have you a certificate of your marriage? A Yes sir.
THE COMMISSIONER: The applicant presents a license authorizing marriage between Jennie H. Sprague and Thomas Benton Henry issued by the Judge of the Probate Court of Madison County, Alabama, on the 30th of June 1887, and the certificate shows that the ceremony was performed on the same date by the Rev. J. W. Newman. This is filed herewith.
Q Your husband Thomas B. Henry, is he living? A No sir, he is dead.
Q Was he a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q How long has he been dead? A He has been dead nine years.
Q Was he ever married except to you? A No sir.
Q Were you ever married except to him? A No sir.
Q You have not married since his death? A No sir.
Q Where have you and he lived since your marriage? A We lived in Tahlequah, and we lived in Alabama after his health failed. The doctor sent him back to Alabama.
Q You were married in Alabama in 1887? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you live at that time? A In Alabama at that time.
Q You continued to live in Alabama? A No sir, we came to the Cherokee Nation September 30th 1887.
THE COMMISSIONER: The applicant presents an official copy of the records of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship, showing that on September 30th 1887, Thomas Benton Henry was admitted to citizenship by the Commission as a Cherokee by blood. This is filed herewith.
Q He was admitted the same day he got married? A Yes sir.
Q How long did he continued to live in the Cherokee Nation? A Why he lived here until just about nine months before he died. He was in business in Tahlequah. We never lived any place but Tahlequah.
Q Why did he go, then to Alabama? A On account of his health failing him.
Q And he died there? A Yes sir.
Q Did he move there to make his home? A No sir he never moved at all.
Q He just went there to make a trip did he? A Yes sir.
Q Have you lived in Alabama since your husband died? A No sir;
I have not lived there at all since he died.
Q Where have you lived? A I have been teaching in Tennessee.
Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation since your husband died?
A Yes sir, I lived here until last year, about eighteen months ago then I accepted a position as nurse in the hospital at Jackson, Tennessee.
Q You lived here from the time of your husband's death until eighteen months ago, did you? A Yes sir.
Q And for the last year and a half you have been living in Tennesse-ee? Yes sir.

Jennie Henry et al - 2 -

Q Do you consider that you are making your home there? A No sir, my things are all here, what was left after the fire. I was burned out twice in Tahlequah. What is left I left there, but my father-in-law is living here and I am with him.

Q You consider yourself just temporarily employed in Tennessee? A Oh yes. I may have to go somewhere else.

Q Give me the name of your child? A Joseph James Henry.

Q How old is he? A He is eleven years old.

Q He is alive now is he? A Yes sir.

Q Where is he now? A He is over there? (indicating)

Q He is alive, is he? A Yes sir.

Q He was born here, was he? A No sir, he was born in St. Louis.

Q Did he live here up to the time that his father went back on a visit to Alabama? A Yes sir, you know he was a year old when he was admitted.

Q He was'nt a year old when your husband was admitted?

A I say he was a year old when he was admitted.

Q You mean when he was enrolled? A Yes sir, I mean when he was enrolled.

Q I was just asking you about where he lived? A He lived with me all the time.

Q He is here when you are? A Yes sir, He has been going to school here at the Presbyterian Mission.

1896 roll, page 180, No 2344, Joseph J. Henry, Cooweescoowee Dist.

Q Were'nt you put on the census roll of 1896? A I dont know.

Q Where were you four years ago when the census roll was made?

A I was in Tahlequah, and I came up to Claremore.

Q Have you staid continuously in the Cherokee Nation from the time your husband died until a year and a half ago? A No sir; I could'n stay here continuously, not the year round.

Q Were you a part of every year here? A Yes sir, but I had to make a living for myself and the boy.

Q Your work was in Alabama, was it? A No sir.

Q After your husband died ---I am not talking about the time your husband was alive. I am talking about after the death of your husband. A Yes sir.

Q Where have you lived after the death of your husband? A I have considered Tahlequah my home and Chelsea.

Q Where have you spent your time? A Well I can't say, because I have been here and there. I think though it is about equal.

Q You stated that you had been living here after the death of your husband until a year and a half ago? A Yes sir, I did'nt live here continuously.

Q Where were you working? A I worked in Tennessee. I first taught school there and then I took a position as nurse in the hospital. Whenever my time is mine I come to the Cherokee Nation.

Q Now, you did'nt begin your work in Tennessee just a year and a half ago? A No sir.

Q Have you done any work in the Cherokee Nation since your husband died? A Yes sir, I dressmaked in Tahlequah for over a year and a half and I got burned out.

Q Then what did you do? A Then I went back to the hospital at Tennessee.

Q To nurse? A Yes sir. And then I came back here last January to my father-in-laws, and I staid here until in the spring, when my health gave out and I had to go back.

Q Has'nt your work all been outside of the Cherokee Nation since you were burned out at Tahlequah? A No sir, I have not worked at all, since I was burned out.

Q Have'nt worked where? A Nowheres in the States or in the Nation.

Q You just told me you have been in Tennessee in the hospital there

A No sir, I was studying for a certificate. I was there past time ----

Q (interrupting) Your husband died nine years ago? How have you lived and where have you lived from that time? A I have lived on my own means until the past two years.

Q Where have you lived? A In Tahlequah and in Chelsea.

Q You told me you had been a good part of the time in Alabama and Tennessee. A I say it is not continuously there; my health wont permit it. I have to follow the doctor's recommendation.

Q Why are you not on the roll of 1896? A Why I dont know. Mr LeMay said we were there. We went on the 1900 roll and on the 1896 roll.

Q You give me conflicting testimony in regard to your actual residence. A Yes, I did'nt live continuously anywhere. I cant do it, my health is not such that it will permit it.

Q You told me a while ago that you left here a year and a half ago to take hospital work in Tennessee? A Yes sir.

Q And then you afterwards told me that previously you had done hospital work in Tennessee? A Yes sir, I have done hospital work in the last year and a half. I have been studying to get my certificate as a trained nurse for the past year and a half, but I was'nt there all the time. I was from the last of January up to this time I was here in Chelsea.

Q I wish you would tell me in a plain simple way just what you have done since your husband died? Possibly you dont hear very well. A I dont hear very well. I am very deaf. That is a great drawback.

Q I want to know what you have done and where you have lived since your husband died. A Well my husband lived here.

Q Now tell me where you lived. You tell me everything except what I ask you. Tell me now what I ask you to tell me. You have told me everything else. A Well I told you I have lived part of the time in Tahlequah.

Q What part of the time? You are indefinite. A I have lived in Tahlequah in 1887, 1888 and part of 1900, and Mr. Henry Died.

Q In 1887, 1888 and part of 1900? A Yes sir.

Q Your husband died ~~nine~~ nine years ago? A Yes sir, I know. I have been in the territory since he died.

Q You dont pay any attention to what I ask you. I ask you to begin nine years ago and you begin fourteen years ago. Now what is the use of my asking you any more questions. A I did'nt live here after my husband died ---the first year after my husband died I lived in Tahlequah, but I did'nt do any work -----

Q (interrupting) I did'nt ask you that.

A Did'nt you ask me where I lived?

Q Yes ma'am, you are not telling me. A I t old you I lived in Tahlequah part of the time, but I lived nowhere continuously.

Q Your husband died nine years ago? A Yes sir.

Q He died in Alabama? A Yes sir.

Q When did you first come back to the Cherokee Nation after he died? A I came back to the Cherokee Nation in 1890.

Q How long did you continue to live in the Cherokee Nation? A A year and a half in Tahlequah.

Q Did you stay steadily in Tahlequah a year and a half? A yes sir

Q Then where did you go? A Then I went back to the States in Tennessee.

Q And how long did you stay there? A I staid there until--- I staid there in the states until 1896.

Q Then you staid in the states from 1892 to 1896? A Yes sir.

Q And then where did you go? A Came back to Tahlequah.

Q And how long did you stay there? A I staid here until 1897.

Q And then where did you go? A Then I went to the states to the hospital?

Q To do work? A To be treated there first.

Q You went there in 1897? A Yes sir.

Q And how long did you stay there? A I staid there until last January.

Q Until January of the present year? A Yes sir.

Q What hospital? A At the sanitarium.

Q Where is that? A Jackson, Tenn.

Q You were there from 1897 until last January of the present year,

A Yes sir.

Q And that embraced the better part of the period of work that you speak of? A Yes sir.

THE COMMISSIONER: The applicant applies for herself and her child. She is shown to have been married to her deceased husband in 1887. She states that she lived with him until the time of his death, and that he lived in the Cherokee Nation from the time of his admission as set forth in the testimony in 1887, until within a few months of his death. He died some nine years ago. She states that she has not remarried since his death. She is not identified on the roll of 1896. She states that she returned to the Cherokee Nation after the death of her husband in the year 1890, and that after living here a year and a half she then, say in the year 1892, went to the states, and there lived until 1896, when she returned to the Cherokee Nation and staid until 1897, when she again returned to the states and staid until January of this year. It seems that she has in no practical sense, maintained a home in the Cherokee Nation as required by the law, but her application will be placed upon a Doubtful card for further consideration. Her child is identified upon the roll of 1896. He is still a minor; he is living at this time, and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

The undersigned being sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in this application for enrollment and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

The Commissioner: The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself and one child. She is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee. Her change of name arising from her marriage is established by her own and her husband's testimony. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. Her child of her former marriage is identified on the roll of 1896. She is living now, and this child Madeline Matthews, will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

JOHN H. KENDALL, heretofore sworn, stating to the Commission that he desired to make application for himself, was examined by Commissioner E. R. Breckinridge, and testified as follows:

- Q Now you wish in the course of this application to apply for yourself, to apply for your own enrollment? A Yes sir.
Q Well, we will take it then in connection with your wife's application. How old are you? A Fifty seven.
Q You have the same post office address that your wife has given for herself? A Yes sir.
THE COMMISSIONER: The applicant presents an official copy of the records of Cooweescoowee district, showing that on the 11th of October 1886, he was married to Teulah Baynton. The Cherokee license and certificate are filed herewith.
Q That was your first wife? A Yes sir.
Q You never married until you married that woman? A Yes sir, I was married in the states before that.
Q How often were you married before you married your wife Teulah?
A Twice before.
Q What was the name of your first wife? A Stella Dufour.
Q Where did you marry her? A In Cincinnati, Ohio.
Q What was the name of your second wife? A Carrie M. Litbury.
Q Where did you marry her? A In Cincinnati.
Q When did you marry your first wife? A In 1864.
Q Did you live with her until she died? A Yes sir.
Q When did she die? A She died in 1865.
Q When did you marry your second wife, Carrie? A In 1872.
Q Did you live with her until she died? A Yes sir.
Q When did she die? A In 1878.
Q And then what was your next marriage? A Teulu Boynton.
Q And your wife Teula Boynton, was she a native Cherokee? A Yes sir.
Q She lived here all her life, did she? A She was born here. She didn't live here all her life.
Q Was she admitted to citizenship by the Commission on Citizenship?
A Through her mother.
Q When was she admitted? A In 1884.
Q You have not the certificate of admission? A No sir.
Q Was her name Boynton at that time? A Yes sir.

Q What was the name of her former husband? A Harvey Spencer.
Q When did she marry Harvey Spencer? A Well, I can't say just exactly.

- Q When did she marry Harvey Spencer? A Well I cant say just exactly.
- Q Was she divorced from him? A Yes sir.
- Q When was she divorced from him? A She was divorced from him in 1884.
- Q You are certain she was never married except to Harvey Spencer before she was married to you? A Yes sir.
- Q And that she was divorced from him in 1884? A Yes sir.
- Q Under what name was she admitted to citizenship in 1884? A Boynton, I think.
- Q Give me the name of her father? A Byron Boynton.
- Q Is he dead? A Yes sir.
- Q The name of her mother? A Narcissa Boynton.
- Q Is she dead? A No sir.
- Q Is she a Cherokee? A Yes sir.
- Q By blood? A Yes sir.
- Q When did your wife Teula Boynton die? A She is not dead.
- Q You and she separated? A Yes sir.
- Q When did you separate from her? A In 1890.
- Q Well, we were never divorced in the Cherokee Courts.
- Q Were you ever divorced in any court? A She went to Little Rock and was divorced there.
- Q Did you get or have you a copy of the decree of divorce?
- A I have not sir.
- Q When did she get her divorce? Do you know when it was?
- A Well I think I have the date here that the decree was granted, if I am not mistaken. There was the letter that I got in regard to it (Hands Commissioner letter)
- Q You have not got a copy of the decree? A No sir, I never got a copy of the decree.
- Q But you were informed by communication from the Clerk of the Chancery Court of Pulaski County Arkansas, in April 1892, that she was divorced? A Yes sir.
- Q You have no copy of the decree of your wife Teula's divorce from Harvey Spencer? A No sir. No sir. I was married to this Teula Boynton in the State of Arkansas and remarried according to the laws of the Cherokee Nation in this country.
- Q How did Teula Boynton register in 1896? A As Teula Boynton or Teula Morris. She married a man named Morris after leaving me. She married him in Little Rock.
- Q What was Morris' name? A John.
- 1896 roll page 218 No 3386 Lula Morris, Cooweescoowee District.
- Q Where does your former wife Teula Boynton live at this time?
- A Here in Cooweescoowee District.
- Q Where has she made her home from the time of her alleged admission to citizenship in 1884? A Why we resided here in the Cherokee Nation. I married her in 1884 in Little Rock and we remained in 1886 in the Cherokee Nation. We resided from 1886 to 1890 here, and then she left me and went back to Little Rock.
- Q You and she lived together from the time you say she was admitted to citizenship until she left you? Yes sir.
- Q How old is your former wife Teula Boynton? A I think she must be 37.
- Q Wasnt she applied for enrollment under her present name? What is her present name? A Smith.
- Q Teula Smith? A Yes sir.
- Q That is her present name? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you ever apply to the Dawes Commission for enrollment?
- A They wouldnt enroll me in 1896. I dont know what they did.
- Q What was the occasion of this separation between you and your wife Teula? A Well, I dont want to talk about it, it was sufficient that she got up and left and went to the states and left me here.
- Q And she procured a divorce? A Yes sir; in Arkansas, and I was here in Muskogee.
- Q You are of course familiar with the Cherokee law in regard to the effect upon citizenship by abandonment? A Yes sir, certainly, there was no cause on my part for abandonment even in part. At least I have been living here and been recognized as a citizen all along.

~~Stumpaker~~

Q Did she abandon you or you abandon her? A She abandoned me.

Q And how did she get her divorce over in Arkansas, by a non-appearance on your part. A I couldnt tell you.

THE COMMISSIONER:

As a supplemental decision it is now stated that the applicants husband participates in the proceeding and gives testimony in regard to his own enrollment. He has presented and filed herewith sufficient evidence of his marriage, in accordance with Cherokee law, to one Teula Boynton, who he states was admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee Commission in 1884. He presents no evidence of that admission, and he is required to supply the Commission with official evidence of the admission of that wife to citizenship as stated. She is identified on the roll of 1896. The applicant states that he twice previously married, both of said wives having died before he married Teula Boynton. He further states that he was divorced from Teula Boynton, they having separated in 1890, and the divorce being obtained in 1892. He is required to present to the Commission a copy of the decree of divorce. At present it appears that the decree was granted to her, the applicant simply entering a denial of any misconduct on his part justifying the decree. He also states that his former wife Teula Boynton, was previously married to one Harvey Spencer, from whom she is said to have been divorced in 1884. The applicant is required to supply the Commission with a copy of the decree of that divorce to establish that she was in lawful attitude to marry him at the time of their marriage.

The applicant is not identified upon the roll of 1896. His present wife being a Cherokee by blood, his marriage to her would not invalidate any claims that he may be able to substantiate from his former marriage. He will now be listed as a Cherokee by intermarriage upon a doubtful card to await the evidence enumerated in the decision.

(Examination of Mr. John H. Kendall by Mr. Joel L. Baugh, Cherokee Representative.)

Q Where was your wife Teula Boynton living when she married her former husband? A In Little Rock.

Q Did she live there until she separated from him? A Yes sir.

Q Then you married her in Little Rock? A Yes sir.

Q When you came to this country did you or she go to the Cherokee National Council or any proper authority and ask for admission to citizenship? A She did'nt think it was necessary Mr. Baugh.

Q I asked if you did'nt do it, that is all. You did'nt do it?

A No sir, we thought the old lady admitted the two girls at the time she was admitted.

Q She was of age at the time, though? A Yes sir.

Mr. Baugh: (Now I feel it my duty to protest.

Comes now the Cherokee Nation through its attorneys, and protests against the enrollment of the applicant John H. Kendall on the ground that he is not a citizen by intermarriage, having married his former wife who was a citizen of the State of Arkansas, and she did not avail herself of Section 2 of Article 1 of the Constitution of the Cherokee Nation by asking the Cherokee National Council, or some of the Cherokee authorities for admission to citizenship.

THE COMMISSIONER: Attention is called to the fact that in the supplemental testimony of John H. Kendall he has now defined the claim that his wife was admitted to citizenship to be through the admission of her mother, and not by any certificate including her own name in terms. It appears further from the testimony that his wife Teula Boynton was at the time of the alleged admission of her mother, of age; that she was not living in the Cherokee Nation, but was married and living, or had been married and had been living, in the State of Arkansas. There is therefore no ground whatever to claim citizenship for Teula Boynton through the admission of her mother on the evidence as here given. Therefore, the application for the enrollment of John H. Kendall is rejected, and it will not be required of him to produce the papers named in the previous decision placing his name upon a doubtful card.

Mollie Jane Kendall - 3 -

The undersigned being sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in this application for enrollment and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

-----oOo-----

In the matter of the date of death of Mollie J. Kendall, Cherokee card No. 5634, Roll No. 13529.

Testimony of Maud Helms taken at her home about two miles east of Chelsea, Oklahoma, November 5th, 1909. Sworn by A. G. Mc-Millan, Deputy Clerk, United States District Court, Eastern District of Oklahoma.

Examination on behalf of Commissioner:

- Q What is your name? A Maud Helms.
- Q How old are you? A Thirty-six.
- Q What is your post office address? A Chelsea.
- Q What is the name of your husband? A Felix.
- Q Is he a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
- Q What was the name of his first wife? A Ida.
- Q Did they have a daughter named Mollie? A Yes sir, that's Mollie Kendall; she first married Matthews and then she married Kendall just a short time before she died.
- Q When did Mollie Kendall die? A I am not certain, but I believe it was the 17th of April, and he (Mr. Helms) has no papers about her whatever relating to her death, but I think it was the 17th day of April, eight years ago last April. She died on her birthday.
- Q How long have you and Felix Helms been married? A Nine years last September. Just a year difference in mine and his daughter's age; I am just a year the eldest.
- Q You were married in September, 1900? A Yes sir, we were married in September and she died the next April. She just had one child and we have her.
- Q What is that child's name? A Madeline Matthews.
- Q Is the father of that child living? A We don't know. He went away when she was just a little thing and never did hear of him.
- Q The child, Madeline Matthews, has made her home with you ever since her mother Mollie died, has she? A Yes sir.
- Q Has there been any guardian appointed for this child? A Her Grandpa is guardian. He took out guardian papers just a short time after he taken her, for he couldn't file without guardian papers.
- Q Where was Mollie Kendall buried? A At the Chelsea graveyard.
- Q Is there a tombstone at her grave? A Yes sir.
- Q Where did she die? A Well, I don't know just how far it is, but it must be about between six and eight miles southeast of Chelsea.
- Q Were you there when she died? A Yes sir, we got the notice on Saturday that she wasn't expected to live and we went down on Sunday and she died Wednesday and was buried Thursday.

- Q You were living in Chelsea then were you? A No sir, we was living on our farm out west of Chelsea at that time.
- Q How do you remember the date of her death? A I know just exactly the day we were married, and I know she died the next April after we were married in September, and I wouldn't have remembered anything about the date if it had not been on her birthday--it was the 17th. I know the number of years for I know just when we were married.
- Q And it has been eight years last April since she died you say?
- A Yes sir. It might have been the 16th or 18th, but I think it was the 17th she died as well as I remember.

Same place and date as above. Felix Helms sworn by A. G. McMillan, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Felix Helms.
- Q How old are you? A Fifty-six.
- Q What is your post office address? A Chelsea.
- Q You are a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
- Q What is the name of your present wife? A Maud.
- Q What was the name of your first wife? A Ida.
- Q Did you have a daughter named Mollie J., by your wife Ida?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Who did Mollie marry? A She married a fellow by the name of Matthews, a doctor, and then he left and she married Jack Kendall.
- Q Mollie is dead? A Yes sir.
- Q Where did she die? A She died down here on Pryor Creek about six or seven miles southeast of here.
- Q When did she die? A She died in April, 1901, as well as I remember.
- Q Do you know the day? A 17th.
- Q Was that her birthday? A No, her birthday was the 18th.
- Q Where were you living at the time she died? A I was living over here about a mile north and two miles west of town.
- Q Were you at your daughter's house when she died? A Yes sir.
- Q How do you remember the date of her death; did you set it down?
- A No, I never set it down at all, but I just remember it by her birthday; her birthday was the 18th of April. She was born the 18th day of April, 1875.
- Q Where was she buried? A At Chelsea.
- Q Are you the guardian for Mollie's child Madeline? A Yes sir.

Statement by A. G. McMillan:

On November 8, 1909, I went to the Chelsea cemetery and found a tombstone on which was the following:

"Mary J. wife of Jack Kindle Born Apr. 18, 1875 Died Apr. 17, 1901"

Mellie J. Kendall case 3

Albert G. McMillan, being first duly sworn, states that the above and foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes taken in the above entitled cause.

Muskogee, Oklahoma, March 2, 1910.

SUBJECT:
In the matter of the enrollment of Mollie
J. Kendall, Cherokee.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to bring to the attention of the Department the case of Mollie J. Kendall, a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, enrolled opposite No. 13529.

No application to select an allotment of land for this citizen having been received at this office, an investigation was begun to determine whether she was living and, if not, the date of her death. On November 5, 1909, Maud Helms, step-mother of Mollie J. Kendall, testified that this citizen died on April 17th, 1901. Felix Helms, father of Mollie J. Kendall, also testified as to this date, and stated further that same appeared on the tombstone at her grave, and an examination of the tombstone in question corroborated these statements.

On January 24, 1910, Felix Helms, father of Mollie J. Kendall, was notified by registered mail of the information secured by this office relative to the date of the death of Mollie J. Kendall and of the provisions of Section 31 of the Act of Congress of July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., L. 716), that no person, whose name was on the roll of Cherokee citizens and who died prior to September 1, 1902, was entitled to an allotment of land or other tribal property, and that he might appear within a stipulated time to show cause why recommendation should not be made to the Department that a notation should be placed on the roll, showing that the said Mollie J. Kendall was not entitled to participate in the distribution of the tribal property of the Cherokee Nation. This notice was received, as evidenced by the return of the registry receipt properly signed, but no appearance has been made.

I am of the opinion that the evidence secured by this office clearly shows that Mollie J. Kendall died prior to September 1, 1902, and I have the honor to recommend that the following notation be placed on all copies of the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, opposite No. 13529:

"Died prior to September 1, 1902; not entitled to land or money."

Copies of the record, pertaining to the death of this citizen, are enclosed herewith.

Respectfully,

WSDM(CM)
Enc. 2-2

Through Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Acting Commissioner.

Enrollment case of Molly J. Kendall.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report of March 2, 1910, from the Acting Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, relative to the death of Molly J. Kendall, whose name appears opposite No. 13529 on the final approved roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

It appears from the inclosed papers that the above mentioned person died prior to September 1, 1902. Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. L. 716), provides that no allotment of land or other tribal property shall be made to any person or to the heirs of any person whose name is on the Cherokee roll and who died prior to September 1, 1902. It is therefore recommended that opposite the name of Molly J. Kendall, on the above mentioned roll, there be placed the notation.

"Died prior to September 1, 1902; not entitled to land or money."

and that this Office and the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes be authorized to make a similar notation on the copies of the rolls in their possession.

Very respectfully,

(Stamped) (SIGNED) R.G. VALENTINE,
Commissioner.

Approved: Mar. 15, 1910

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, wife and three children. He is identified on the roll of 1899 and 1900 as a native Cherokee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life and will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. He states that he and his wife were married in 1893, and that they have lived in the Cherokee Nation as husband and wife ever since. He is identified with him and their children on the roll of 1900. He is a white woman. He states that she was married once before but was single to him but that her first husband was dead that the time of their own marriage. He also states that in the marriage taken by him he married this wife that his first wife died prior to his marriage to his present wife, but that his second wife and he had separated. He states that he was divorced in 1898 but he ~~is~~ is not able at present to supply the Commission with a copy of the decree of divorce. Awaiting this evidence, the application for his wife will be placed on a doubtful card, she being classed as a Cherokee by adoption. The children named in the testimony claim through the legality of their mother's marriage. The oldest, Guy, will be listed ~~as a Cherokee~~ as a Cherokee by blood, but on a doubtful card to await evidence as to his father's divorce from his second wife. When certificates of birth as to the two youngest children, Anna and Mary E. are supplied to the Commission they also will be listed on a doubtful card as Cherokees by blood to await the evidence stated above.

Chas. von Weise being sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all the proceedings in the above entitled case and that he foregoing is a full true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes herein.

In the matter of the application of JOHN G. BUTLER, for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and his children, John W., Nellie O., Robert R., Mary U. B. and Joseph B. Butler, and his grand-daughter Charlotte C. Gasaway, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation:

JOHN G. BUTLER, called as a witness, being duly sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name ? A J. G. Butler; they have got it down there as John G. Butler.
- Q What is your age at this time ? A I will be 61 in December.
- Q What is your post office address ? A Chelsea.
- Q Are you the same John G. Butler for whom application was made to this Commission for enrollment as an intermarried citizen on November 20, 1900 ? A Yes sir.
- Q What was your Cherokee wife's name ? A Callie Agnew. That was her maiden name; she was the widow Jennings when I married her.
- Q Is she living or dead ? A She's dead.
- Q When were you and she married ? A In 1879.
- Q Were you ever married prior to your marriage to her ? A No sir.
- Q Was she ever married prior to her marriage to you ? A Yes sir, married to Jennings.
- Q Was he living or dead when you married her ? A He was killed by a negro at Coffeyville.
- Q Before you married her ? A Yessir.
- Q You are her second husband ? A Yes sir.
- Q And she is your first wife ? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you and she live together continuously from the time of your marriage up to her death ? A Yes sir.
- Q Have you ever married any other woman since her death ? A No sir.
- Q You were still single and a widower on September 1, 1902 ? A Yes sir.
- Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation ? A I came here in 1869.
- Q Have you lived all the time in the Cherokee Nation since 1880 ? A Yes sir. All the time. Well I haven't been exactly either; I worked two years--that is three months at a time, in the State, and would come back to the Nation; my farm was here.
- Q You never moved your family out ? A No sir.
- Q Was that before or since 1880 ? A It was since 1880.
- Q About when was it ? A In 1882 I went to Joplin and worked in the mines.
- Q Was that the first time ? A Yes sir.
- Q How long did you stay ? A Three months. Then I come back.
- Q To the Cherokee Nation ? A Yes sir.
- Q When you were out in 1882 where was your family ? A In the Cherokee Nation.
- Q You and your wife were not separated during that time ? A No sir.
- Q When was the next time you went out ? A I don't recollect; a year or two after that though.
- Q How long did you stay the second time ? A About four months.
- Q Where did you go then ? A To Galena.
- Q Where were your wife and family when you were gone that time ? A In the Delaware District.

- Q How long did you stay that time? A Four months.
Q Did you come back? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you go then? A Went to Vinita.
Q Are those two trips the only times you have been out of the Indian Territory? A Yes sir.
Q You didn't move your family then? A No sir.
Q Is John W. Butler your son by your Cherokee wife? A Yes sir.
Q Has John W. lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life?
A Yes sir.
Q Nellie O., Robert H., Mary E. and Joseph B., are they your children by your Cherokee wife? A Yes sir.
Q And have they always lived in the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes sir.
Q Who is Charlotte C. Gasaway? A That's my daughter's child.
Q Which one of your daughters is the mother of that child?
A Nellie Ora Butler. She is the one that had so much trouble about annulling.
Q Has she married since her application was made? A Yes sir.
Q What is her husband's name? A James Gasaway.
Q Did you see the marriage? A No sir I was sick and didn't go, but my son John W., went.
Q Charlotte C. Gasaway is your grand-daughter?
A Yes sir.
Q The child of Nellie O.? A Yes sir.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

February 14, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

On January 19, 1907, the Office transmitted the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes relative to applications for the enrollment of Frank Howard, et al, as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The decision includes the applications of seventy-two persons found by the Commissioner to be not entitled to enrollment under the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the Case of Daniel Red Bird, et al, against the United States.

It appears from the record in the case that the names of all the applicants are found on the authenticated 1866 roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and the Office in transmitting the record did not consider this phase of the case. On January 31, the Department was requested to return the record in the case for further consideration by the Office. It was returned with Department letter of February 6, 1907, L. I. B. 1396.

With reference to the names of these applicants being on the 1880 roll Mr. Birby says:

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That the names of said persons appear upon the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880; that they possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875.

As the applicants were not married to citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with the laws, usages and customs of the tribes prior to November 1, 1875, they are not entitled to enrollment, unless it be by virtue of their names being on the 1880 roll. By the provisions of section 21 of the Act of June 28, 1898 (30 Stat.L., 495), the roll of Cherokee citizens of 1880, not including freedmen, is confirmed, and the Commission is directed to enroll all persons whose names are found on that roll and their descendants born since the date of the roll. It is then provided that other rolls shall be examined and that the names of all persons found on the other rolls not placed thereon by fraud or without authority of law shall be enrolled.

The only question in the case seems to be whether a confirmation of this roll by Congress entitled a person whose name appears on said roll to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation who would not otherwise be entitled to such enrollment.

The Supreme Court in the case of Hefire vs. the United States (144 U.S., 657), said:

(Syllabus)

The fact that a marriage license has been issued carries with a presumption that all statutory prerequisites thereto have been complied with, and one who claims to the contrary must affirmatively show the fact.

The evidence shows that the deceased sought, in his lifetime to become a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, took all the steps he supposed necessary therefor, considered himself a citizen, and that the Cherokee Nation, in his lifetime, recognized him as a citizen and still asserts his citizenship. Held, that, under these circumstances, it must be adjudged that he was a citizen by adoption, and consequently that the jurisdiction over the offence charged is, by the laws of the United States and treaties with the Cherokee Nation, vested in the courts of that Nation.

In the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al, vs. the United States the Supreme Court said:

The roll of 1880, made by the Cherokees, was a census roll, and its confirmation was not intended to create any rights which citizens of the Cherokee Nation had not before enjoyed, but merely to furnish the basis for making up the roll of citizens. Section 21 was in reality a statement that no previous act of Congress was intended to confirm any other roll of the Cherokee Nation.....

Section 31 of the Act of July 1, 1902, says that no person whose name does not appear on the roll made by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes "shall be entitled to in any manner participate in the distribution of the common property of the Cherokee tribe, and those whose names appear thereon shall participate in the manner set forth in this act." In other words, the roll must be made up of citizens who under the laws of the Cherokee Nation were entitled to participation in the distribution of the common property of the Cherokee tribes.

The concluding words of section 21, "with such intermarried white persons as may be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws," emphatically indicates that Congress had the Indian citizen in mind in all that went before and limited enrollment of white persons to such as might be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws.

From the foregoing quotations it is evident that the Supreme Court makes a distinction between citizens having political rights only and those having all rights, including the right to share in the distribution of the land and other property of the Cherokee Nation. This being true, it is evident that Congress did not intend that any person should be given the right to share in the property of the Cherokee Nation simply because his name was on some roll of the Nation that had been confirmed by Congressional action unless it is there as a full citizen and not as a citizen with political rights only.

The Office is of the Opinion that the persons whose names appear in the record enclosed are not entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and the approval of the Commissioner's adverse decision is recommended.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,
Acting Commissioner.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Sir:

On February 14, 1907 (Land 12493), the Indian Office transmitted your report dated January 10, 1907, in the matter of the applications for the enrollment of Frank Howard and seventy-two others as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, together with your decision, adverse to said applicants.

The Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

It appears that the names of said persons appear upon the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880 and that they possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875.

In view of the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States dated November 5, 1906, in the case of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, it is considered that your decision, adverse to these persons, is correct, and it is hereby affirmed.

The papers in the case and a carbon copy hereof have been sent to the Indian Office.

Commission: The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself and four children as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and for the enrollment of her husband as an intermarried citizen; she is found upon the authenticated roll of 1880 and the census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee; she has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood;

Her two oldest children are identified upon the census roll of 1896 as native Cherokees; their residence has been established to the satisfaction of the Commission, and they will likewise be enrolled with their mother as citizens by blood, and when she files with the Commission properly executed affidavits as to the birth of the two younger children, their names not being found upon the census roll of 1896, they also will be listed for enrollment with their mother as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

Her husband is identified upon the census roll of 1896 as an adopted white man; she produces satisfactory proof as to her marriage to him in 1892 in accordance with the laws and customs of the Cherokee Nation; they have lived together continuously since that time; she avers that neither she nor her husband were ever married previously; he will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by intermarriage.

M. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

this January 10, 1907.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 9, 1907.

John Heape,

~~Admiral~~, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

You are advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior, January 26, 1907.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

Cherokee
et al.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 9, 1907.

W. W. Hastings,

Attorney for the Cherokee Nation,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10,
1907, rejecting the application for the enrollment of James
Watson, et al., as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee
Nation was affirmed by the Department January 26, 1907.

For your information there is enclosed herewith a copy of departmental decision referred to.

Respectfully,

Encl. 11-100.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Chelsea, I.T., November 20, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Frederick Hall for the enrollment of himself and children as Cherokees by blood and his wife as a Cherokee by intermarriage; he appearing before the Commission, and being sworn and examined, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Frederick Hall.
- Q How old are you? A 26.
- Q What is your post office address? A Vera.
- Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
- Q What degree of Cherokee blood do you claim? A I think about 1/16.
- Q For whom do you make application, who do you want to have enrolled? A My family.
- Q What does your family consist of, yourself, wife and how many children? A Three children.
- Q How long have you actually resided in the Cherokee Nation? A Ten or fifteen years, most all my life.
- Q Have you been outside the Cherokee Nation within the past three years? A No, sir.
- Q When was the last time you were out of the Cherokee Nation, how long ago had that been? A I went out on a visit about five years ago.
- Q How long did you stay? A About a week I guess.
- Q What is the name of your father? A H. H. Hall.
- Q Is your father living? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is he a Cherokee by blood? A No, sir.
- Q What is the name of your mother? A Martha Hall.
- Q Is your mother living? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is she a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.
- Q Are you married? A Yes, sir.
- Q What is your wife's name? A Katie E. Hall.
- Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.
- Q How old is she? A About 22.
- Q Is she a white woman or a Cherokee? A She is a white woman.
- Q What is the name of her father? A Burgins.
- Q Is he living? A Yes, sir.
- Q What is the name of her mother? A Mary Jane I think.
- Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.
- Q Were your wife's parents ever recognized as citizens of the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir.
- Q Give me the name of your oldest child? A Martha May.
- Q How old is she? A She will be 4 years old in February.
- Q The next child? A William Newton, 22 months old.
- Q Is that all the children? A No, sir.
- Q What is the name of the next one? A Arthur Lee, 8 ~~year~~ months old.
- Q These children are all alive and living with you at the present time? A Yes, sir.
- Q You are the father of all the children? A Yes, sir.
- Q Your wife is the mother? A Yes, sir.
- Q When were you married? A It will be four years ago the 11th of March.
- Q Have you any evidence of your marriage? A Yes, sir.
- (The applicant presents a marriage certificate showing that he was married to Katie E. Burgin on the 11th day of March, 1896, by Robert E. Long, a minister of the Gospel. The license and certificate are filed herewith.)
- Q What is your mother's name now? A Her name is Martha Hall.
- Q Is she enrolled under that name? A I reckon so.
- Q Has she ever been married since she married your father? A No, sir; they have all enrolled but me.
- Q Have you lived with your wife continuously since you were married in 1896? A Yes, sir, since I married.
- Q Living with her now? A Yes, sir.
- Q Were you ever married before? A No, sir.

Frederick Hall - 2.

Q Was she? A No, sir.

Q Were you or your parents ever admitted to citizenship by an act of the Cherokee National Council or the Commission on Citizenship?

A Yes, sir.

(The applicant presents a certificate of admission to Cherokee citizenship, issued on the 28th day of September, 1888, signed by J. T. Adair Chairman of the Commission on Citizenship, attested by Henry Biffert, Clerk of the Commission on Citizenship, approved and endorsed by D. W. Bushyhead, Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation. The document bears the seal of the Cherokee Nation. Various parties were admitted to citizenship at that time, among whom appears the name of one Frederick Hall, male, age 13 years.)

Q Are you the identical Frederick Hall whose name is mentioned in this document? A Yes, sir.

(The document and certificate are filed herewith.)

Q Where were you living when you were admitted to citizenship?

A Living in the Delaware district.

✓ Q Have you resided in the Cherokee Nation continuously since that time? A Yes, sir.

(Frederick Hall on 1896 roll, page 185, No. 2492, Cooweescoowee district. Katie Hall on 1896 roll, page 309, No. 409, Katie Hall, Cooweescoowee district.)

Q What was your mother's name before she was married to Hall?

A Childers, I think, if I am not mistaken.

Mr. Gale Starr, representative of Cherokee Nation: What was your grandmother's name on your mother's side? A Her name was Childers first and her last name was Paris.

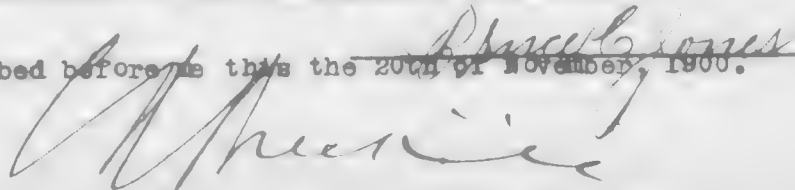

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and four children as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and for the enrollment of his wife as a citizen by intermarriage. He presents satisfactory proof as to his admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation on the 28th of September, 1888. He has resided here continuously since that time. He is identified on the census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee, and will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by blood. When he ~~applies~~ files with the Commission properly executed affidavits as to the births of his three children, they likewise will be enrolled with him as ~~and~~ citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

His wife is identified upon the census roll of 1896 as an adopted white. He produces satisfactory proof as to his marriage to her on the 11th of March, 1896. That was too late for her to acquire property rights in the Cherokee Nation in accordance with the Cherokee law of 1896 regularizing marriages. Her application, therefore, for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage is rejected.

—O—

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 20th of November, 1900.

Commissioner.

RECORDED
Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Oklahoma, I. T. November, 20th 1900

In the matter of the application of Lula Boynton Smith for the enrollment of herself and two children as Cherokee citizens. She being sworn before Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows

- Q What is your name? A. Lula Boynton Smith.
Q How old are you? A. 37.
Q What is your post office? A. Allowee.
Q Do you live in Cooweescoowee district? A. Yes sir.
Q Who do you want to have enrolled? A. Myself and two children.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A. Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A. 15 years.
Q Have you made it your home for the past 15 years? A. No sir I had to go out to the States to make my living during that time.
Q Did you make application to the Dawes Commission in 1896? A. Yes sir.
Q Give me the names of your children. A. Frankie Kendall and Frostie Kendall.
Q How old is Frankie? A. 14.
Q How old is Frostie? A. 12.
Q These children are both living now are they? A. Yes sir.

It appears on record "B" page 412, Commission No. 5390 that application was made by the present applicant for the admission for the admission of herself and others in September, 1896 and that she and her two children, for whom she now applies, were admitted as Cherokee citizens by blood, and no appeal was taken from that decision. The children being admitted under the name of Boynton.

- Q Are these children names Boynton or Kendall? A. Kendall is their fathers name.
Q Have you and your children lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since your admission by the Dawes Commission in 1896? A. Yes sir.
Q Since your admission you have re-married have you? A. Yes sir.

Q What is the name of your third husband? A. Morris.
Q Is he dead? A. Yes sir.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself and two children

Lula Boynton Smith 2.

She and her children are identified on the 1906 roll as native Cherokees. And three of them are shown to have been admitted by the Dawes Commission in 1896 as Cherokees by blood. Her change of name is established by the marriage certificate filed herewith. The children were admitted under the name of Boynton, but their mother states that they should properly be enrolled as Kendall as they are children by a husband of that name, while Boynton is her maiden name. They are both miners and living now and they will all be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood, the children as Frankie and Freddie Kendall.

Chas. von Weise being sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all the proceedings in the above entitled cause and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes therein.

MUSKOGEE, I. T., JANUARY 5, 1907.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of WILLIAM C. PATTON as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

APPEARANCES: Jane Patton appears on behalf of applicant.

JANE PATTON, being first duly sworn by Walter W. Chappell, Notary
Public, testified as follows:

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q What is your name? A Jane Patton.
Q What is your age, Mrs. Patton? A I will be 66 in March.
Q What is your post office address? A Muskogee, Indian Territory.
Q In whose behalf do you appear here today? A In behalf of William C. Patton.
Q Does William C. Patton claim to be a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation? A He does.
Q Through whom does he claim that right? A Through Jane Patton.
Q Through you? A Yes sir.
Q What is your citizenship? A I am a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.
Q When were you married to William C. Patton? A May 1, 1862.
Q Where were you married to him? A In Walker County, Georgia.
Q Were you married under a license of the State of Georgia?
A Yes sir.
Q Have you a copy of that license with you? A I haven't a copy of it. It was recorded in the Court House, and the Court House was burned. We had no private record of it.
Q By whom was the marriage ceremony performed? A Rev. R. W. Baker, a Presbyterian minister.
Q Is there any one here who was present at your marriage? A There is no one here. Mr. Bixby said I would have to get my brother-in-law who lives at Vinita to come down and testify.
Q What is the name of your brother-in-law? A G. V. Hill.
Q What is his post office address? A Vinita.
Q When did you and your husband remove to the Cherokee Nation?
A In April, 1879.
Q When did you leave the Cherokee Nation? A 2 years ago last Oct.ober.
Q From the time of your removal to the Cherokee Nation, did you and William C. Patton continuously reside together as man and wife until your removal to Muskogee, Indian Territory, two years ago? A We did.
Q Were you married prior to the time of your marriage to William C.
Patton? A No sir.
Q Was William C. Patton ever married prior to the time of his marriage to you?

F.R.

Cherokee 5644.- 2 .

Q Why did not William C. Patton appear in person today? A Because he is a ~~crack~~.

"Since the records of your marriage appear to have been destroyed by fire, it will be necessary for you to produce witnesses who can corroborate your testimony as to your marriage in Georgia. Would suggest that you have your brother-in-law, Mr. Hill, appear, as it is important that this testimony be gotten in at the earliest possible date."

Q When you removed to the Cherokee Nation in 1879, were you remarried in accordance with the tribal laws of the Cherokee Nation? A We were.

Q At what place were you remarried? A Vinita.

Q Under a license of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir, by the Clerk, Jake Lips.

Q Who performed the ceremony? A Jake Lips.

Q What was Jake Lips? A He was Clerk of one of the Cherokee Districts.

Q What became of that license? A It was delivered to the Commission while in session at Chelsea.

"Examination will be made for the license herein referred to, and if it cannot be found you will be given due notice, in order that you may endeavor to secure a certified copy of it."

"The applicant, William C. Patton, and Jane Patton are listed for enrollment on Cherokee Card Field No. 5644. They are identified on the 1880 authenticated roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, opposite Nos. 2156 and 2157, respectively, Cooweescoowee District.

The name of the applicant's wife is included in the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens by blood, opposite No. 13554."

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, she correctly reported the above and foregoing testimony, and that the same is a full, true and correct transcript of her stenographic notes thereof.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of William C. Patten for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

George W. Hill, being first duly sworn by Walter W. Chappell, a Notary Public for the Western District of Indian Territory, testified as follows:

By the Commissioner:

Q What is your name? A George W. Hill.

Q What is your age? A Seventy-two years.

Q What is your postoffice address? A Vinita, I. T.

Q Are you acquainted with William C. Patten and Jane Patten?

A Yes sir.

Q Are you related to either of them? A Yes sir.

Q What relation? A I am brother-in-law to Mr. Patten.

Q Were you present at the marriage of William C. Patten and Jane Patten? A Yes sir.

Q Where were they married? A Walker county, Georgia.

Q When? A 1st of May, 1862.

Q Do you know what record if any was made of that marriage?

A Yes, they gave a license and it was entered on a book; the license was returned to the clerk of the county and it was recorded in a book.

Q Do you know whether or not those records are still in existence? A They are not; they are destroyed.

Q When and how were they destroyed? A Well, it was during the civil war and all of the records of the office at the court house were destroyed. All the records were destroyed during the war. I was deputy clerk in the office and had to keep these records.

Q Their marriage was in accordance with the laws of the state of Georgia at that time? A Yes sir.

Q When did William C. Patten and his wife Jane Patten move to the Cherokee Nation? A I don't know about that exactly; they left Georgia in 1874.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I have been here off and on for over thirty years since 1871 when I first came. I have lived here continuously for the last 18 years.

Q Do you know whether William C. Patten and his wife Jane Patten were remarried in accordance with the Cherokee customs upon their removal to the Cherokee Nation or soon thereafter?

A No, I was not there; I don't know.

Frances R. Lane upon oath states that as stenographer to the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes she reported the testimony in the above entitled cause, and that the foregoing is an accurate transcript of her stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of William C. Patton as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N .

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Chelsea, Indian Territory, on November 20, 1900, application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of William C. Patton as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 13, 1902, January 5, 1907 and January 8, 1907.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, William C. Patton, a white man, identified on the Cherokee tribal roll of 1880, Cooweescoowee District, page 153, No. 2156, as an adopted white, neither claims nor possesses any right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation other than such right as he may have acquired by virtue of his marriage in the state of Georgia on May 1, 1862, to Jane Patton (nee Davis); that the said William C. Patton and Jane Patton removed to the Cherokee Nation about the year 1879, and that the said Jane Patton was thereupon admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the duly constituted authorities thereof. Jane Patton is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Cooweescoowee District, page 153, No. 2157, as a native Cherokee. It is further shown that on April 18, 1879, which was subsequent to the admission of the said Jane Patton to citizenship in said nation, the said William C. Patton and Jane Patton were remarried in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee nation.

In view of the foregoing it is considered that the applicant did not marry in accordance with Cherokee law a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, William C. Patton is not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1906 (34 Stat., 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of William C. Patton as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

In Record "A", Marriage Licenses Cooweescoowee District, page 39, now in possession of this office, it is shown that a marriage license was issued to W. C. Patton, a citizen of the United States, to marry Mrs. Jane Patton, a citizen of Cooweescoowee District, on April 18, 1879, and that said parties were married under said license on the same day (April 18, 1879) by C. C. Lipe, Clerk Cooweescoowee District.

It is further shown in said record that on April 18, 1879, W. C. Patton and Mrs. Jane Patton, subscribed to an oath, acknowledged before C. C. Lipe, Clerk of Cooweescoowee District, that said parties had been married in Walker county, Georgia, May 1st, 1862.

It is ordered that this statement be filed with the evidence in this case.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a communication from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated February 6, 1907, enclosing the record in the matter of the application of William C. Patton for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation, together with his decision of the same date adverse to the applicant.

The record shows that application was made for the enrollment of William C. Patton as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation, at Chelsea, Indian Territory, November 20, 1900. Testimony was taken in the matter on October 13, 1902, and January 7 and 8, 1907. It appears that the applicant is a white man and neither claims nor possesses any right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation except such as he may have acquired by reason of his marriage to one Jane Davis, May 1, 1862, under the laws of the State of Georgia. It is further shown that they removed to the Cherokee Nation in 1879 and took up their residence, and thereafter Jane Patton was duly admitted to citizenship by the duly constituted authorities of the Cherokee Nation, and her name appears on the authenticated roll of 1880 opposite No. 2157 as a native Cherokee. William C. Patton's name also appears on the 1880 roll as an adopted white, opposite No. 2156. It is further shown that on April 18, 1879, after Jane Patton has been admitted to citizenship as a Cherokee by blood, the parties were remarried in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation. While the applicant seems to have done all that was within his power it cannot be said that he married a Cherokee by blood prior to November 1, 1875, under the Cherokee laws relating to marriage.

The office is of the opinion that the decision of the Commissioner denying the application for the enrollment of William C. Patton as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by intermarriage is correct and in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, and it is recommended that it be affirmed.

Very respectfully,

C.F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and for the enrollment of his wife and four children as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. He is identified upon the census roll of 1896 as an adopted white, and produces satisfactory proof as to his marriage in accordance with the laws and customs of the Cherokee Nation on the 11th of February, 1892. He has lived with his wife continuously since that time. Neither he nor she have ever been married before. He will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by intermarriage. His wife is identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 and the census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee, she has resided in the Cherokee Nation all her life, and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood. His two oldest children are identified upon the census roll of 1896 as native Cherokees. Satisfactory proof as to their residence having been made, they will all be enrolled with their mother as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. When he filed with the Commission properly executed affidavits as to the births of his youngest children, they likewise will be enrolled with their mother as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Q He died in the spring of 1898, did he? A Yes sir.

Q And you married his wife in the fall of 1898? A Yes sir.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Shawnee blood, for the enrollment of his wife as a Cherokee citizen by intermarriage, and for the enrollment of his wife's daughter as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Shawnee blood. He is identified upon the authenticated roll as an adopted Delaware, and upon the census roll of 1896 as an adopted Shawnee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life and he will be listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Shawnee blood. He avers that his wife was married to one Wm. Carpenter in the year 1896. The said Wm. Carpnetter is identified on the roll of 1880 and on the census roll of 1896 as an adopted Shawnee. He died sometime in the spring of 1898. The applicant does not produce any satisfactory proof as to the marriage of his wife to her former husband, William Carpenter, and for that reason she will be listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Shawnee blood upon what is known as a doubtful card, and the applicant will be required to file with the Commission either an original or a certified copy of the marriage certificate showing the marriage of his wife to her former husband, William Carpnetter.

Com'r Breckinridge:--The applicant applies for the enrollment of his wife and six children: His wife is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. Of the six children named in the testimony the first five are identified on the roll of 1896 with their parents. They are minors, are living now and will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood. When the applicant files a certificate of birth of the youngest child, Stephen S., this child also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
MUSKOGEE, I.T., APRIL 2nd, 1901.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF George E. Foreman for the enrollment of himself and his six minor children, Maggie Belle, Jeremiah E., Sarah C., Minnie E., Annie & Stephen S. Foreman as citizens of the Creek Nation.

GEORGE E. FOREMAN, being first duly sworn testified as follows:

By the Commission:

Q. Ascendents of what Nation are you now making application for the enrollment of yourself and your six minor children?

A. Creek Nation, Muskogee; Creek Nation or Muskogee, whichever you are of a mind to call it. Some calls it Creek, some calls it Muskogee.

Q. What is your name? A. George E. Foreman.

Q. Are you a citizen of the Creek Nation? A. I have been recognized as such by the Creek Nation.

Q. What town do you belong to? A. Big Spring Town.

Q. State the names and ages of your minor children for whom you are now making application for enrollment as citizens of the Creek Nation? A. Maggie Belle, age 11 years; Jeremiah E. 10; Sarah Celestina will be nine years old I believe the 27th of this month;

Minnie E. will be seven I believe the 21st or 22nd of next December; Annie will be five I believe this coming August; Stephen S. will be three years old the eighth of next July.

Q. What is your Postoffice address? A. Foyil.

Q. In what Nation? A. Cherokee Nation.

Q. Do your minor children for whom you are now making application live with you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you lived at the place where you are now living? A. About nine years.

Q. Where did you live prior to that time? A. Well, I did not have any particular home at all; I just stayed around one place and then another.

Q. In what Nation did you live? A. In the Cherokee Nation, part of the time; part of the time I stayed at Mufaula, Creek Nation.

Q. Are you the father of all these children? A. I am supposed to be. As far as I am capable of telling, I am.

Q. Who is the mother of these children? A. Her name now is Isabelle Foreman.

Q. Is she a citizen of the Creek Nation? A. No, sir.

Q. Of what Nation is she a citizen? A. Cherokee Nation.

Q. Has she been enrolled by the tribal authorities of the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Has she drawn money in all of their payments? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is she the mother of all these children? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do the names of these children appear upon the tribal rolls of the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have they been recognized by the tribal authorities of the Cherokee Nation as citizens of that Nation? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you drawn money for them in the Cherokee Nation at their payments? A. Part of them, I did, those that were old enough at the time.

Q. Do their names also appear upon the tribal rolls of the Creek Nation? A. Part of them, yes; those that were born up to the time they drew the last payment, some time in '95 or '96 I believe it was.

Q. For which ones did you draw the $20 in 1890? A. For Maggie Belle 1890 Authenticated Roll of the Creek Nation examined, and the name of Maggie Bell Foreman is found thereon at Page 47, together with the name of ~~George~~ Geo. Everett Foreman.

Q The is the George Everett Foreman whose name appears with the name of Maggie Bell Foreman on the Roll of 1890? A It was put there for my name. I guess they did not know how to spell it. Everts is the way.

Q For which of these children did you draw the $14.40 in 1895?

A Maggie Bell, Jeremiah and Sarah C., and I disremember for sure whether I drew for Minnie or not, or whether I had her name put on afterwards, but I know I sent her name in to have her registered.

1895 Authenticated Roll of the Creek Nation, Big Spring Town examined, and the names of Geo. Everett Foreman and Haggie Belle Foreman found thereon at Numbers 166 & 167..

1895 Omitted Roll of the Creek Nation, Big Spring Town examined and the name of Jeremiah Foreman, Sarah Foreman and Minnie E. Foreman found thereon.

Q That proportion of Creek blood do you claim for these children? A Well sir, it would be a hard matter to tell.

Q How much do you claim Mr. Foreman? A I aint got the least idea in the world; I don't think grand father was a full blood, but judging from his appearance he was about three fourths.

Q Your answer would be then that you do not know? A I don't know how much blood. I suppose probably I was about one fourth, or maybe more; I can not say positively.

Q Making about one eighth for these children? A Some where in that neighborhood.

Q Are you married? A Yes, sir.

Q Under what law were you married? A Under Cherokee law.

Q Have you any marriage license and certificate? A They never required us to get any them times.

Q Were you married by a minister? A No, sir, I was married by the Judge of the County. According to the Cherokee laws, he was authorized to solemnize marriages. It is on the records of the Cherokee Nation, Coowaseeowee District.

Q What was your wife's name before you she was married?

A Isabelle Hefington.

Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.

Q Is she a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A She is.

Q Does your name appear upon the tribal rolls of any other Nation besides the Creek Nation? A I have been enrolled in the Cherokee Nation too.

Q How were you enrolled; as an intermarried citizen, or ---?

A Cherokee by blood. My father was a Cherokee and my mother was a Creek.

Q What is your age? A I am about thirty six years old I believe the 15th of next month - May - .

Q Does your name appear upon the Tribal rolls of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you been recognized by the Cherokee tribal authorities as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q What monies have you drawn in the Cherokee Nation? A It would be hard to tell you. I drew in several payments though.

Q Do you make any claim for your wife as a Creek citizen? A No, sir.

Q What is the name of your father? A Jeremiah E. Foreman.

Q Was he a citizen of the Creek Nation? A I suppose he was so far as I know. He was married I guess under Creek laws.

Q Was he also a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A I suppose he was by virtue of his Cherokee blood.

Q Did his name appear upon any of the tribal rolls of the Cherokee Nation? A I can not say positively that it did. I never looked it up. I know in reason that it does.

Q What is your mother's name? A Celestine Stidham.

Q Was she a citizen of the Cherokee Nation?

A She was a citizen of the Creek Nation.

Q Was she a citizen of any other Indian Nation? A Not that I knew of.

Q If it should be found that you and your six minor children have heretofore been recognized by the tribal authorities of both the Creek and Cherokee Nations, as citizens of which Nation do you now elect to be enrolled, and received allotment of lands and distribution of monies? A In the Creek Nation.

Q Is there any additional statement in regard to your application that you desire to make at this time? A No, I don't know that there is.

You will be furnished at a later date with a copy of the decision of the Commission with reference to the application made by you at this time for the enrollment of yourself and six minor children as citizens of the Creek Nation, which will be mailed to you at your present Postoffice address, Fayal, Indian Territory.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Maggie B., Jeremiah E., Sarah C., Minnie E., Annie and Stephen S. Foreman as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on November 20, 1900, George Everts Foreman appeared before the Commission at Chelsea, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of his minor children, Maggie B., Jeremiah E., Sarah C., Minnie E., Annie and Stephen S. Foreman, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. The application also included his wife, Isabelle Foreman, but she is not embraced in this decision, her name being upon the partial roll of Cherokee citizens by blood, approved by the Secretary of the Interior, on December 6, 1902, at number 13560.

The record further shows that subsequent to the date of said application, George E. Foreman made application to this Commission for the enrollment of the said applicants, Maggie B., by the name of Maggie Belle, Jeremiah E., Sarah C., Minnie E., Annie and Stephen S. Foreman, as citizens of the Creek Nation; and that in accordance with the Departmental decision, under date of November 25, 1902, in the matter of the last mentioned application, the Commission enrolled all the said applicants as citizens of the Creek Nation.

The evidence shows that all the applicants herein, except Stephen S. Foreman, are identified on the 1896 Cherokee census roll; and that Stephen S. Foreman is identified by a birth affidavit, which is made a part of the record herein.

Section twenty-eight of the act of Congress, approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 716), provides as follows:

"No person whose name appears upon the roll made by the Dawes Commission as a citizen or freedman of any other tribe shall be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation."

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application for the enrollment of Maggie B. Foreman, Jeremiah E.

-2-

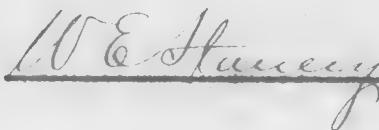

Foreman, Sarah C. Foreman, Minnie E. Foreman, Annie Foreman and Stephen S. Foreman as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation should be denied, under the provisions of law above quoted, and it is so ordered.

Rules of Various States' Boards of Health for the Transportation of the Dead.

RULE 1. The transportation of bodies dead of Small-pox, Asiatic Cholera, Yellow Fever, Typhus Fever or Bubonic Plague is absolutely forbidden.

RULE 2. The bodies of those who have died of diphtheria (membranous croup), scarlet fever (scarletina, scarlet rash), glanders, anthrax or leprosy, shall not be accepted for transportation unless prepared for shipment by being thoroughly disinfected by (a) arterial and cavity injection with an approved disinfectant fluid; (b) disinfecting and stopping of all orifices with absorbent cotton; and (c) washing the body with the disinfectant, all of which must be done by an embalmer holding a certificate as such, approved by the State Board of Health or other State health authority. After being disinfected as above, such body shall be enveloped in a layer of cotton not less than one inch thick, completely wrapped in a sheet and bandaged and incased in an air-tight zinc, tin, copper or lead lined coffin or iron casket, all joints and seams hermetically sealed, and all enclosed in a strong tight wooden box. Or, the body being prepared for shipment by disinfecting and wrapping as above, may be placed in a coffin or casket, and said coffin or casket placed in an air-tight zinc, copper or tin case, all joints and seams hermetically sealed and all enclosed in a strong outside wooden box.

RULE 3. The bodies of those dead of typhoid fever, puerperal fever, erysipelas, tuberciosis and marasmus, or other dangerous communicable diseases other than those specified in Rules 1 and 2, may be received for transportation when prepared for shipment by filling cavities with an approved disinfectant, washing the exterior of the body with the same, stopping all orifices with absorbent cotton, and enveloping the entire body with a layer of cotton not less than one inch thick, and all wrapped in a sheet and bandaged and incased in an air-tight coffin or casket; provided, that this shall apply only to bodies which can reach their destination within forty-eight hours from time of death. In all other cases, such bodies shall be prepared for transportation in conformity with Rule 2. But when the body has been prepared for shipment by being thoroughly disinfected by an embalmer holding a certificate, as in Rule 2, the airtight sealing may be dispensed with.

RULE 4. The bodies of those dead of diseases that are not contagious, infectious or communicable, may be received for transportation when incased in a sound coffin or casket and enclosed in a strong outside wooden box, provided, they reach their destination within thirty hours from time of death. If the body cannot reach its destination within thirty hours from time of death, it must be prepared for shipment by being thoroughly disinfected by an embalmer holding a certificate, as in Rule 2, the airtight sealing may be dispensed with.

RULE 5. In cases of contagious, infectious or communicable diseases, the body must not be accompanied by persons or articles which have been exposed to the infection of the disease, unless certified by the Health Officer as having been properly disinfected. Before selling passage tickets, agents should carefully examine the transit permit and note the name of the passenger in charge, and of any others proposing to accompany the body, and see that all necessary precautions have been taken to prevent the spread of disease. The transit permit in such case shall specifically state who is authorized by the Health Authorities to accompany the remains. In all cases where bodies are forwarded under Rule 2, notice must be sent by telegraph to the Health Officer at destination, advising the date and train on which the body may be expected. This notice must be sent by or in the name of the Health Officer at the initial point, and is to enable the Health Officer at destination to take all necessary precautions at that point.

RULE 6. Every dead body must be accompanied by a person in charge, who must be provided with a passage ticket and also present a full first-class ticket marked "Corpse," and a transit permit showing physician's or coroner's certificate, health officer's permit for removal, undertaker's certificate, name of deceased, date and hour of death, age, place of death, cause of death, whether communicable or non-communicable, the point to which the body is to be shipped, and when death is caused by any of the diseases specified in Rule 2, the names of those authorized by the Health Authorities to accompany the body.

RULE 7. When dead bodies are shipped by express, the whole original transit permit shall be pasted upon the outside box and the duplicate forwarded by the express agent to the Secretary of the State or Provincial Board of Health of the State or Province from which said shipment was made.

RULE 8. Every disinterred body, dead from any disease or cause, shall be treated as infectious or dangerous to the public health, and shall not be accepted for transportation unless said removal has been approved by the state or provincial health authorities having jurisdiction where such body is disinterred, and the consent of the health authorities of the locality to which the corpse is assigned has first been obtained; and all such disinterred remains shall be enclosed in a hermetically sealed (soldered) zinc, tin or copper lined coffin or box. Bodies deposited in receiving vaults shall be treated and considered the same as buried bodies.

TRANSPORTATION OF DECEASED PERSONS IN BAGGAGE CARS.

TO RAILROAD AGENTS, STATION AND TRAIN BAGGAGEMEN:

You will in no case receive a corpse for transportation unless accompanied by a physician's, coroner's or board of health certificate, also an undertaker's certificate that the body has been prepared for burial and shipment in accordance with the rules of the State Board of Health, nor will you receive it even with such certificates if fluids or offensive odors are escaping from the case. One full first-class limited or unlimited ticket will be required for the transportation of a corpse without regard to the age of the deceased, and the word "Corpse" must be plainly written on the face of a local and on each coupon of a coupon ticket. A corpse will not be taken for transportation unless a passenger is in charge. A record must be made on the back of your station and trip reports of all bodies shipped and carried, giving name of deceased and destination.

It will be the duty of Agents and Baggage Agents to see that each burial case is properly marked on "Paster," giving date and at what station shipped, point of destination, "State," number and form of ticket, name of passenger in charge, and place of residence, with name of Agent. If the corpse is destined to a point beyond the initial line, the initials of each road over which it passes must be written on the paster; also the terminal point of each road at which transfer is made with the connecting line as shown on the coupons of the ticket.

You will see that the "Certificate of Undertaker" is properly filled out by him, and that the paster is properly filled out by yourself and is securely fastened on the end of the coffin box before it is put into the car, and the permit remaining you will hand to the passenger in charge of the corpse.

All this information is necessary to insure the prompt and correct transportation of a corpse.

~~may~~ The Health Commissioner of the city of St. Louis rules that it shall not be lawful to bring into that city the body of any person dead of cerebro-spinal meningitis, diphtheria, scarlatina, typhus fever, small-pox, Asiatic cholera, or yellow fever.

Agents will therefore refuse to accept for transportation such corpses for or for points beyond and through St. Louis, Missouri.

This Certificate and the Shipping Paster below must be detached at this perforation and securely tacked on the end of the Coffin Box.

November 25, 1902.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

February 18, 1902, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs transmitted your report of January 18, 1902, submitting the papers in the matter of the application of George E. Foreman for the enrollment of himself and his minor children, Maggie Belle, Jeremiah E., Sarah C., Minnie E., Annie and Stephen S. Foreman, as citizens of the Creek Nation.

The youngest child, Stephen S. Foreman, was about three years of age at the time the testimony was taken in the case April 2, 1901. The names of George E. Foreman, Maggie Belle, Jeremiah E., Sarah C., and Minnie E. Foreman are found upon the authenticated rolls of the Creek Nation. The mother of said children, Isabelle Foreman, the wife of said George E. Foreman, is a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation. You held that these children should be enrolled; that Annie and Stephen S. Foreman are not citizens of the Creek Nation, because descent comes from the female and not from the male line, according to the usages and customs of that Nation, and that enrollment should be denied them. You also found that George E. Foreman should be enrolled.

The Commissioner of Indian Affairs does not agree with your conclusion with regard to the matter of descent, and recommended that you be directed to place the names of all the applicants upon the Creek tribal rolls. In view of the decision of the Department of November 20, 1902, in the case of Lillian and Pearl Lerblance, the Department finds that all of the applicants should be enrolled, and your decision is therefore reversed as to Annie and Stephen S. Foreman. A copy of the Commissioner's letter is inclosed.

Respectfully,

Thos. Ryan.

Acting Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Office of Indian Affairs,

WASHINGTON, February 18, 1902.

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report made January 18, 1902, by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, forwarding the record of proceedings in the matter of the application of George E. Foreman for the enrollment of himself and his six minor children, Maggie Belle, Jeremiah E., Sarah C., Minnie E., Annie and Stephen S. Foreman, as citizens of the Creek Nation.

The Commission reports that George E. Foreman made application on April 2, 1901, for the enrollment of himself and his six minor children above named as Creek citizens; that the names of George E. Foreman and four of his minor children, to-wit: Maggie Belle, Jeremiah E., Sarah Celestine and Minnie E. Foreman, are found upon the authenticated rolls of the Creek Nation, and that his other children, Annie and Stephen S. have never been adopted or enrolled as citizens of the Creek Nation by the tribal authorities thereof, and that said

George E. Foreman elects to have himself and all of his children enrolled as greeks. It further appears from the report of the Commission that Isabelle Foreman, nee Haffington, the mother of said children, is a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

It is the opinion of the Commission that George E. Foreman and his children, Maggie Belle, Jeremiah E., Sarah C. and Minnie E. Foreman are citizens by adoption of the Creek Nation and should be so enrolled, but that his children Annie and Stephen S., are not citizens of the Creek Nation because descent comes through the female and not through the male line according to the customs of that nation, and that enrollment should be denied to the two last mentioned children.

The office does not agree with the conclusion of the Commission with regard to the matter of descent, and respectfully recommends that the Commission be direct to place the names of all the applicants upon the greek tribal rolls.

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

W. A. JONES.

Commissioner.

Creek Case #105
Creek Indian,
Field No. 4406.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 12, 1902.

Cherokee Enrollment Division,

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

Gentlemen:

You are hereby advised that, in accordance with departmental decision of November 25, 1902, the Commission has regularly enrolled George E. Foreman, and his six minor children, Maggie Belle, Jeremiah E., Sarah C., Minnie E., Annie and Stephen S. Foreman, as citizens of the Creek Nation, on Creek Indian Card, Field No. 4406.

It appears from the records of the Creek Enrollment Division, that said George E. Foreman is a recognized citizen of the Creek Nation, and that the mother of his children herein named is Isabel Foreman, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation and that she, together with these children, is listed for enrollment on Cherokee Card, Field No. 5647.

It further appears that on April 2, 1901, said George Foreman elected to have himself and children, herein named, enrolled as citizens of the Creek Nation.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 15, 1902.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to the Commission's letter of November 18, 1902, transmitting a schedule of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation and found to be entitled to enrollment as such by the Commission, which schedule was approved by the Department, December 6, 1902, the Commission has the honor to report that from a further examination of the record in the matter of the application of Isabelle Foreman, for the enrollment of herself and children, Annie Foreman and Stephen S. Foreman, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, whose names appear thereon opposite numbers 13561 and 13562 respectively, it appears that application for the enrollment of these children as citizens of the Creek Nation was made April 2, 1901.

On May 16, 1901, the Commission rendered a decision, denying the application of Annie Foreman and Stephen S. Foreman, as citizens by blood of the Creek Nation, which decision was forwarded to the Department for review and approval. On November 25, 1902, the decision of the Commission was reversed and the Commission was directed to place the names of the applicants upon the rolls of citizens of the Creek Nation.

In view of the fact that these children have been enrolled as citizens of the Creek Nation, the Commission respectfully recommends that their names be stricken from the schedule of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation now in possession of the Department, and that the Commission be authorized to strike their names from the schedules heretofore approved by the Department and returned to this Commission.

Gentlemen:

November 25, 1902, the Department reversed your decision rejecting the application made April 2, 1901, for the enrollment of Annie Foreman and Stephen S. Foreman, as citizens of the Creek Nation

December 15, 1902, you stated that upon the application of Isabelle Foreman for the enrollment of herself and said children as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, the names of said children were placed upon partial Cherokee schedule of citizens by blood, opposite numbers 13561 and 13562, respectively, approved by the Department December 6, 1902.

You request authority to strike from said Cherokee schedule the names of said children.

Reporting in the matter January 17, 1903, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs concurs in your recommendation. A copy of his letter is inclosed.

The authority requested is hereby granted, and you are informed that the names have been stricken from the schedule in the possession of the Department, and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs has been authorized to strike the names from the schedule in his possession.

Attention is called to the fact that you failed to give the two departmental numbers relative to the schedule and the Creek citizenship case involved (I.T.D. numbers 7404 and 1263-1902).

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose herewith, a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated March 11, 1904, transmitting the record of the applications for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation by George Everts Foreman for his minor children, Maggie B., Jeremiah E., Sarah C., Minnie E., Annie and Stephen S. Foreman.

March 10, 1904, the Commission decided adversely to all the applicants.

The record shows that the applicants were all enrolled by direction of the Department of November 25, 1902, as citizens of the Creek Nation. It further appears that the applicants on April 2, 1901, elected to be enrolled as Creek citizens.

In view of the record the approval of the Commission's decision adverse to the applicants is recommended.

Enrollment case of Mary L. Griepenkirol.

OCT 6 1910

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report dated September 24, 1910, from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes relative to the date of the death of Mary L. Griepenkirol, whose name appears opposite No. 5647 on the final approved roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

It is shown by the enclosed papers that Mary L. Griepenkirol died prior to September 1, 1902, and, therefore, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. L., 716), she was not entitled to have any allotment of land or other tribal property of the Cherokee Nation made to her or to her heirs.

The Commissioner reports that the only heir of Mary L. Griepenkirol concerning whom any information could be had was her brother, John Raper, who for many years has resided in California. It appears that notice was sent to John Raper at Bella Vista, California, of the intention of placing opposite the name of Mary L. Griepenkirol on the above mentioned roll, the notation "Died prior to September 1, 1902; not entitled to land or money." The Commissioner reports that said communication was not delivered, and that the Postmaster advised him that no such person was known at that postoffice.

1-78475-2

The Office recommends that the notation above quoted be placed opposite the name of Mary L. Griepenkiel on the above mentioned roll, and that this Office and the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes be authorized to make a similar notation on the copies of the roll in their possession.

Very respectfully,

Subject: Enrollment in Five Civilized Tribes.

Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Sir:

With his letter to you of December 26, 1908, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes forwarded two lists of names of persons stricken from the approved rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Five Civilized Tribes at various times. These papers were filed in your office, December 30, 1908, as No. 88,228, and, on the same date, referred to the Department.

One of said lists purports to show the names of persons stricken from the rolls, without prior notice; the other purports to show the names of those persons to whom notice was given before their names were stricken from the rolls.

The Department has considered the first of said lists and, in various letters, has taken action concerning the names included therein by directing, in some instances, that the parties be restored to the status of recognized citizens, and, in others that supplemental reports be furnished.

But there were persons named in the first of said lists whose cases were totally different than those dealt with heretofore, in that their names were stricken from the rolls merely to remedy clerical defects such as duplication and erroneous classification. It cannot be said that such persons have suffered any legal injury, and therefore the Department must and does decline to issue any order looking to the erasure of interlineations and notations purporting to cancel their names from the approved rolls from which they were stricken. The names of the persons included in this ruling are as follows:

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Mr. J. R. Carselowey,
Vinita, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 7th instant, enclosing a birth affidavit in the matter of the application of your infant child, James M. Carselowey, to be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

It appears that the mother of this child, Annie Belle Carselowey, is a white woman. You are therefore desired to file with the Commission your original marriage license and certificate. Please give this matter your prompt attention, as the affidavit cannot receive further consideration until the request of the Commission has been complied with.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

(1880 Roll, Page 256, #1007, Thomas Fields, Delaware Dist)
(1896 Roll, Page 470, #1137, Tom Fields, Delaware Dist)

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself ~~his wife~~ and one child as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and for the enrollment of his wife as a citizen by intermarriage. He is identified on the authenticated roll of 1880 and upon the census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, and he will be listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

When he files with the Commission a properly executed affidavit as to the birth of his child, Alva Loyd Fields, this child also will be listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood.

He produces satisfactory proof as to his marriage on the 29th of June, 1898 to his present wife, Nellie Fields. This was too late for her under the Cherokee marriage law of 1895 to acquire property rights in the Cherokee Nation. Consequently, the application for her enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation is rejected.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
CHELSEA, I.T., NOVEMBER 20th, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Frank Wolfe for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by Shawnee blood; said Wolfe being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your full name, please? A Frank Wolfe.
Q How old are you? A About 28 years old.
Q What is your post office? A Talala.
Q Do you live in Cooweescoowee district? A Yes, sir.
Q Who do you want to enroll, yourself only? A Myself.
Q What was you Delaware? A Shawnee.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation, all your life?
A All my life.
Q Born here were you? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the name of your father? A Billie.
Q Is he dead? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the name of your mother? A Julia Williams.
Q Is she dead? A Yes, sir.
1896 Roll; page 354, #435, Frank Wolf, Cooweescoowee.
The following not on the record with this enrollment: "Not on the 1880 Roll."
Q Did your mother ever have any name besides Wolfe? A Flint.
Q When did your father die? A We died when I was a little boy.
Q Did your mother marry again? A Yes, sir.
Q Who did she marry? A Joke Flint.
Q And she is alive now is she? A Yes, sir.
Q Is Jake Flint alive? A No, sir, dead.
1880 Roll; page 103, #1113, Julia A. Flint, Cooweescoowee.
Q You have never been out of the Cherokee Nation to live? A Just went to school.
Q When did you go to school? A Quapaw Mission.
Q And you never lived there except while you were at school? A No, sir.
Q You did not settle up there at the Quapaw Reservation? A No sir.
Q Who took you there? A Jake Flint
Q That is your step-father? A Yes, sir.
Q When did you quit school up there? A Not long.
Q How old were you when you first went up there? Does not know.
Q Were you ver young? A Yes, sir.
Q When did you come here from school? A I could not recollect.
Q Well has it been ten years? A Something like ten years.

Com'r Breckinridge:--The applicant is identified on the roll of 1896 as a Shawnee. He state that he has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his live. He is not identified on the roll of 1880, but his mother is identified on that roll, and it is probable that he was off at school at that time. It appears evident that he has lived in the Cherokee nation since his return from school and that the same was before he had reached his majority. He will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee-Shawnee.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
 COMMISSION TO THE WEST CIVILIZED TRIBES.
 CHELSEA, I.T., NOV. 20th, 1900.

THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF J. E. Merrell for the enrollment of Frederick Garland and wife as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and the said Merrell being sworn and examined by Commissioner, C. W. Brickbridge, testified as follows:

By the Commission:

- Q What is your name? A J. E. Merrell.
 Q What is your Postoffice address? A Chelsea.
 Q What is your age? A Thirty three.
 Q You now desire to make application for whom? A Frederick Garland and wife.
 Q Why does he not appear in person before the Commission?
 A On account of the small pox.
 Q How old is Garland? A He is eighteen. ✓
 Q What is his postoffice address? A Chelsea.
 Q Is he a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
 Q What degree of Cherokee blood does he claim? A One eighth.
 Q How long has he resided in the Cherokee Nation?
 A Ever since 1883.
 Q Do you know of your own knowledge whether he has been outside of the Cherokee Nation in the past three years? A He has not.
 Q What is the name of his father? A Baxter Garland.
 Q What is the name of his mother? A Elizabeth Garland.
 Q Are his parents both living? A Yes sir.
 Q Is his father a Cherokee or a white man? A White man.
 Q Is his mother a Cherokee? A Yes sir.
 Q Was his mother ever admitted to citizenship by act of the Cherokee National Council? (Applicant hands paper to Commission)

The applicant presents a certified copy of an Act of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship, dated Tahlequah, on the 3rd day of September, 1883. The document is signed by Thomas Teehe, President of the Commission, Alex Wolf and T. F. Thompson, Commissioners, and D. W. C. Duncan, Clerk.

Among the persons admitted to citizenship at that time appears the name of one, Frederick Garland: Is the Frederick Garland mentioned in this Act the identical person for whom you now apply?
 A Yes sir.

- Q Has he resided in the Cherokee Nation continuously since he was admitted to citizenship? A Yes sir., Flint District/
 Q Is Frederick Garland married? A Yes sir.
 Q What is the name of his wife? A Myrtle Garland.
 Q Is she living? A Yes sir.
 Q How old is she? A Fifteen.
 Q Is she a Cherokee or a white woman? A White woman.
 Q When was he married to her (No response)

The applicant presents a marriage license, authorizing the marriage of Frederick Garland to Miss Myrtle Wlam. License issued by Charles A. Davidson, Clerk of the United States Court for the Northern District of the Indian Territory, on the 28th day of July, 1900., and the certificate shows that said marriage was consummated by R. C. Parker, Minister of the Gospel, on the 31st day of July, 1900.

- Q Have Garland and his wife been living together continuously since they were married? A Yes sir.
 Q Neither of them were ever married before? A No sir.

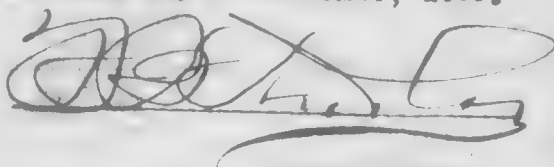

✓ (1896 Roll, Page 188, 1900, Freddie Garland, 1800. 1st)

J. R. Merrell applies for the enrollment of Frederick Garland and his wife, Myrtle Garland. He produces satisfactory evidence of the admission of the said Frederick Garland to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, on the 3rd day of September, 1883: He has lived in the Cherokee Nation continuously since that time, and he will be listed at this time for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

He produces satisfactory evidence as to the marriage of Garland to his wife, on the 31st day of July, 1900. She is a white woman. She was married too late to acquire property rights in the Cherokee Nation under the Cherokee law of 1895, regulating intermarriage. Consequently, the application for her enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by intermarriage is rejected.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 25th day of November, 1900.

In the matter of the application of J. R. Merrell for the enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Baxter Garland, wife and children, and the said Merrell appearing before the Commission and being sworn by Commissioner T. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows

By the Commission:

- Q What is your name? A J. R. Merrell.
Q What is your post office address? A Chelsea.
Q What is your age? A Thirty three.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A I do not know how to answer that.
Q Have you been enrolled? A Yes sir I was enrolled yesterday.
Q For whom do you want to make application? A Baxter Garland his wife and children.
Q How many children are living at home with him? A Three, two single and one married.
Q How many children has he under 21 ~~and~~ years of age and unmarried? A Two.
Q Why does not Mr. Garland apply in person before the Commission? A He did and you ran him out this morning?
Q He is afflicted with small pox is he not? A I do not know.
Q The Commission refused to enroll him this morning because he was afflicted with small pox? A Yes sir.
Q How old is Baxter Garland? A Forty eight years old.
Q What is his post office address? A Chelsea.
Q Is he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood? A No sir.
Q By adoption? A Yes sir.
Q How long has he resided in the Cherokee Nation? A About eighteen years as near as I can come at it; he was admitted in 1883.
Q Do you know of your own personal knowledge whether Baxter Garland has been outside of the Cherokee Nation within the past three years for any purpose? A No sir; he has not.
Q Do you know the name of his father? A Rix Garland.
Q Is he living? A No sir.
Q Was he a Cherokee or white man? A White man.
Q What is the name of his mother? A Sallie Garland.
Q Is she living? A No sir.
Q Was she a Cherokee? A No sir.
Q Is Baxter Garland married? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of his wife? A Elizabeth.
Q Is she living? A Yes sir.
Q How old is she? A Fifty two.
Q Is she a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q What degree of Cherokee blood does she claim to have? A One fourth.
Q How long has she resided in the Cherokee Nation? A Something like eighteen years.
Q Do you know of your own personal knowledge whether she has been outside of the Cherokee Nation in the last three years? A She has not.
Q What was the name of her father? A It seems to me like it was William Dawes, I am not sure.
Q Is he living or dead? A Dead.
Q Was he a Cherokee or a white man? A White man.
Q What is the name of her mother? A Nicey.
Q Is she living? A No sir.
Q Was she a Cherokee? A Yes sir, her maiden name was Welch.
Q Give me the names and ages of the children living at home with Baxter Garland? A Lillie.
Q How old is she? A Sixteen.
Q Next child? A John.

Q How old is he? A He is thirteen.
Q Next child? A That is all unmarried.
Q Are these children both living and living at home with Baxter Garland at the present time? A Yes sir.
Q Baxter Garland is the father of these children? A Yes sir.
Q And his present wife is the mother? A Yes sir.
Q Were these children born in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Have they always resided here since that time? A Yes sir.
Q Was Baxter Garland or his wife ever admitted to citizenship by Act of the Cherokee National Council? (Applicant hands paper to Commissioner.)

Applicant presents a certified copy of an Act of the Cherokee Commission of citizenship, dated Tahlequah, on the 3d day of September, 1883, admitting various persons to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation: Among them appears the name of Elizabeth Garland.

Q Do you know whether The Elizabeth Garland mentioned in this document is the wife of Baxter Garland, for whom you are now applying?
A Yes sir she is.
Q Baxter Garland was not admitted when his wife was? A No sir I suppose not.
Q Has she resided continuously in the Cherokee Nation since her admission. A Yes sir.
Q She was living here at that time; was she? A A In Flint district, yes sir.
Q When was Baxter Garland married to his wife? A Married in Georgia September 4th, 1870.
Q Do you know whether or not he was ever married according to the laws and customs of the Cherokee Nation, after his wife was admitted to citizenship?
A He was married since the Council passed that Act; since December 5th.
Q When was he remarried? A I have forgot what year; he was remarried since 1895. He has his license in his pocket.

The applicant presents a Cherokee marriage license, authorizing marriage between Baxter Garland and Mrs. Elizabeth Garland, nee Dawes. License is signed by Joe M. Lahay, by R. Lee Comer, Dep'y Clerk Cooweescoowee District, issued on the 16th day of August, 1897, and a certificate showing that the marriage was consummated on the 16th day of August, 1897, and a certificate showing that the marriage was consummated. The license and certificate are filed herewith.

1896 roll page 168 #2008 (Lizzie) Garland, Coow. Dist. (S. 11th)
1896 roll, page 168 #2009 John Garland, Coow Dist.

J. R. Merrell applies for the enrollment of Baxter Garland as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and for the enrollment of Elizabeth Garland, and her two children, Lillie and John Garland as citizens of the Cherokee Nation by blood.

He presents proof showing that Baxter Garland was married in accordance with the laws and customs of the Cherokee Nation on the 16th day of August 1897. This was too late for said Garland to acquire property rights in the Cherokee Nation, under the Cherokee law of 1895, regulating marriages. His application therefore for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation is rejected.

Satisfactory proof as to the admission of said Garland's wife, Elizabeth Garland, to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, has been produced. She has resided in the Cherokee Nation continuously since her admission on the 3d day of September 1883. She is identified upon the census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee, and she will be listed for enrollment as such by this Commission.

Her two children Lillie and John Garland are also identified on the roll of 1896, and they will likewise be listed for enrollment as Cherokee citizens by blood.

The undersigned being sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Signed R. R. Cravens,

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 21st day of November, 1900.

CHELSEA, I.T., NOVEMBER 20th, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Charles Victor Carselowey for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee nation; said Carselowey being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your full name, please? A Charles Victor Carselowey.
Q How old are you? A 21.
Q What is your post office? A Vinita.
Q You live in Cooweescoowee district? A Delaware.
Q Who is it you want to have enrolled? A Myself.
Q Only yourself? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee nation? A Born and raised right in Delaware district.
Q Never lived outside of the Cherokee nation? A No, sir.
Q Give me the name of your father? A James S. Carselowey.
Q Is he dead? A Dead.
Q Give me the name of your mother? A Kate.
Q Is she dead? A No, sir.
Q When did you father die? A November 7th, of this year.
Q Are you sure you are 21? A Yes, sir, I think I am 21 last August.
✓ 1880 Roll; page 242, #669, Kate Coslowie, Delaware.
✓ 1896 Roll; page 449, #558, Charles Victor Carselowey, Delaware.

Com'r Breckinridge:--The applicant is identified on the roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee. He is not identified on the roll of 1880 but his mother is identified on that roll. He states that he has lived in the Cherokee nation all his life and was born in the Cherokee nation. It appears that he was born in August, 1880, and doubtless from that reason he was omitted from the roll, being too young to be on the roll. He will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

COMMISSION TO THE NINE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
CHULSA, I.T., Nov. 20th 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF John A. Daniels for the enrollment of himself, wife and children as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and the said Daniels, appearing before the Commission and being sworn by Commissioner, C. B. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

By the Commission:

Q What is your name? A John A. Daniels.
Q How old are you? A Twenty three.
Q What is your Postoffice address? A Needmore.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q For whom do you make application? A Myself, wife and two children.
Q What degree of Cherokee blood do you claim? (No response)
Q How long have you actually resided in the Cherokee Nation?
A All my life.
Q Have you been outside of the Cherokee Nation for any purpose within the past three years? A No sir, I have not.
Q What is the name of your father? A William Adolphus Daniels.
Q Is he living? A No sir, dead.
Q Was he a Cherokee? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your mother? A Lucy Ann.
Q Is she living? A Yes sir.
Q Is she a Cherokee? A Yes sir.
Q Does your name appear upon the roll of 1880? A Yes sir.
Q What district were you enrolled in at that time? A Delaware.
Q What district were you living in in 1896? A Delaware.
Q Are you married? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your wife? A Josephine.
Q Is she living? A Yes sir.
Q Has your wife any middle name? A That is all of it.
Q Is she living, A Yes sir.
Q How old is she? A Twenty one.
Q Is she a Cherokee or a white woman? A White woman.
Q What is the name of her father? A Marion Vaughn.
Q Is he living? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your wife's mother? A Sis Vaughn.
Q Is she living? A She is dead.
Q Were you wife's parents ever recognized as citizens of the Cherokee Nation? A No sir.
Q Give me the name of your oldest child? A Lula May.
Q How old is she? A About sixteen months old.
Q Next child? A William Adolphus.
Q How old is he? A About two weeks old.
Q Are these children both living and living with you at the present time? A Yes sir.
Q You are the father of these children, and your present wife is the mother? A Yes sir.
Q When were you married? A 1898.
Q Have you any evidence of your marriage? (Applicant hands paper to Commission)

The applicant presents a marriage license, authorizing marriage of John Daniels and Josie Vaughan. License was issued by ~~James A.~~ James A. Winston, Clerk of the United States Court for the Northern District of the Indian Territory, on the 28th day of October, 1898, and the certificate shows that said marriage was consummated by W. N. Thompson, Minister of the Gospel, on the 29th day of October 1898. License and certificate are filed herewith.

Q Have you lived with your wife continuously since you married her?
A Yes sir.

Q Were you ever married before? A No sir.
Q Was your wife ever married before? A No sir.

(1880 Roll, Page 248, #814, Johnny Daniel, Delaware 1st)
(1896 Roll, Page 465, #1018, Johnny Daniel, Delaware 2nd)

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and two children as Cherokee citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife as a Cherokee citizen by intermarriage: He is identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880, and upon the census roll of 1896, as a native Cherokee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, and will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

When he files with the Commission properly executed affidavits of the birth of his two children, Lula May and William Adolphus, they likewise will be listed for enrollment with him as Cherokee citizens by blood.

He produces satisfactory proof as to his marriage to his present wife, Josephine, on the 29th day of October, 1898. His wife is a white woman. She is not identified on the roll of 1896. She married too late to acquire a property right in the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation of 1895, regulating marriage: Consequently, the application he makes on behalf of his wife for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by intermarriage is rejected.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Commissioner Breckinridge-

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and one child. He is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee, and he has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. He is shown to have been married to his deceased wife in March, 1889. He states that they lived together until her death some nine years ago. She was never previously married; he was once previously married, but his former wife was dead before he married the mother of this child. The child is identified on the roll of 1886 with his father, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

E.C. Rothenberger, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings and testimony in the abovecase, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 21st day of Novmber, 1900.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Commissioner.

Q Was your mother living with your father in 1896? A No, sir.
Q Were you living with her in 1896? A No, sir, I was living with my father.
Q What was her name in 1896? A Eliza Wright.
Q Did she marry a Cherokee again? A No, sir, she married a white man.
Q Did you draw strip money in 1894? A Yes, sir, my father did for me.
Q Where were you living in 1894? A I was living in Flint.
(On 1894 roll, page 603, No. 1952, Mack Welch, Tahlequah district. E. A. Welch on 1880 roll, page 399, No. 1409, Flint district. John E. Welch on 1880 roll, page 399, No. 1407, John D. Welch, Flint district.)

The Commission:

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee by blood. He is identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880, as a native Cherokee. His father and mother are also identified upon said roll. He is not identified upon the census roll of 1896. His name is found upon the Cherokee strip payment roll of 1894. He avers that he has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life. He will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee by blood.

Q What was it not of contact? A Yes sir, that was one, and taking the children.
Q And yet the child is living with her? A Yes sir.
Q Living with her by your account? A No sir.
Q Are you making any efforts to get the custody of the child have just recently.
Q One serious objection is she does not properly treat the child how could you let the child go with her? A I couldn't go and take it by force.
Q How long has she been away from you now? A Two years in February, I believe; it will be two years in February.
Q Is that all you wish to state? A I mean that is all that is necessary.
Q Did she abandon you? A I consider that she didn't abandon you in a way that would be a detriment to you.
Q You consider that she didn't abandon you in a way that would be a detriment to you? A No sir.

Commissioner-Brockbridge-
The applicant is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1885 as a Native Cherokee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, except a brief absence in the Cherokee and New Mexico which is occasioned by his having ministerial charges in that country, and is not considered to invalidate his citizenship in the Cherokee Nation. He will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee by blood. It is also stated that a copy of this testimony be filed with the application of Mary L. Lord. His Case D-718.

E.G. Rothmeyer, being duly sworn, states that he is a member of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and that the same is a true and correct statement of his own knowledge in said case.

Chelsea, I. T., November 20, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Henry Cloud for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen; he being sworn and examined by Commissioner O. R. Brockinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your full name. A Henry Cloud.
Q How old are you? A 26.
Q What is your postoffice? A Pryor Creek.
Q You live in Cooweescoowee district? A Yes sir.
Q Who do you want to enroll; just yourself? A Myself.
Q No family? A They are enrolled.
Q What are you? A Cherokee.
Q How comes it that you were not enrolled? A I never had the opportunity.
Q You got a wife? A Yes sir.
Q Why didn't she apply for you? A She applied at Claremore; we separated.
Q Is she a white woman? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? all your life?
A Born here, yes sir.
Q Never lived outside? A Been in the Choctaw two years and the Creek one year.
Q When; the last three years? A Yes sir.
Q For the past year you have been in the Creek Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Before that, two years in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir, about two.
Q With that exception you have lived in the Cherokee Nation all your life? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your father? A Sam Cloud.
Q Is he dead? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your mother? A Lucy.
Q Is she dead? A Yes sir.
Q Are you a preacher? A Yes sir.
Q What are you doing down there? A I have a charge down there.
Q You never vote down there? A No sir.
1880 roll; page 80, #541, Henry Cloud, Cooweescoowee.
1896 roll; page 141, #1254, Henry L. Cloud, Cooweescoowee.
Q In fulfilling your duties as a Clergyman in the Choctaw and Creek Nations, have you always considered yourself as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q You never voted down there? A No sir.
Q Have you any interests up here; any lands or anything of that sort? A I haven't any lands in particular.
Q But you consider yourself a citizen up here? A Yes sir; I have a couple of horses.
Q You have some stock back here? A Yes sir.
Q And have had all the time? A Yes sir.
Q Now regarding the separation between yourself and wife; did she leave you or did you leave her? A I left her. She left. Of course, she considered that I left her. She came away from down there.
Q Did you tell her to leave you? A I told her to do as she pleased; if she didn't go I would.
Q She left virtually by your consent and instructions? A Yes sir.
Q Her application for enrollment is pending because of the separation—do you care to state anything that will indicate who is to blame for this separation; were you compelled as a matter of duty to tell her to leave you, or was it a question of incompatibility? A I consider that I was forced to leave.
Q Was her conduct such as to make you feel that it was absolutely necessary as an honest man that you and she should part company? A Yes sir.
Q Have you applied for a divorce from her? A No sir.
Q Why not? A I never considered it.
Q You and she have parted more than once, haven't you? A Yes, on two occasions.
Q And you lived together after your first separation for a while?

2- H.O.

A About a week I believe.

Q Was her conduct any different in connection with the last separation than it was in the first separation? A I consider it worse.

Q What was it got of temper? A Yes sir, that was one, and mistreating the children.

Q And yet the child is living with her? A Yes sir.

Q Living with her by your consent? A No sir.

Q Are you making any efforts to get the custody of the child? A I have just recently.

Q One serious objection is she does not properly treat the child—how could you let the child go with her? A I couldn't go and take it by force.

Q How long has she been away from you now? A Two years in February, I believe; it will be two years in February.

Q Is that all you wish to state? A I guess that it all that is necessary.

Q Did she abandon you? A I consider that I did.

Q You consider that she didn't abandon you in the sense that the law speaks of abandonment? A No sir.

THE COMMISSION: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and five children. He is identified on the authenticated roll of 1880 as a Cherokee-Shawnee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation for thirty-two years; he is identified upon the census roll of 1896 as an adopted Delaware. He avers that his father was an adopted Delaware and that his mother was a Shawnee. His wife is identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as a native Cherokee; she is identified upon the census roll of 1896 as an adopted Delaware. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life. His four older children are identified upon the census roll of 1896 as adopted Delawares. Their residence in the Cherokee Nation has been established to the satisfaction of the Commission. The applicant and his wife and four older children will be only listed for enrollment by this Commission as citizens of the Cherokee Nation by Shawnee blood, and when the applicant files with the Commission a duly executed affidavit as to the birth of his youngest child, that child likewise will be enrolled, with his wife and himself, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation with Shawnee blood.

Commissioner Breckinridge-

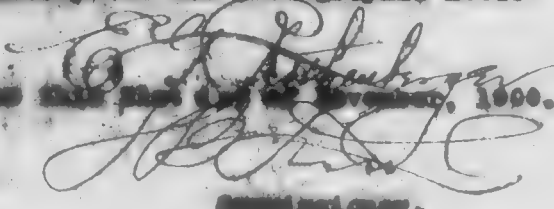

The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself, her husband and four children. She is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1888 as a native Cherokee. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, and she will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. Of her four children, the first three named in the testimony are children by a former husband deceased. These children, Mary B., Anna F., Fannie H. are identified on the roll of 1890; they are living now, and will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood. The youngest child, a child of the present marriage, Jennie H. Baker, will not be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood when a certificate of birth is filed with the Commission. She is shown to have been married to her husband, a white man, in 1887. Her former husband was dead, and he was never previously married. His marriage to her is too late to entitle him to enrollment under Cherokee law of 1885, and therefore the application for his enrollment is rejected.

H. C. Botheberger, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings and testimony in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
Chelsea, I.T. November 21, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF THOMAS L ROGERS FOR THE ENROLLMENT OF HIMSELF, HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN, AS CHEROKEE CITIZENS.

The said Thomas L. Rogers, being sworn by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, was examined by the Commission and testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Thomas L. Rogers. ✓

Q How old are you? A Thirty-two.

Q What is your post office address? A A Rago Indian Territory.

Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q What degree of blood do you claim? A I don't know just how much.

Q About how much? A About one-fourth, I reckon.

Q For whom do you make application? A For myself and wife and three children.

Q How long have you actually resided in the Cherokee Nation?

A All my life, I reckon. I was born and raised here.

Q Have you been outside of the Cherokee Nation within the past three years? A No, sir; not to live.

Q What is the name of your father? A Thomas Rogers.

Q Is he living? A Yes, sir.

Q Is your father a Cherokee? A He is an Osage.

Q What is the name of your mother? A Minerva.

Q Is she living? A No, sir.

Q Is she a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.

Q Does your name appear upon the roll of 1900? A I think it is. I think you will find it with Austin Lowrey's family.

Q What district? A Cooweescoowee.

Q What was your name then? A Thomas Rogers.

Q What district were you living in in 1896? A In Cooweescoowee.

Q Are you married? A Yes, sir.

Q What is the name of your wife? A Lizzie Rogers.

Q Has she any middle name? A No, sir.

Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.

Q How old is she? A Twenty-nine. ✓

Q Is she a Cherokee by blood? A White woman.

Q What is the name of her father? A Frank Heese.

Q Is he living? A No, sir.

Q What is the name of her mother? A Her mother is named Sadey Heese.

Q Is her mother living? A No, sir.

Q Were your wife's parents ever recognized as citizens of the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir.

Q Give me the name of your oldest child. A Mamie Ethel ✓

Q How old is she? A Five years old.

Q The next child? A Malt Leslie. ✓

Q How old is he? A He is three.

Q The next child? A Sylvester Anton. ✓

Q How old? A Nine months.

Q Are these children all alive and living with you at the present time? A They are.

Q They are all your children by your present wife? A Yes, where were you married? A In 1893.

Q Have you any evidence of your marriage? A Yes, sir; I have the certificate.

COMMISSIONER: The applicant presents a certified copy of the certificate of marriage, showing that Thomas L. Rogers and Miss were united in marriage on the 18th day of July 1893, by.

W. M. Drew, Deputy Clerk Cooweescoowee District. This document is filed herewith.

Q Have you lived with your wife continuously since that time?

A Yes, sir.

Q Were you ever married before? A No, sir.

Q Was she? A No, sir.

Q You are living with your wife now? A Yes, sir.

1880 Roll, page 166, No. 24 64 Thomas Rogers, Cooweescoowee District. Native Cherokee.

1896 Roll, page 242, No. 4047, Thomas Rogers, Cooweescoowee District.

THE COMMISSION: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and three children. He is identified on the authenticated roll of 1880 and the census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life and he will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by blood. The oldest child is identified upon the census roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee. She will be listed with her father as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation., and when the Commission is supplied with properly authenticated affidavits as to the birth of the two youngest children, they likewise will be duly listed with their father as Cherokee citizens by blood.

Satisfactory proof as to his marriage on the 12th day of July 1893 is made; he has lived with his wife continuously since that time; neither he nor she have ever been previously ~~married~~ married; she is identified upon the census roll of 1896 as an intermarried white, and she will be listed for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

this January 10, 1907.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 9, 1907.

Lizzie Rogers,

Ruby, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

You are advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior, January 26, 1907.

Respectfully,

D.

Commissioner.

Cherokee
et al.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 9, 1907.

W. W. Hastings,

Attorney for the Cherokee Nation,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10,
1907, rejecting the application for the enrollment of James

Watson, et al., as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee
Nation was affirmed by the Department January 26, 1907.

For your information there is enclosed herewith a copy of Departmental decision referred to.

Respectfully,

Encl. HJ-100.
HJC

Commissioner.
